Initiation Held By Soroptimists

The Soroptimist club of Klamath Falls held its last initiation of the club's fiscal year in the Pelican party room Thursday at noon.

Doris Peyton, assisted by Lillian Hills, conducted the initiation. Alma Mullis, Beth Griggs and Olive Wilson were initiated and presented with blue and gold corsages. President Thelma Henry welcomed them into the club.

Dena Backes told of the many interesting and amusing experiences she had during her recent trip to Dallas, Tex. with the Willard hotel bowling team.

Doris Peyton introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Louis Nations, who told of her travels and experiences while in South America where her husband held the position of coordinator of international affairs during the war. Mrs. Nations donated her services to the USO and did considerable canteen work while in Lima, Peru. She did extensive service work through the American Federation of Women's Clubs and, while in Paraguay, she did educational work with exchange students.

To illustrate her talk Mrs. Nations brought souvenirs and specimens of handwork from all the countries she visited, including a lovely native costume of her own and a complete costume of her husband's. The loveliest and most interesting of her collection were specimens of a delicate lace from Paraguay called Nanduti made of fine linen thread. She had outstanding examples of Peruvian silver and intricate woodwork from the many varieties of the jungle hardwoods.

At present Mrs. Nations is teaching and her husband is with the bureau of reclamation in Klamath Falls.

The next week's meeting will be the annual party given for the Venture club. A very interesting program has been planned and all the Venture club members are invited. All members are urged to be sure to make their reservations because a large attendance is expected.

Tuesday Party

A bridal shower was given at the home of Mrs. Roy Spangler on Tuesday, May 18, in honor of Billie Byrnes of Klamath Falls who will become the bride of Alvin Schrieber of Tulelake in a June ceremony.

Youth Program Is Featured By BPW

Business and Professional Women's club members enjoyed a program arranged by Jonnie Bell, youth chairman, at their dinner meeting, May 17, at the Willard hotel.

For the first part of the program, Dorothy Ramsey presented her physical education classes in colorful folk dances. Her fourth grade pupils gave a Dutch dance; the fifth grade, a Spanish dance; the sixth grade, a Scottish rye waltz; the seventh grade, a Danish dance; and the eighth grade a German dance. The dancers were beautifully costumed and delighted their audience.

Sam Smith, city recreation director, spoke concerning the recreation needs of Klamath Falls. He pointed out the three necessary requirements for any recreational program are space, equipment and leadership. He stressed the importance of public opinion in the successful accomplishment of a community program of this type.

Mr. Smith showed the film "Playground, U. S. A." which illustrated the advantages enjoyed by old and young alike from an adequate recreational program. Decatur, Ill., was shown as a city with ideal recreational facilities.

A short business meeting was held during which plans were discussed for the state convention at Eugene, June 4, 5 and 6. All members were urged to attend convention, and transportation arrangements may be made by calling Loraine Quillen, 5165.

An invitation has been extended to all Business and Professional Women's club members to attend a luncheon given by the Klamath County League of Women Voters in the Pelican party room at 12 noon, on May 26, when the technical sound film, "Green Harvest," will be shown through the courtesy of T. S. Dument of Weverhaeuser Timber company. Members who wish to attend may make reservations with Loraine Quillen, 5165, before May 24.

Next meeting is being arranged.

Bridal Shower

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wells of 2413 Union entertained with a bridal shower on Saturday evening, May 15, for Lucy Mae Gowey of San Bruno, Calif., and their son, Edward Warren, also of San Bruno.

Miss Gowey and Mr. Warren arrived on Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Warren, Sr., to visit over the week-end, and the shower was a surprise for both. The linen-covered table was centered with a wedding cake with miniature bride. Flowers were used on the table and about the rooms.

Attending were Mrs. Rosa Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brandt, Helen Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Westrom, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Warren, Sr., of San Bruno, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Warren, Jr., and daughter Linda, Everett Wright, William Rieck, R. O. Miller, Patricia Henry and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Wells.

Miss Gowey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gowey of Brighton, Ia., and Edward Warren 's in business in San Bruno with his father. The church wedding will take place on June 28 in San Bruno and several from Klamath Falls plan to attend.

The four from San Bruno left on Sunday to return to their homes in the southern city.
