More scholarship returns have come in for the KU seniors. Bill Southwell brought in the honor of being first alternate for the Aaron Frank award of $1000. Bill received a trip to Portland to be interviewed by the board as one of the 15 finalists. Winner of the award was a Portland girl, from Roosevelt high. KU also placed in the upper three last year, with Mary O'Brien winning second alternate's place.

State scholarships have been awarded to five of the seniors, four for the University of Oregon, and one to Oregon State. Ronald Woods, Donna Rae Worden, Cameron Stewart and Bill Southwell will receive a year's tuition to the university, and Ruthie Huston will receive a year's tuition to Oregon State.

Carolyn Orr has been elected to the office of president of Garls Athletic association. Other officers for next year will be Mary Lou Sharp, vice president; Dolores Kidder, secretary; and Arlene Brallier, point-keeper. Dolores Moon is the retiring president.

A beautiful prom was given for the seniors last Friday night in the boys' gym. It was decorated to follow the theme, "Rhapsody in Blue," with blue and white crepe paper and
