

Double Ring Vows Read In April

A bride of April 24 was Wanda Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nelson of this city, who exchanged vows with Darrell Ervin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ervin, also of Klamath Falls.

The Klamath Temple was the scene of the wedding, and the Rev. Daniel B. Anderson read the double ring vows at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Bouquets of pink and white snapdragons, palms and tapers in tall candleholders were arranged at the altar. Normand Nelson, brother of the bride, and Harold Lyons were candlelighters.

John Crosby sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre, who later played traditional wedding music.

Miss Nelson was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of heavy cream satin, fashioned with a net yoke edged with a trim of rolled satin. The skirt was gathered at the waist with a long train and trim of ruffled Italian lace.

For jewelry she wore a pearl necklace, borrowed from an aunt. A fingertip veil was held in place with a bandeau of Star of Bethlehem flowers. Her Bible was marked with ribbon streamers and a spray of white blooms.

Maid of honor was Lorraine Bonetto, sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaid was Berthel Mayfield, sister of the bride, and the little flower girl was Andrea Bonetto. The maid of honor and bridesmaid were identically gowned in frocks of pink taffeta with bouffant corded skirts. Each wore a tiara of white carnations. Andrea wore a pink frock fashioned like the brides, and carried a basket of pink and yellow roses.

Mrs. Nelson, mother of the bride, wore a silk crepe dress of brown with green accessories, and a Tallman rosebud corsage. Mrs. Ervin chose aqua, with matching accessories and a similar corsage.

Attending the bridegroom were Neil Mayfield and Bob Clammer. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crismon and George Ghiselin.

The newlyweds and their parents received at the bride's home following the rites.

The bride's cake, encircled with pink rosebuds, centered the table. After the young couple cut the first slice of the wedding cake, it was served by Mrs. Neil Mayfield and Mrs. Albert Bonetto. June Plunket and Dorothy O'Malley poured, while Mrs. Harry Ward assisted.

Ruth McCool was in charge of the guest book. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wanner, great aunt and uncle of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oserson of Sacramento, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tuttle, aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts and Donna, Mrs. C. R. McCool, Richard and Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Macdonald, all of Kelso, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Austin of Yakima, Wash.

For going away the new Mrs. Ervin chose a slate blue suit with white accessories. For their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Ervin drove down the Redwood highway to San Francisco. They are at home at 73 Pine street.

RECENT VISITORS in Klamath Falls were Dr. and Mrs. Roger E. DeWeese, their children, and Mrs. DeWeese's mother, Mrs. Ann Boin. The DeWeese family is from San Francisco, and Mrs. Boin, from San Carlos, Calif. They were week-end guests of Mrs. JoAnn DeWeese of 815 Eldorado, the doctor's mother. Above are Mrs. DeWeese and their three youngsters, from left, Roger 3rd, James and little Marciann.

End Of Season Is Marked By AAUW

The Klamath Falls branch of the American Association of University Women held its last meeting of the year Saturday, May 8, when members came to tea at 2 o'clock, heard reports of the Lakeview conference, helped install new officers, and held a last social hour.

Mrs. D. J. Zumwalt, musical chairman, presented Joan Robinette, talented young pianist who played "Idyll" by MacDowell, and the second movement from "Fasching-Schwank" by Schumann.

Announcements were made by the international relations and social welfare chairmen, and the group went on record approving the petition of the Associated Women of the Klamath county farm bureau to the city council for a restroom in Klamath Falls.

Excellent reports were made to the membership on the Lakeview conference by Mrs. A. V. McVey, Mrs. Willard Duncan, Orpha Hudson, Irma Wauchope, Mrs. O. K. Puckett and Mrs. C. E. Brisenden.

An impressive installation ceremony, written for the occasion by Mrs. Aaron Hoffman, was conducted by Mrs. A. L. Brandt and other outgoing officers, who...nded the symbols of their authority to the officers for the coming year. They are Mrs. Willard Duncan, president; Orpha Hudson, vice president; Mrs. E. V. McVey, secretary, and Irma Wauchope, secretary. Corsages were presented to the new officers, and a gift and a corsage were also presented to Mrs. O. K. Puckett, outgoing president, for a most successful and progressive year.

Mrs. D. J. Zumwalt and Mrs. Harold A. Teale poured at 11:30 tea table, and Mrs. Zumwalt was presented with the table flower arrangement in gratitude for her interesting musical programs introduced during the past year.

The annual tea honoring graduating senior girls of Klamath county will be held this year Saturday, May 22, at the home of Mrs. Nelson Reed, 2040 Del Moro, from 2 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. George Myers is being assisted by the following committee chairmen: Mrs. F. B. Ehlers, Mrs. L. L. Shaw, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson Jr., Mrs. R. L. Erickson, Mrs. K. A. Moore and Mrs. Robert Thompson, with Mrs. D. J. Zumwalt planning the music program. All members of AAUW are invited.

Attend Rally

Several Klamath Falls members of the Women of the Moose motored to Astoria the week-end of May 1 to attend a banquet and friendship rally in that city. Seven Oregon chapters were represented.

Among official visitors was Mrs. Dovie Reeder of Merrill, graduate dean. The Klamath Falls chapter conducted an initiation service for the Astoria group, and Mrs. Agnes Vasek, graduate regent of the Klamath chapter received a corsage from those attending.

Those who drove north from here were Jackie Leach, Mildred Wilkerson, Blanche Pyle, Marie Reis, Pat McManus, Agnes Vasek, Ruby Wineburg, May Logan, Thelma Ernest, Ruth Gormley, Bertha Griggs, Elmer McGeheey, Erma Gefue, all of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Dovie Reeder of Merrill.

Luncheon

The Rebekah social club held a potluck luncheon and business meeting in the IOOF hall Wednesday, May 12, at 1 o'clock. Seventeen members were present. Berenice McCracken and Ada Willits were appointed as a committee to purchase a lamp for the piano in the lodge room. Pat McManus turned in $12 as the proceeds of her "rolling dollar," and it was taken by Agnes Lowe for the next two-week period. So far $52.35 has been realized from these "rolling dollars," and the proceeds will be ultimately used for the purchase of a carpet for the lodge room.

The next meeting will be May 26, and will be a dessert luncheon, with Agnes Lowe and Isabelle Foster, hostesses.
