Tabulating Machines Whirl As Election Returns Come In

The Herald and News newsroom was taken over Friday night by a battery of tabulators who worked from the time the first precinct reports filtered in until early hours of Saturday morning. The round table in the foreground, which serves as the focal point of news gathering at all other times in the year, is given over on election night to this battery of tabulating machines and workers who make it possible to turn out election returns minute-by-minute. Wesley Guiderian, Herald and News photographer, sits in the "slot" and directs the operation.

Boy Missing, Note Asks Ransom

LOS ANGELES, May 24 (AP)—A 12-year-old junior high school student was missing from his home Saturday and police said they found a ransom note demanding $1500. The boy, Alan D. McCauley, was missing from his room when his parents returned at 2:30 this morning after attending an ice carnival. Police said the boy's room had been ransacked. The ransom note, with several words misspelled, read: "If you don't leave $1500 at the parking lot next to Ralph's market at Crenshaw and Exposition Blvds. you'll never see your son again. And I don't mean naby." It was signed: "The Unkown."

Mocha, a leather product of the long, blackhaired sheep of Asia and Africa, was first discovered by accident in a shipment of coffee from the dark continent.

Our Home Town

Leadership BY EARL WHITLOCK

I suppose all of us crave the ability to lead others and do it well. The Presidency of the club, the chairmanship of the society—these are honors toward which we yearn. But the qualities of leadership are not given to everyone. Yet they can be cultivated.

Earl Whitlock

Next Saturday Mr. Whitlock of the Earl Whitlock Funeral Home will comment on Memorial Day.
