By MARY LOU CASE

The chief question asked today was, "Where are the seniors?" Noticeably lacking around the halls were the seniors who today were granted a legal "Skip Day." Skip Day is a tradition at KUHS and is one of the attractions which the underclassmen look forward to when they become seniors. Skip Day will be followed tomorrow by senior "Hick Day," when the seniors will appear in all manner of dress, just so it is "hicky."

With the senior banquet, given by the Parents and Patrons club, just around the corner, the 19 junior girls who will help serve are working out a skit for the program. The girls chosen for this are Mary Stone, Delora Hedlund, Marcella Murray, Joan Moore, Georgianna Clark, Turkey Smith, Barbara Dotson, Merlene Buringham, Colleen Creswell and Helen Jackson. The banquet will be served in the KUHS cafeteria Wednesday night.

Also on the agenda for senior girls is the American Association of University Women's tea to be given May 22. Overshadowing these so-

Ladies Aid—The Klamath Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet at 8 p. m., Tuesday in the church parlors. A life membership will be presented by Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, life membership and in memoriam chairman. On the program will be Ruth Hedberg with a vocal solo, Ingrid Norland with a flute solo, and Rev. Irwin Tweet, new pastor, will speak. Hostesses are Mrs. J. D. Huck and Mrs. Otto Erlanson.

Reunite Home—Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson and children, Sue and Bobby, returned late Sunday from a motor trip which took them to Eugene and Corvallis. At Oregon State college, Mrs. Thompson attended the 30th reunion of her sorority, Sigma Kappa, and enjoyed seeing many of her old classmates.

Union Gospel—Meetings at the Union Gospel Mission, 251 Commercial, will be held Monday and Tuesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock with Evangelist Mattie Cummings and Mrs. Beale Green of Los Angeles speaking. Good singing is promised and all are welcome to the worship services according to Mrs. C. Timms, pastor.

Regular Meet—The Eagles auxiliary will hold a regular meeting and 20th anniversary celebration at 8 p. m., Tuesday, in the lower P.O.E. hall. Charter members will be special guests. All members are reminded to wear formal. Refreshments and entertainment will be furnished.

Auxiliary—Klamath unit No. 8, American Legion auxiliary, will have a regular meeting Tuesday at 8 p. m. The first of the Pan-American dolls being made by the junior auxiliary will be exhibited.

Card Party—The Suburban league auxiliary card party, to have been held Tuesday evening, has been postponed indefinitely. Announcement will be made when a definite date is set.

Drum Corps—The Eagles auxiliary drum corps will meet tonight, Monday, at 7:30 in the upper P.O.E. hall. All corps members are urged to attend.

cial events are senior final exams which begin May 24.

The International Society of Gidous conducted a religious type of assembly during actively period today for freshmen, sophomores and juniors. At this time, Bibles were awarded to those underclassmen who desired them, since the seniors have already received their Bibles.

Plans are already developing for theatrical production to be given by the county teen-agers at the Pelican theatre during the Teen-Age Show Week which is slated for an indefinite date in July. Mrs. Roberta Blomquist will direct the play and the cast will be chosen from interested teen-agers. All proceeds from the show will be used toward the financing of the Teen-Age cañeen for the coming year.

Don't take that gal or guy for granted! Now is the time for juniors and seniors to get their dates for the prom, which will be held in Pelican court this Friday, May 21. The theme for the prom is "Rhapsody in Blue" and at that time the prom king and queen will be crowned. Decorations will be carried out with various colored blue and white crepe paper, silver music notes and signs, and a grand piano. Programs will be available Thursday and Friday.

White Shrine—The May meeting of Naoml Shrine, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple. All visiting members are invited to attend.
