Soroptimists Hold Luncheon Session

The Klamath Falls Soroptimist club met Thursday noon for its regular luncheon of the month.

Soroptimist Cromwell from the Redding, Calif. Soroptimist club, was introduced to members by Josephine Kittredge. The club is always happy to meet members from other localities as it enjoys hearing about activities of other clubs.

A letter from Clare Nichols, Northwest regional director, was read by Suzanne Hamilton, thanking the club for its part in presenting the gift she received at the regional conference at Bend.

Vivian Owens introduced Dr. E. D. Lamb to the members, and he gave a most interesting lecture on Yellowstone national park and the Grand Tetons.

The lecture was illustrated by colored film photographed by Dr. Lamb on his trip through that section of Wyoming last July. The film showed many of the geysers and landmarks brought out by outstanding photography. Especially attractive were Riverside geyser pictures showing clearly a large and beautiful rainbow created by the geyser. Photography hobbyists and nature lovers both were impressed by this excellent film.
