Fellowship Mission To Be Held Here

An International Fellowship mission will be held at the First Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, May 13. Guest speakers will be Dr. Sun T'ien Hsi of China, Dr. Don Horatio Gonzales of Chile, and Dr. Paul R. Abbott, missionary to China. They are sponsored by the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church.

Dr. Hsi has been secretary of the YMCA in Tsinan and secretary of the National Christian Council of China. He is a journalist, having been long-time editor of the "Christian Farmer," a journal for Chinese farmers. He is also dean of Shantung Christian university at Tsinan, China.

Dr. Gonzales was delegate to the world Sunday school convention held at Oslo, and is president of YMCA in Santiago and chief advocate of a youth program for Chile. He is co-founder of the Presbyterian Youth Federation in Chile. His knowledge of the evangelical movement is not limited to South America, as he has traveled widely in Europe as well.

Dr. Abbott is pastor of a large city church in Shefoo, China. He has been a missionary to that country since 1910, serving as a country evangelist in the Shantung area. He is acting executive secretary of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church.

The Mariners' club will join in the mission meeting. Following this, the Mariners will be hosts for refreshments.

Mitchelmore Slates Trip

Rev. and Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore of Peace Memorial Presbyterian church will leave Saturday for North Bend where Rev. Mitchelmore will give the charge of the pastor at the installation of their son, Rev. Lawrence H. Mitchelmore. The latter recently moved to North Bend from Jacksonville to assume the pastorate of the Presbyterian church.

In the absence of the pastor services at Peace Memorial Presbyterian church, 4431 S. 6th, this Sunday will be conducted by A. C. Olson, ruling elder, with Robert Lamott, ruling elder, giving the address.

Marilee Crawford will be organist in the absence of Mrs. Mitchelmore. Sunday school is at 9:45 a. m. Classes are arranged for all ages.

The Christian Endeavor societies meet as follows: Juniors at 4 p. m., intermediates at 5 p. m. and Sigma Pi at 7:15, all on Sunday. A nursery for tots is maintained at the 11 a. m. worship service.

Tule Christian Church Services

At the Tulelake Christian church, Sunday services will be held at 3 p. m. All friends are invited to attend. Ted Hurlburt from San Jose, Calif., will be present, and will preach. This young preacher may become resident minister for the church.

Special music will be offered, both instrumental and vocal. Communion service will be served to every Christian attending. The local folks

Rally Speaker

Long associated with the Lutheran Hour broadcast on the Mutual Broadcasting system, Dr. Walter A. Maier, of St. Louis, Mo., will speak at a Lutheran Hour rally to be held May 18 at Medford. Many Klamath Falls people will go to Medford for the rally.

Director To Visit Church

Pearl Sherlock, director of religious education of the Oregon conference of the Methodist church, will be the special speaker at 11:00 a. m. Sunday at the First Methodist church. The choir will sing special music.

There will be a covered dish luncheon after the morning service to which all are invited.

After lunch Miss Sherlock will speak on "New Methods and Materials for Religious Education." At 4 p. m. the "Wings Over Jordan" choir will be heard in sacred concert. This concert is sponsored by the Klamath Ministerial association. The public is invited. In the evening at 6:30 Miss Sherlock will hold a young people's conference.

Monday and Tuesday, a teacher's training school, under the direction of Miss Sherlock, will be held at the church. Each morning, from 10 to 12 noon, will be for workers with children of nursery, beginners and primary ages. Each afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30 will be for workers with juniors and intermediates. Monday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 will be for young adults. Tuesday from 7:00 to 8:30 p. m. will be for older adults. Workers from other churches are cordially welcome to attend these classes.

of Tulelake have appointed Lloyd Bradbury to head the temporary committees.

Partial landscaping of the grounds will be finished this week it is expected. More work on the building will be done as soon as is practical and possible, and though not finished, it is at the present time useable.

Who Are The Real Slaves, Sermon Topic

"Who Are The Real Slaves Today?" is the sermon theme by Rev. Howard F. Hutchins at the morning worship at First Christian church. The worship service begins at 10:50 promptly. Charles Uhlig will sing a solo, "If You Could Know."

Communion is served each Lord's day, both morning and evening.

Evening worship begins at 7:30 with a song, led by Charles Uhlig. Church News Spotlight offers many informative and instructive items. Special music is an attraction. The sermon will be given by Ted Hurlburt of San Jose, Calif., who preaches at Tulelake in the afternoon.

Bible school is at 9:45 a. m. with classes for all ages. The church school is running about 340 weekly right now. All families are invited to participate in the school activities. A new class of young people has been started, under Norman Fraley. Christian Endeavor meets at 6:50. All are welcome to any or all of the sessions.

Matthews To Hold Service

At the Congregational church, Garden near Martin, on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the service of prayer and sermon will commemorate the Day of Pentecost. Rev. Godfrey Matthews will conduct the service and preach on the subject, "The Lord and Oliver of Life." Congregational singing will be led by the choir under the direction of the organist, Marie Caslens. A nursery for small children is conducted during the hour of worship for the convenience of parents.

At 7 o'clock in the evening a short service of prayer, conducted by the minister, will precede the presentation of a series of short dramas, written by pupils of the church school and directed by their instructors. The series includes "Ruth and Naomi," "Jonah and the Whale," "The Childhood of Moses," and "Jesus Welcomes a Roman Centurion."

Directors are Mrs. Kenneth E. Lambie, Mrs. Paul Angstead, Barbara Phillips and Rev. Godfrey Matthews. The beginners' section is directed by Mrs. Paul A. Lawman, and Mary E. Eckstein directs the primary grades. The service will conclude with the showing of a color film on "The Life of St. Paul." Parents and guardians of children are earnestly encouraged to be present.

Famed Negro Choir Sings Here

The Wings Over Hollywood choir, famed all-Negro singing group, will sing at the First Methodist church Sunday at 4 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

All-Negro Choir To Sing At Methodist On Sunday

The former members of the Wings Over Jordan choir, famous all-Negro group which has been heard over a national radio network for several years will appear in a concert at the Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, May 18, at 4 o'clock.

Under the able direction of their conductor, Charles E. King, they will present a rich and varied program in addition to solo numbers and quartet selections by their famous Wingmen Quartet.

The choir which now operates under the title of Wings Over Hollywood rendered service during the war when it toured the conflict zones and sang to many thousands of the boys overseas.

There is no admission charge to the concert, but an offering will be taken in behalf of the United States Christian commission and the Wings Over Hollywood choir. All lovers of this Lord's Day will be "The Christian's Commitment to Personal Witness." The worship service begins at 11 a. m. and concludes at 12:15. The public is invited.

Stopped Crime Wave

When matches were made of phosphorus, they were highly poisonous and figured in a number of murder cases, accidental deaths, and suicides. The match murders stopped overnight when a match company perfected a formula for non-poisonous matches and gave it to all U. S. manufacturers.

"Drive in Futuramic Style every Hydra-Matic Mile!"

Here's the car that's inspired new words for that all-time favorite — "In My Merry Oldsmobile." It's the Futuramic '48, a brand new model that's leading the way into a new Golden Era of progress and advancement!

flowing Futuramic fenders... that smart Futuramic interior. Then watch the face of the lucky driver. He's got that "Futuramic Feeling." It's more than the smoothness of a coil-cushioned ride. It's more than the simplicity of "no-clutch, no-shift" Hydra-Matic Drive. It's even more than the breathtaking thrill of stepping down on the gas and feeling that surge of power as WHIRLAWAY goes into action. That "Futuramic Feeling" is a combination of all these Oldsmobile features—topped off with a goodly measure of pride at driving the best looking of all the new cars on the roads today!
