

Merrill Is Host To Top Loom Man

MERRILL, May 18—Charles J. Skill, state director, visited Merrill lodge, Loyal Order of Moose today to meet with members and new officers. A picture, "When Life Begins Anew" was shown and members of the Women of the Moose are invited to see the picture also which is a life picture of the aged at the Moose home in Orange Park, Florida.

Construction has begun on the new home of the Loyal Order of Moose in Merrill on their lots next to the Dale West residence. A. G. Silva of Merrill is the successful bidder on the building which is to be completed in approximately 90 days.

Olga Bradshaw and Dovie Reeder returned from a trip to Astoria where they attended the convocation of the Academy of Friendship on Sunday.

The nominating committee of the Women of the Moose met at the home of Margaret Fields to nominate new officers for the coming year. Their report will be given to the chapter at the next regular meeting. Members present were Dovie Reeder, Dorris Wineberger, Rose Van Meter, Maggie Adams, Margaret Fields, Mary Lou Nino, Louisa Icenbise, Anna Hartlerode and Olga Bradshaw.

The hospital guild committee presented their chapter night program at the last meeting with Dr. Jack Martin of Malin as guest speaker on the subject, "What to Do and Not to Do Until the Doctor Comes," after which he answered questions asked by members present.

Lena Harrison of Merrill was elected to membership and refreshments were served by Marjorie Lisk, Veronica McNeil, Rose Bailey, Elizabeth Slezak, Clara Edwards and Marie Vaacknitz.

Higher Milk Price To Be Target

PORTLAND, May 18 (AP)—The new president of the Oregon Milk distributors association plans to seek higher milk prices.

John Mellema, Portland, named yesterday to succeed J. L. Sinner, resigned, said the upward price adjustment was needed to put distributors "in the black."

W. F. Grob Dies At 72

William Frederick "Pete" Grob, 72, well known Lake and Klamath county resident, died suddenly at 1:30 p. m. Monday at Bray Mill. Death was attributed to a heart ailment.

Mr. Grob, born February 17, 1876, in Jacksonville, Ore., was a member of a pioneer Oregon family and spent his entire lifetime in the southern section of the state. He was married to Ella Rehart of Lakeview and the family lived there for many years where Mr. Grob followed the butcher trade. At one time he also drove stage.

In 1919, the Grob family moved to Chiloquin and later to Sprague River. For the past several summers they have lived at Davis lake and recently moved to Sacramento.

Stassen Is Leader In Jaycee Poll

At the regular Jaycee dinner meeting Monday night in the Winema hotel the program for the evening was concerned mostly with the current political campaigns. Special emphasis was given to the primary election coming up this Friday with a general plea to get out and vote. By a show of hands, it was shown that every member present at the meeting was eligible to vote.

A straw vote was taken to poll the Jaycees on many of the candidates that will appear on the ballot this Friday. First on the straw ballot was a vote between two aspirants for the presidential nomination. Former Minnesota governor, Harold E. Stassen, received 15 votes and Governor Dewey of New York received 12. The vote between Governor Hall and Douglas McKay for the governor of Oregon favored Governor Hall 16 to 9.

Carl Steinseifer and Ed. Geary led in the poll for state legislature. On the republican side of the sheriff's race, Karl Dehlinger was on top in a close race. Wally Moss led in the democratic poll. The only unanimous vote of the evening was given to re-nominate Secretary of State Earl Newbry.
