Basin Pioneer Passes Today

Mrs. Charles Ellery Drew Sr., beloved Klamath county pioneer, died at 12:55 a. m. today at the family home in the Lost River dam district following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Drew was the former Iva McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McKee, born April 19, 1877, near Topeka, Kan. Mrs. Drew came to Klamath county in 1884. After attending school here and at Yreka, Calif., Mrs. Drew taught school in Klamath county for four years. She and Charles Drew were married in 1903 at Yreka.

Three children were born of the union, two sons, Dale and Charles Jr., and one daughter, Fay. Dale lost his life while swimming in 1927, and Fay died in 1935. Charles Jr. is a well known Klamath county rancher.

Final rites for Mrs. Drew, who leaves a host of friends to mourn her passing, will be held at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday from the Earl Whitlock chapel with the Rev. David Barnett officiating. Interment will be in the family plot of Linkville cemetery.

Art Exhibit Slated Here

Klamath Falls city schools will open their annual art exhibit in Balsiger display rooms Monday. The public is urged to view the art work of the students Monday through Friday and all schools including KUHS will be included in the display.

This is the largest show of its kind to be exhibited in the city, according to Robert Banister, director of art education. It will stress the technique of development from the first through the 12th grades. The display has expanded to such an extent that it was necessary to obtain Balsiger's display room.

The public is asked to enter through the Main and Esplanade corner entrance in order to view the work in sequence of development. Screens will be numbered beginning with the very first project of primary grades, their first encounter with paint and brushes, their experiments with textures, color, composition and techniques and then the results.

House Guest—Mrs. Jesse Moran spent the past week as a guest of Mrs. Lura V. Thome of this city, coming here from San Francisco, Calif., where she visited a daughter. She returned Friday by train to her home in Seattle, Wash.

Studies of very low temperatures are called cryogenics.

Ogle, owners of Hotel Lakeview, Wallace Boe, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Boe, is the class valedictorian. His father is the high school science instructor and assistant coach. Baccalaureate is scheduled for Sunday with commencement May 28.

Girl Scout News

At this writing, with wind and snow and rain in the air, word of day camping at Moore park doesn't seem too appropriate, but plans are going ahead at the Girl Scout office to make the first venture into this field a success. A large secluded corner of the park has been secured and is now being developed into ideal camping grounds. Mrs. Keith Cobo will direct the camp during the Girl Scout sessions and has just taken a two-week training course at Issaquah, Washington, to learn all the tricks of the trade. Mrs. A. O. Roentke, Mrs. Palmer Hoie and Mrs. Dorothy Caldwell are among the volunteer counselors.

Girl Scouts and their friends have two six-day camping sessions: July 13, 14, 15, 16, 20 and 21, and July 22, 23, 27, 28, 29, and 30 and may register now for either. The object of day camping is to provide girls with the experience and fun of out-door camping close to home and at a minimum expense. Hikes, out-door cooking and crafts and games will be included, covering practically all the features of a large regular camp except overnight sleeping in the open. Activities have been planned in case of rain also.

At present, the plans are to pick up girls at designated spots in town, and transport them to the part, where they will be divided into units according to age, with an adult to supervise every eight or ten girls. Lunches should be brought by each camper, but milk will be furnished. Camp is to close at 8:30 each day with trains to destination home also furnished. The fee has been set at $2.00 for a six-day session, which is to cover the cost of transportation, milk and craft materials.

It's important to mention that the day camping experience isn't limited to Girl Scouts or Brownie Scouts. Any girl in Klamath county from the ages of seven to eighteen may go. High school girls are especially welcome to come as helpers, because program aides for the regular summer camp at Lake o' the Woods will be chosen from this group.

Girl Scout troop news has come in from Malin about a court of awards ceremony held on May 9 to which mothers and friends were invited. From Klamath Falls came Mrs. John Pinniger and Miss Ella Redkey to assist in the ceremony. Miss Redkey awarded first class badges to the following members of Troop 46: Pearl Ottomann and Barbara Salvers; and second class badges to Deloris Steward, Ruth Kalina, Sally Wallace, Beverly Martin, Darla Sarubak. Those not present, but earning badges are Janet Elmore, Mary Sterskal and Geradine King. A tenderfoot badge
