Fort Klamath

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hackler have returned from a most enjoyable and interesting two-month trip during which they visited relatives at the following Texas points, San Antonio, Houston, Galveston and Corpus Christi. Among relatives they enjoyed seeing Mrs. Hackler's aged father. The Hacklers went to Texas by the southern route and returned to Fort Klamath via Colorado and Utah. While in the latter state, they spent a few days at Salt Lake City, during which time they made a tour of the city, visiting many interesting and historical spots, including the famous Mormon tabernacle. They made the trip by car.

Loren Streeter left this week for Redding, Calif., where he will superintend shipping his cattle from winter pasture near Redding to the Wood River Streeter ranch. During his absence Ray Frowell, local state highway employe, is doing the ranch chores for Mrs. Streeter. The Streeter cattle will be consigned by rail to Chiloquin, from where they will be driven over to the Streeter ranch by local cowboys.

Mrs. Gus Page has returned from Portland where she spent several days for medical observation and diagnosis. While in Portland, Mrs. Page called on Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Castel Sr., Fort Klamath residents. Castel is still a patient at the Veterans' hospital in Portland, and Mrs. Castel has been in Portland since January, staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Turner of Portland, during her husband's serious illness. Following a period of several weeks' steady improvement, Castel's condition is reported as not so good at this time, according to word received here from Portland this week by friends and relatives.

Mrs. Margaret Watson has returned from several weeks' stay at Hawthorne, Calif., where she was with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, formerly of Fort Klamath, who are being congratulated on the arrival of a baby girl, born May 7 at the St. Hood's hospital at Hawthorne. The little one has been named Beverly Gail, and weighed 8 pounds 4 ounces at birth. This is the first child of the well-known young couple. Mrs. Watson has since her return been employed by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cable at the Sunset lodge south of Fort Klamath, the Gables having recently taken re-possession of the property they had sold to Mrs. Roy Wims in 1947.

Mrs. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder have started work of building a store-room at the rear of their local grocery store. Ernest Noelling and Roeder were doing the work until this week when Roeder was forced to discontinue and see a doctor, following a severe back injury sustained when a heavy oil barrel slipped and caused the painful accident. He is considerably improved at this time.

Accompanying the Roeders to Klamath Falls on Tuesday were Mrs. Roeder's mother, Mrs. Brisco, who is visiting here from Merrill, Wis., and Mrs. Margaret Watson of Fort Klamath, all being business visitors to Klamath Falls.

Timber Falls In Reservation Area

Timber falling has been under way for several weeks on the Wild Horse logging unit No. 1 on the Klamath Indian reservation. In the picture, R. W. Taylor, forest supervisor (right), and O. E. Brooks, ranger in charge of the sale, watch a set of power saw fallers at work on a big Ponderosa.

The fallers are employed by Bill Raymond, who is logging contractor for the Klamath Lumber and Box company, purchaser of the timber.

Haul roads are under construction at present. Logs will be trucked to the Southern Pacific's Mazama siding near the north boundary of the reservation, and railed into Klamath Falls.

The Indian service roads division is now constructing a pile bridge over the Williamson river on the Silver lake road to carry the heavy log loads.

Ewauna Box company will also truck over this bridge from Little Yamsay cut No. 1 when Ewauna begins cutting there this fall.

Electron Microscope Solves Germ Identification Case

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Reporter
MINNEAPOLIS, May 14 (AP)—Science's super-sleuth—the electron microscope—has solved a tricky case of mistaken identity involving two rascals of the germ world, the Society of American Bacteriologists was told today.

The "fallen eyes" of the scope have detected a definite difference between two organisms which look exactly alike under an ordinary microscope—and which have confused some investigators.

The organisms are:
1. The germ that causes syphilis.
2. The germ that causes "pinta"—or "mal de pinto"—a skin disease that occurs in Mexico and Cuba.

Dr. Juan J. Angulo and colleagues of the University of Havana, and of the Squibb Institute for Medical Research, New Brunswick, N. J., made the report.

They said "pinta" has been regarded by some investigators as a clinical form of syphilis found in the tropics—because of the fact that germs isolated from a patient look just like syphilis germs under a regular microscope.

And yet, they declared, there is both clinical and experimental evidence that "pinta" is a distinct disease.

So they obtained a germ from a Cuban afflicted with pinta—and put the problem up to the electron "mike."

They found a number of differences in the appearance of the germ, as compared with syphilis germs.

At the society's annual banquet last night, Dr. Alan Weyl Bernheimer of New York was recognized the "Eli Lilly award" in recognition of "an outstanding contribution in the field of bacteriology."

He received a medal and a $1000 honorarium.

Planes Blow Up In Air

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, May 14 (AP)—Two fighter planes, diving from four miles up, exploded over Anchorage yesterday as residents watched, and then fell in a shower of wreckage into the waters of Knik arm.

The planes exploded again in the water and sent up plumes of black smoke as hundreds of persons rushed to the city bluffs to watch. The second explosion was heard throughout this city of 20,000.

One body floating in an oil slick was recovered by a cannery tender. The other pilot's body was not found.

Forrest Wood, local private pilot, said the planes exploded at about 8000 feet. He said it was difficult to tell whether they collided or ran into trouble in the dive.

The wrecks were in a formation of four. They pealed off from the formation to make what Wood described as a "routine dive."

5 Acres of Friden Calculators

Air view of the expanded Friden Calculating Machine Company, Inc. plant in San Leandro, California. The large buildings required two years, and more than $1,000,000 to complete.

Straight-line production of Friden Calculators on an "immediate delivery" basis is now possible, it was announced by Cliff Voight, manager of the Pioneer Printing and Stationery Co., Friden Agency.

Voight explained that technological improvements and simplicity of design by Friden have kept the price of calculators down approximately to 1935 levels.

The Friden Company, manufacturers of the only electrically operated, rotary type one-way, non-reversible calculator in the world, has waged a constant battle to keep pace with customer demand ever since its formation less than 15 years ago.

Mr. Voight invites your inquiries on immediate delivery of Friden machines, at the PIONEER PRINTING AND STATIONERY CO., 123-124 South 9th St.

The Wedding Must Go On, He Says

EL SEGUNDO, Calif., May 14 (AP)—Gripping the pen firmly in his teeth, Donald K. Harger signed away his bachelor's life with an "X."

Harger, 45, refinery manager, was burned seriously in an explosion April 24, the day of his intended marriage.

Yesterday, with his bride-to-be, Violet Hulquist, 43, holding his still bandaged hands, Harger made his mark on the marriage license, brought to his hospital bed by an obliging county clerk.

"That's doing it the hard way," grinned Harger. "With some practice I could even write my name."

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Job Had the Folks in Stitches!

At the Friday Night Social, Jeh Crowell had the audience in stitches—doing a take-off on the blustering character who belittles everybody and everything that isn't from his own home town.

Well, we can laugh at that sort of character because from where I sit, Americans are just the opposite. We like to boast a bit perhaps, about the paint job on the new barn, or the missus' style of cooking—but we aren't intolerant of people who don't think or act exactly the same way we do.

In our town, for instance: Some folks like band concerts, others don't—some families serve beer with dinner, others, buttermilk—and as for politics, there's plenty of healthy disagreement.

But when it comes to denying folks the right to think or act as they choose...no, we're like you—we don't believe in it, whether it goes for serving beer, or speaking one's mind on public affairs.

TO THE VOTERS OF KLAMATH COUNTY

I believe the outlying districts such as Shasta, Homedale, Altamont, Stewart, Lenox, Weyerhaeuser, etc. should have adequate Police Protection.

The suburbs have a combined population equal to Klamath Falls which is one of the best policed cities on the Pacific Coast.

When the Voters annexed the district from the Tower Theatre, north to the city limits, the police department immediately put on a sub car to police this new Addition.

This suburban residential district now depends on the State Police for protection, and they are making every effort to provide this service, but due to their small personnel it is virtually impossible for them to cover the entire residential district.

I believe the Sheriff is responsible for all outlying districts in Klamath County and they have grown to the point where there is need for additional Police Protection for these suburbs.

I again say the County has arrived when the County should give the industries, business establishments and homes outside of Klamath Falls the Police Protection they deserve.

If elected Sheriff, I will do all in my power to have money appropriated for a sub car to police this outlying suburban area and it will be done in the same efficient manner as is now done within the city limits of Klamath Falls.

Furthermore, as Sheriff, I am capable of supervising this operation and making it work in close harmony with the State Police.

Thank you,

Jack Linkenbach,
Republican Candidate for Sheriff.
