Registration Tops Record In Oregon

Friday's election may bring out more Oregon voters than any primary election in the history of the state.

Reports from the office of Dave O'Hara, chief of the state elections division, show that there are 692,913 voters registered in the state. That's an all-time record.

Republicans have the lead over the democrats, 322,499 to 301,543. In 11 of the 36 counties, democrats outnumber republicans. These are Baker, Columbia, Coos, Crook, Deschutes, Harney, Klamath, Linn, Multnomah, Union and Willamette.

Klamath's neighbors are three to one republican. Lake, Jackson and Lane are in the republican ranks, but Deschutes has a democratic majority.

Here are the principal party registrations in the counties of the 17th senatorial district and Lane and Jackson, which bound Klamath on the west and northwest.

County	Rep.	Dem.
Crook	1,400	1,803
Deschutes	4,574	6,519
Jackson	13,213	10,691
Jefferson	770	763
Klamath	8,937	10,734
Lane	24,917	20,195
Lake	1,392	1,214

In the 17th senatorial district, democrats have a lead 21,032 to 17,073.

Cat Keeps Lonely Vigil At Grave

CHICAGO, May 18 (AP) — Sniffy, a female cat, is keeping a lonely vigil at the grave of her friend Chip—a dog.

Chip, two years old, was killed by an automobile Saturday. Max Eichner, owner of both animals, said Sniffy sits at Chip's grave in the rear of Eichner's home, and refuses to leave.

A PERSONAL MESSAGE from Governor DEWEY

Two and a half years ago we were the most powerful nation on earth. Today we appear before the world so weak that dictators feel our soldiers can be pushed around and shot in the back.

Our national government is warning us in the gravest terms of war-like conditions. Strange submarines are reported off Alaska, off the Atlantic Coast, and off the shores of California. The Russians have been threatening to throw us out or bully us out of Berlin.

Under all these conditions our government should be doing something to halt the tide. The fact is that our national administration has made almost every possible blunder and we ought to get rid of it at the first possible moment.

Meanwhile there is war talk on every hand. Nothing could be so unnecessary or so tragic. War is the last act of a bankrupt statesmanship. I insist there is absolutely no reason for the fear of war if our government will start waging the peace.

Today there are two great and powerful nations in the world—the United States representing the whole cause of human freedom and Soviet Russia, representing the tyranny of the police state. We Americans propose to live at peace but we have learned that we must be strong enough to be respected in order to keep the peace. We have learned that unless the free world as a whole is strong and stands together, the forces of dictatorship will sense weakness and will set out on a war of conquest.

In the face of recent ominous events in the world, it is clear that we must start immediately to build up our military strength by whatever means are necessary in order to protect America. Most of all, we must create an air force which is the most powerful striking force in the world.

But military strength alone is not enough. Armaments alone can never preserve peace. We are confronted in the world today, not with the simple threat of military force but with a challenge that strikes at the heart of our whole way of life—a challenge to our American ideals. We need to build up our strength but we need also to build up our faith.

There are too many people in this country and in the world who can see only our little failures, our strikes, our occasional injustices. I am sick to death of hearing people sell America short. The time has come for us, as Americans to re-discover our purpose, our greatness as a nation, our ideals and our enormous competence. When we have done that there is not the slightest doubt that we can and will win the peace. I say again this is not a war crisis; it is a peace crisis, and we must start waging the peace now.
