Chiloquin

Stories of little boys battling balls through windows have been popular for many generations, but the grownups on the Chiloquin Indians team did the story one better recently. By a freak foul they bounced a ball off the roof of a residence and through a side window of the Methodist church.

Numerous local republicans and a few democrats braved the weather and the crowds on Saturday noon to hear Governor Thomas Dewey of New York speak from the courthouse steps in Klamath Falls.

Seen at the junior-senior prom from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Cnet Ashby, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. George Pohill, Fred Fletcher, Paula Albert, Gleta Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Snowball, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Paganello and Andy Anderson, all of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Juris of Prineville, Mr. and Mrs. Marian Edgar of Gilchrist, Fay Evans of Crescent, Dean Barker of Trail, Lou Ellen Nicholson of Medford, Margaret Ball who attends school in Portland, Mary Monks and Rosali Brusati from Marylhurst college, Kenneth Lusferman from Southern Oregon College of Education, Ted Floyd from Oregon State, Bill and Rose Marie Floyd and Marjorie Renhard from Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, Mrs. Leslie Franklin of Reedsport, and Oneta Reddy from Texas.

Mrs. Frank Knox returned home last week from a Klamath Falls hospital, just in time, incidentally, to see her older daughter Catherine, crowned queen of the annual junior-senior prom.

Fay Evans of Crescent was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Doty.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Juris were week-end guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Juria.

Camp Fire Girls attended religious services on Sunday as a group. They first went to mass at St. Carmel Catholic church, to Sunday school at the Methodist church and to morning worship service at the Bible Standard church.

Two weeks of special services at the Bible Standard church ended on Sunday evening. Rev. John Rummel and Rev. Gerald Pope, visiting ministers have conducted the meetings. Rev. A. C. Games is resident pastor. An interesting preview for the coming baccalaureate services for this year's graduating class from Chiloquin high school, Father Michael Albarns now of Redmond, but formerly of the local rectory and Catholic church, will come down to give the address. The high school follows the practice of alternating its annual service between Protestant and Catholic churches. Last year baccalaureate was held at the Methodist church.

The local telephone office staff reported an exceptionally busy day on Sunday because of Mother's Day. A sizeable percentage of the population apparently made long distance calls to mothers.

President of the junior class, Lorror Rorer, told this week of the outstanding work done by her classmates and others in the preparation for the junior-senior prom and reception. Margaret Molitor, senior class adviser and home economics instructor, was in charge of the refreshments and the serving at the reception. Kalman Pell, Junior class adviser, directed the carpentry and handicraft for the decorations. The tiny wishing wells used on the tables were especially attractive.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Cook received an overwhelming surprise when their son, Lyle Cook, reached home last week-end in time for Mother's Day with an army discharge. Cook, who had been stationed in Munich, Germany, was not expected until August. He has been in the United States for two weeks and flew on Saturday from New Jersey to Sacramento and then on to Klamath Falls where his sister, Mrs. Earl Jones, lives, and to Chiloquin.

Janet O'Donnell has been on the road almost continuously the past 10 days with three trips to Eugene and one to Bend to her credit. She is planning a visit next week in Port-

Newell

The Newell Scouts, troop 443, joined with the Tulelake Boy Scouts in a swimming party at Klamath Falls Friday night.

Mrs. Eugene Gilbert, Mrs. Louise Martin and Mrs. O. E. Pedersen took the seventh and eighth graders on a skip day picnic at Moore park in Klamath Falls last Friday. They enjoyed a matinee afterward.

Joe Thomas, his son, Larry, and O. E. Pedersen enjoyed a day's fishing at Duncan's reservoir Saturday. Larry was the only one to report good fishing.

O. E. Pedersen attended the recent Boy Scout Scoutmaster training course held at Altamont Junior high school in Klamath Falls. The last meeting was held last Friday.

Pedersen reports the course as being very interesting.

Piles of stones raised for unknown ceremonies by ancient Indians have been found in a rugged, waterless highland of northern Lower California.

COLUMBUS AND RUBBER

Columbus saw South American Indians playing with rubber balls 300 years before rubber was brought into commercial use in Europe, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica. Europeans first valued it to rub out pencil marks, not for its elasticity.
