

Rainiers Find Pitching, Top Angels, 2 To 0

Portland Pushed Deeper In Cellar By Loss To Solons

By The Associated Press

That pitching Seattle's Rainiers were counting on to make them Coast League pennant contenders has arrived in a sudden hail of roose fies.

Guy Fletcher, the bespectacled right-hander, fashioned a one-hit shutout to defeat Los Angeles, 2-0, last night. He came close to duplicating the perfect seven-inning no-hitter that Dick Barrett pitched for the Rainiers last Sunday.

And tonight the Angels were slated to face Barrett.

The win tightened Seattle's grip on fourth place, seven games back of leading San Francisco, which lost to Oakland, 2-1. That result left second-place Los Angeles four games behind, and the third-spot Oaks, five.

Fletcher's job was marred only by Elmer Mallery's outfield single in the fourth inning. Mallery got as far as third and died there.

The only other Angel to reach base was Dom D'Allesandro, who walked in the second and was buffeted out in a double play. Fletcher thus faced only 28 batters—27 in the official box. He fanned four.

Angel Dewey Adkins' neat five-hitter sent down the drain as Bill Ramsey walked, moved up on a wild pitch and tallied on Hills Layne's single in the first inning. Seattle added an unearned run in the ninth.

HOMER IS MARGIN

Southpaw Aldon Wikie of the Oaks and Al Lien of the Seals hooked up in a tight duel at Oakland. Lloyd Christopher's homer proved the winning margin. Wikie hurled a shutout until the ninth when Felix Mackiewicz and Dixie Howell doubled for the Seals' lone run.

Both Seattle and Oakland took two-one series leads, indicating the pennant fight may tighten further during the week.

Hollywood's slugging Stars belted San Diego for a 12-2 triumph. Pete Gerbrian spaced 11 Padre bloopers while his mates rapped three flingers for 20 hits, including a three-run homer by Lou Kahn and four hits by Don Ross. The Stars lead, two games to one.

In the cellar battle, Sacramento defeated Portland, 8-2, to push the Beavers a game and a half back in the hole. The seventh-place Solons made it easy for Lou Tolson with three runs in the second. Babe Dahlgren's three-run homer featured the big inning.

Determination of latitude by "shooting" stars is sometimes rendered incorrect by gravitation of surrounding mountains. The accepted position for Tokyo was incorrect by about 1000 feet for many years because of this factor.

Armory Fans Will Keep Up On Election

Wrestling and election returns will be mixed tonight at the armory, according to a scheme worked out by promoter Mark Lillard to see that his grappling fans do not miss anything going on outside the arena while not missing anything going on inside it.

Lillard plans to employ runners to bring latest election returns to the armory and will intersperse the bouts with voting figures, broadcast over the public address system.

The card for tonight puts a tag team match at the top, with Pete Belcastro and Al Szasz on one team and Glen (Buddy) Knox and Alex Kasaboki on the other. That struggle is slated for one-hour time limit.

Opening the card at 8:30 will be a five-round match between Jack Puppenheim and a new boy on the circuit, Canadian Billy Hunter. Hunter is substiting for Jack Kiser, injured since he signed for tonight's tilt, and is making his first Klamath Falls appearance.

Hope Fades For Two Missing Men

BEND, May 21 (AP)—Hope for the two Oakridge men who vanished while fishing in the Wickiup reservoir last Tuesday was virtually abandoned today.

A search for the two men—Fred Richter, 57, and J. P. Handley, 35—still continued, however.

Searchers discovered Handley's fishing rod, reel and line in the water yesterday. The hunt started when the men's boat was found capsized.

Skip Alexander Leads PGA Field

ST. LOUIS, May 21 (AP)—Big Stewart (Skip) Alexander, who qualified with a record-tying 134, led the field today into first round matches of the Professional Golfers association tournament.

Alexander, playing in his first PGA meet, yesterday equaled the PGA record set by Jim Ferris at Portland, Ore., two years ago.

Sixty-four players, the best in a starting field of 130, match shots in 32 duels of 18 holes this morning. The winners will play another 18 holes this afternoon to determine the 16 third-round players.

Alexander, of Lexington, N. C., shot a seven-under-par yesterday for a 32-32-64 over the 6457-yard Norwood Hills Country club course. He had a 79 in the first qualifying round.
