

MIDLAND EMPIRE NEWS

Camp 6—W

Mrs. Fred Peters and children spent Wednesday of last week in Klamath Falls visiting at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Stiles and family.

Mrs. R. E. Patrick and two children, Michael and Deany, of Lakeview spent a few days in camp recently visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Rogers.

The Ladies' Afternoon Pinochle club met Thursday, April 29, at the home of Mrs. George Rogers. A tasty dessert course was followed by pinochle. High prize was won by Mrs. Lee Wittingham. Mrs. Fred Peters won pinochle prize. Plans were started for an evening session to which the husbands will be invited. Mrs. Maggie West of Jacksonville and Mrs. R. E. Patrick of Lakeview were guests of the club. The May party will be hosted by Mrs. Bob Schlotfeld.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Collier of Bly were week-end guests at the Bob Brown home.

A number of people from camp attended the spring music festival presented Friday, April 30, at the Bly school. The singing and folk dancing was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Card and Luncheon club which meets bi-monthly was held at Inez Chandler's home Thursday, May 6. The afternoon was spent playing bingo with Jo Moorhead winning first and Pearl Henderson second.

The Archie West family had visitors Thursday of last week when the Bill Barkers, Leva Straubles and children and Ina Belle West, all from Jacksonville, drove over to spend the day. The ladies of the group are all sisters of Archie West.

Their mother, Mrs. Maggie West, who had been spending the week visiting in Camp at the Wests, returned with them to her home in Jacksonville.

Boy Scouts of Camp 6, better known at the Wolf patrol, attended camporee at Dog Lake over Saturday and Sunday. They are Floyd Moorhead, Fred West, Darrel Warren and Norman Wittingham, and Bobbie and Harold Winfield.

Bill Rogers was taken ill last Sunday while attending the Rodeo at Bieber, Calif. He is confined in bed at the Maddock home in Lakeview and may not be back to work for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Huck and baby are spending a week at Applegate and Eugene visiting relatives and friends and fishing. Mr. Huck whose arm is still in a cast, has learned to his dismay that he will have to endure it for another month.

Mrs. Fred Peters and children and Mrs. George Rogers drove to Lakeview Tuesday. Mrs. Peters spent the day shopping and Mrs. Rogers visited with her son, Bill, who is ill. They also stopped at the R. E. Patrick home.

Billy Jo Smooks, nephew of Folk Maddock, spent a week-end visiting at his uncle's home in camp recently. He is from Klamath Falls.

Sam James and Folk Maddock motored to Prineville to attend a union convention there over the seventh and eighth of May. They were accompanied by their wife.

Among the mothers who attended the mother-daughter tea put on by the upperclass girls of Bly high school were Mrs. Sam James, Mrs. Folk Maddock and Mrs. Elmer Moorhead.

The J. W. Smith family was visit-

Malin

Malin seniors enjoyed a "skip day" last week and motored to Medford and Ashland where they spent the day. Jack Minkler accompanied the class.

The ZCMB lodge is asking all people who have plots in the Malin cemetery to help in cleaning the cemetery Saturday morning. Boy Scouts will also assist.

Richard Bellamy of Olympia, Wash. recently flew to Malin where he visited his mother, Mrs. Jack Hudson.

Malin elementary school held "Achievement Day" last Friday, May 14. Each room had attractive displays of work accomplished by students during the school term. Malin teachers, assisted by Parents and Patrons club members, served tea to the parents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spolek have moved into the home occupied for a number of years by Mr. and Mrs. Wood Oliver.

A number of members of the Malin home extension unit met recently at the home of Mrs. William Halpus where they made foot-streets, Helen Stine, home demonstration agent, was present to assist in the work.

Sprague River

Clara Graham left for Denver, Colo. April 24 after spending a month with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lucky Lopez.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Moore spent the week-end in Ashland with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Speed Smith are parents of a daughter born at Klamath Valley hospital. She is their third daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Pugh are parents of a daughter born at Klamath Valley hospital. She is their first child. Mr. and Mrs. Martin and daughter ed Thursday by Mrs. Maude Smith and Mrs. Dorothy Icenhower and baby, all of Lakeview.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Henderson and family drove over from their new home at Oakridge to visit their son Gene who stays at the Jack Baker home. Also, their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baker.

CARNIVAL

By Dick Turner

"The hot-foot test! We leave nothing to chance in proving that ours is the finest product on the market!"

ter of Betty and Lucky and Dollie Lopez were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Crume Sunday.

The ball game between Sprague River and Bly Sunday was won by Bly.

The boxing matches held in the school gym were a great success with Sprague River boys doing very well.

The engagement of Marie Preston was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucky Lopez, to Robert Weir Smith of Portland. The wedding will take place in Portland June 22 at St. Mary's church.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Ludwick are the proud grandparents of a baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Fonnale Parrish in California. Mrs. Parrish will be remembered here as Patricia Ludwick.

Little Ads get big Results. Use The Herald and News Want-Ads!

A true blizzard must be accompanied by a gale of wind, zero temperatures, and drifting, powdery snow.

First manufacturer of wool in England was about 1185.

CARL ENGDAHL

Fendleton, Oregon

Candidate for Delegate to

Republican National Convention

from

Second Congressional District

Pd. Adv.—Carl Engdahl

Merrill

Mrs. Edwin Strock and daughters, Judy and Nancy, left by train for Canby, Ore. where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. Strock's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Ella Waterman.

Mrs. James Merlees has been confined to her home the past few days with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kingsford (Lou Maupin) have returned from a two-week honeymoon in Reno, Nev. Mr. and Mrs. Kingsford will make their home in Merrill.

Mrs. Evelyn Carson has accepted a position at the Crater Lake Dairy store.

Jack Liskey and Will Baldwin were the lucky recipients of an elk given at the hard times dance Wednesday evening.

GRADUATION SPECIAL!

Watches

- 17 Jewels
- Guaranteed 1 Year
- 10K Gold Filled Cases
- Open a Charge Account

21<sup>88</sup>

Plus Fed. Tax $2.18

Total ..... $24.06

AT

Reinharts JEWEL and GIFT Shop

519 Main St.

Phone 6163

You will be justly proud to give or wear one of these beautiful watches. Send check or money order and we will mail one of these watches to you. If you are not completely pleased your money will be refunded.

La Pointe's

INSPIRATIONS from PARIS ...

CHRISTIAN DIOR

The genius of a distinguished designer captures the mood of French flirtation. In brown, red, green or blue, sizes 10 to 18. .... 8.95

JEAN PATOU

Jean Patou wove the carefree air that is France into this gay little cotton. Pink, blue, brown and green, sizes 12 to 20. .... 8.95

MOLYNEUX

With French finesse, Molyneux creates a two-piece-look dress destined for a gay young life. Striped chambray, blue, rose, brown or lime on white. 8.95

JACQUES FATH

"Shepherdess Pannier" silhouette in silky sanforized chambray. Pure flattery in cologne cool tints of red, green, blue, brown or grey on white. 8.95

La Pointe's

TRAILS... FORESTS... MOUNTAINS

In 3 fascinating new books you'll want to own!

Travel the entire length of the Pacific rim—from Mt. Katmai to Alaska down to the Andes to Cape Horn—with a vibrant color photo-essay showing you a lifetime of adventure and excitement in style. Illustrated. At all bookstores . . . $3.50

A heroic, vibrant tale of the logging industry's contribution to America's growth. Share the author's love of wild life and nature, exciting days and nights on the trails, their own adventures, and their own knowledge of the physical world. Far more than a mere woodman's history. At all bookstores . . . $4.00

A ready reference to every kind of problem met in the course of the peaks . . . first made available for the first time in the general public. A wealth of professional, authoritative information on their climbs, their mountaineering, maps, and diagrams. At all bookstores . . . $3.00

SUPERIOR PUBLISHING CO. SEATTLE 1, WASHINGTON