

Sojourners Plan For Founders Day

Sojourners and their guests met Wednesday, May 12, at the Willard hotel for a no-hostess luncheon at 12:30.

At the business meeting the president, Mrs. C. S. Houston, announced May 26 as the date Founders Day will be observed. There will be a brief program.

It was also announced that Mrs. Bruce Owens, gift chairman, has moved to Merrill. Mrs. J. Ashley will be the new chairman for the remainder of the term.

Bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with prizes going to Mrs. Robert Houck, Mrs. David Boyd and Mrs. Hugh Swaney. Mrs. Howard Kirchner was hostess.

New members were introduced as Mrs. Howard Strode, Mrs. Floyd Boyd, Mrs. Nyal Nelson and Mrs. James Ivory. Guests were Mrs. Roy Williams, Mrs. Hugh Swaney, Mrs. Harvey Teal, Mrs. Luke Dunkerley, Mrs. Dale Morrison and Mrs. John Moehl.

A nominating committee for new officers was appointed to report at the next meeting. Mrs. A. Kusler will be chairman with Mrs. Robert Houck and Mrs. Edith Compton assisting.

Women who have become residents of Klamath Falls within the past 18 months are cordially invited to Sojourners functions whether or not they have been contacted by a member.

The club is for the purpose of acquainting newcomers and meets on the second and fourth Wednesday of every month at the Willard hotel with a no-hostess luncheon at 12:30 and the club meeting opening at 1:45.

During the evening, when Sojourners and their guests were not dancing to the music of the Morrison and McDonald orchestra, group singing was led by Mrs. Argetzinger.

Each couple had a mimeographed sheet of musical favorites, on which was also printed an interesting story of Hawaii's colorful May Day.

Judges for a waltz contest were Charles Houston, Cleeve Hooper and A. V. McVey, and they declared Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Hobart the winners.

Out-of-town guests who were especially welcomed were Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Murphy of Dunsmuir, California. Mrs. Murphy is a past president of Sojourners.

Honored

Mrs. Loren Stroud and Mrs. La Verne Jones entertained in honor of Lota Young, 17-year-old daughter of Donald Stroud of 1928 Ivory, Friday, May 14.

Games were played and refreshments served from a table decorated with pink and white stock, rosebuds and carnations. Centerpiece was a bride's cake topped with pink roses.

Those attending and sending gifts were Nadine Bechtel, Rachel Campiglia, Callie Walters, Mildred Young, Mary Martin, Glema Prentice, Norma Cookran, Dora Lorhey, Mrs. Floyd Young, Peggy Lorhey, Chris Clark, Hattie Clark, Colleen Clark, LaVone Haney, Evelyn King, Donna Case, Phyllis Case, Dolly Case, Irene Turner, Mrs. Lloyd Stroud, Florence Young, Maudie Griffith, Jessie Eubank, Marlene Rose, Winnie Downs, Eary Downs, Betty Wiles, Della Coulter, Melba Switzer, Jane Asplund, Bonnie Ward, Glema Edwards, Irene Edwards, Mabel Ward, Helma Hunter.

Council Meets

The city council of members from the three chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, Kappa, Tau and Xi-Delta, was entertained by Lois Rumer at her home on Pacific Terrace Monday evening.

Following the regular business meeting, Mrs. Lawrence Slater installed new officers.

The evening was spent making plans for an inter-city program of events for the three chapters starting with fall activities and with the election of officers.

New officers are Elenora Weatherford, president; Mrs. Lorn Dalcour, vice president; Betty Merrill, recording secretary; Doris McCord, corresponding secretary; and Helen Kitzel, treasurer.

Medford Rites

—Darlene Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Moore of Medford, became the bride of Ray Stoggers in a ceremony read on Wednesday, May 12, in that city.

From a wedding trip on the Oregon coast, the couple returned to Klamath Falls where the two will live until the bridegroom completes studies at Oregon Vocational school.

French Versions

In beautiful cottons... inspirations of six fabulous names among designers... Patou, Lanvin, Balmain, Fath, Dior and Molynoux are being presented at LAPOINTE'S for the first time.

These six original styles... adapted for the American woman in the finest of sanforized cottons that never fade... were featured in a two-page color spread in a recent issue of Look magazine.

Jeanne Lanvin uses two tone broadcloth, divided by a "diplomat" stripe, for a figure flattering casual in several combinations.

Molynoux creates a dress with a two-piece look and long torso effect out of striped chambray.

Jean Patou designs a solid color broadcloth button-fronter with three-point lapels and a cutaway peplum.

Pierre Balmain depicts his own version of a cotton gopher, giving it the easy-to-wear fly front, a new cuffed pocket and an elastic belt.

Christina Dior drapes boldly striped chambray into a skirt of wide proportions and puts a bow of the same material on each sleeve.

Sizes run from 12 to 20 on most of these Paris-inspired washables now on display at LAPOINTE'S... 507 Main... and the price is $8.95.

...expressing the grace and daintiness of Victorian days... is the latest addition to International Sterling's famous patterns at JEWEL AND GIFT SHOP.

Like all fine sterling... with an enduring beauty in solid, lifetime silver... Wild Rose will become more beautiful and lustrous as the years go by.

Sweden's contribution to the National Home Show was a streamlined wood cabinet for staple groceries, made with covered glass doors for see-through visibility.

Nylon briefs are comparatively new... and these come in white, too. As for slips, Town Shop features the famous Laros, elaborately lace trimmed or with embroidered appliques.

The dainty half-slips... with their matching gamselle tops... shouldn't be forgotten, either.

For something really elegant in gifts, however, there are matching Laros gowns and slips... or the robe and gown sets for sleeping or lounging.
