Tule School Vote Biggest In History

TULELAKE, May 22—The largest school vote ever polled was chalked up here last night as Friday's election called for naming two members in Tulelake, Winema and Carr schools.

Dr. C. C. Dickinson, McCloud and George Tebbe, Yreka attorney, incumbents, carried in all precincts here for the high school board. Opponents were Sidney O'Connor and Ray W. Hathaway.

At the Carr school where one director is to be elected, there appeared some argument might come out of yesterday's voting.

Sam S. Wynn, a new homesteader, reaped 6 write-in votes, but Don Hurlburt received 5, and a Don Hurlburt, 1. John Irving took 3 votes. If the board decides Hurlburt and Hurlburt are one and the same, it will be a tie between Wynn and Hurlburt are one and the same, it is sary to hold a re-election or whether the board can make a decision, was not known here today. Holdovers are Marvin Thomas and Carl Jensen.

Doug Thomas, only one to file for the Tulelake elementary board, was named to that job. Holdovers are Don Potter and LeRoy Coyner.

At Winema elementary, John Takas was named the new board members with a write-in vote of 34. Clarence Moore received 11 write-in votes. Holdovers are Bert Johnson and Harry Mitchell.
