

Day Of Pentecost To Be Observed At Presbyterian

The Day of Pentecost will be observed at the morning worship of the First Presbyterian church Sunday with Rev. David F. Barnett Jr. delivering a sermon on "Christ's Universal Power." A solo, "O Lord on High," will be sung by Colleen Crosswell.

New Pastor Reaches Here

Rev. Irvin Tweet, new pastor of the Klamath Lutheran church arrived this week from his former home in Brush Prairie, Wash.

Installation services for the new pastor will be held at the 11 a. m. Divine Pentecost service this Sunday. Officiating will be Dr. H. L. Fosberg, president of the Pacific district of the Evangelical Lutheran church of America.

Rev. Tweet succeeds Rev. S. M. Topness, who left some time ago to accept a pastorate at Huxley, Ia. Interim pastor has been Rev. H. J. Thorpe, who returned Monday to his home in Orland, Calif.

for babies and pre-school children is conducted during the worship service. The Senior High Westminster fellows and communicants class meets at 6:30 p. m. The junior high group meets at 7 p. m. The adult communicant's class, taught by Rev. Barnett, meets at 8 p. m.

The final meeting of the teacher training class will be held Monday at 7:30 p. m. Teachers from all departments will discuss plans for Children's Day, vacation Bible school, and summer Sunday school activities.

Women who have entered the church during 1947 and 1948 will be honored at a tea in the church parlor, given by the Women's association, Thursday at 2:15 p. m. All women of the church are invited. Mrs. Hal Ogle will lead the program on "Planting the Will," with Mrs. C. L. Harvey in charge of the devotions. Soloists will be Mrs. William Creswell, and Ty Keller, eight-year-old boy from Tulelake. They will be accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre. Also included in the program is a shower for the Mission school in Cameroun, West Africa, where Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Moser, from this church, are missionaries. Articles needed are sheets, pillow slips, dish towels and towels.

Thursday at 7:30 the session will receive new members into the church.

Lutherans To Hear Dr. Maier

Dr. Walter A. Maier, speaker on the well-known Lutheran Hour broadcast on the Mutual Broadcasting system, will appear at a Lutheran Hour rally planned for Tuesday, May 18, in the Medford high school auditorium.

Many from Klamath Falls are expected to attend the rally and pre-rally banquet.

Dr. Maier, in addition to his close association with the Lutheran Hour, is a professor at Concordia Theological seminary in St. Louis, Mo. The Medford rally will be his only appearance in Southern Oregon.

Information may be obtained by contacting Rev. Victor Schulze of the Zion Lutheran church.

Whitsunday Rites Slated

Services for this Sunday, the Feast of the Pentecost or Whitsunday, will open with 8 a. m. celebration of the Holy Communion at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Church school for all ages is at 9:45 a. m. At 11 a. m. there will be a service of Confirmation, when a class of adults and children will be presented.

The Young People's fellowship will serve a potluck supper for the bishop and members of the YPF of St. Luke's church, Lakeview, at 6:30 p. m. in the parish hall.

All members and friends of the church are urged to attend services.

Ministry May Get Salary Increase

PHILADELPHIA, May 14 (AP)—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the USA has received an overtone seeking adjustment of Presbyterian ministers' salaries to meet the increase in the cost of living.

The request was sent from the presbytery of Donegal and will be placed in the hands of the bills and overtures committee of the forthcoming 100th general assembly of the church in the USA at Seattle, May 27-June 2.

Magnesium metal was first produced commercially in Germany about 1913.
