Campaign Statements From Candidates At The May 21 Primary Election

By DEAN HALL
Republican Candidate For Sheriff

I am 45 years of age, with 24 months service in World War II as a private first-class and two years of police experience. I also spent 13 years as a service station owner and operator and am now engaged in livestock farming.

If nominated and elected to the office of Klamath County Sheriff, I will discharge the duties of that office in impartial, fair and humane manner.

Chiloquin

A meeting is scheduled for 8 p. m. next Wednesday, May 19, at the high school auditorium for the organization of a parent-teachers group, with officers chosen to preside for the following year. The group is being asked to cooperate with the city council on a definite plan for juvenile recreation for the summer months, including story hour for tiny tots, summer 4-H work, supervised playground activities, and formation of junior baseball teams. Ballroom dancing lessons, dances for teen-agers, boxing and other recreation suggestions have been made which will be discussed. Other important issues are a pre-school age medical-dental clinic for local five-year-olds and appointing a committee to award the PTA achievement cup to the outstanding senior student. All adults in the community who are interested are urged to attend this highly important meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hicks are parents of a baby boy, born last week at Klamath Valley hospital. The Hicks have two other children, a boy and a girl.

Ed F. Allemeech is on a several months' visit to Neieumunster, Belgium, his first visit home in 42 years. He left Klamath Falls by plane last Saturday, flew from New York to London, and from there will travel to Dover, where he will take to the air for the final lap of his journey.

Allemeech, 73 years old, will visit with an 81-year-old brother, and then go to France to visit other relatives. He lived in Nova Scotia after leaving the continent but has been in the Klamath Falls-Lakeview section for well over 30 years, where he has worked as farmer, blacksmith and woods employe. He also operated a junk yard in Chiloquin for many years.
