Two Jobs Open In PE School

Two vacancies now exist in the KUMHS physical education department with the resignation of Ed Ryan, football coach, submitted and accepted at the Monday night session of school board 2.

Both Ryan's and Wayne Scott's physical education teaching jobs now stand open. Superintendent Arnold Gralapp said a "stack" of applications has been received in the past several weeks and they have now been segregated as to status and will be gone through at an early date.

It is hoped that the board will study these applications at the next session in order to round out the faculty jobs in this department.

At the joint session of both boards, summer school programs for both high school and elementary were discussed and the schedule outlined.

Teacher salary scale adopted early in the year was made effective by the board's last night. Plans were also discussed for improvement of dressing and shower room facilities in the boys' gym.

Hail Storm Pelts Merrill

A hard, fast hail storm struck a small area along the Merrill road Monday at 3 p. m., flattening vegetable and flower gardens along the way.

The hailstones, approximately marble size, fell for about 15 minutes, piling up along the road several inches deep. The storm slashed across a strip about one-half mile wide, striking at Mallory's Y corner and extending along the Merrill highway.

Tender young plants just beginning to get a start were beaten into the ground, residents along the way reported.

At the same time a heavy thunder and rain storm hit Klamath Falls on the heels of a storm.

Fishing Boat Long Overdue

SEATTLE, May 25 (AP)—A 28-foot fishing boat was reported by the coast guard today overdue in Canadian waters.

The coast guard, relaying an announcement by the Royal Canadian navy at Esquimalt, B. C., said the boat, the Blondie, was last seen several days ago at Kyquoot sound on Vancouver Island, B. C. Destination of the Blondie and the number of crewmen aboard were not given.

Three other fishing vessels were given assistance last night.

A patrol boat from the Port Townsend station removed the Canadian fishing craft, Loyal II, from a sand spit at Lagoon Point on Whidbey Island. The vessel, which ran aground Sunday night, proceeded to Seattle under its own power.

The fish boat 28-N-675 was towed into Newport, Ore., from Heceta Head and the 30-P-1929 was brought to the Westport, Wash., station from the Grays Harbor entrance buoy.

Queen Mary 81 Wednesday

LONDON, May 25 (AP)—Dowager Queen Mary will be 81 tomorrow.

A luncheon with King George VI and the queen in Buckingham palace and a serenade by Swiss mountaineers, here for a folklore festival, are the only definite date she has. But she is unpredictable and may cross up her staff and make an evening of it at the theatre. London has no more ardent theatre fan.

Those near her say her health is fine, improved since last year. She seldom rises later than 8 a. m., retires before 11 p. m., or takes afternoon naps.

Her appetite is solid. She drinks sherry regularly and smokes a cigarette after dinner. It once shocked some people that she smoked, and there was a protest from a temperance organization. Nobody seems to mind now.

C. F. Beck, Of Klamath, Dies At 88

Charles Fremont Beck, 88-year-old native Oregonian and for the past 42 years a resident of Klamath Falls, died at 3:50 p. m. Monday at Klamath Valley hospital following a brief illness. Mr. Beck's death was attributed to bronchial pneumonia.

The pioneer was born in Eugene, Ore., then called Eugene City, in 1860, son of William Henry and Adeline Leasure Beck who crossed the plains in '48. He was one of a family of four sons and one daughter.

Mr. Beck brought his family through Klamath Falls in 1900 en route to Lake county where he operated a sheep ranch on Crooked Creek for several years, later moving to Klamath, Calif., and coming to Klamath Falls in 1906.

Mr. Beck was a contractor and promoted the first major excavation in this community. Using teams and scrapers, Mr. Beck leveled the area between Klamath avenue and Main street of a series of knolls and filled in Klamath avenue which was a swamp section. Later he served as foreman for Klamath Development company for a number of years prior to his retirement.

Mr. Beck was named for the explorer, General John C. Fremont. His wife, Jeannette, preceded him in death April 28, 1945. Since her passing he has lived at 311 Commercial street.

Survivors include four sons, Roy F., James C., and Leo L. Beck, all of Klamath Falls, and Freeman C., Hawaiian Islands; two daughters, Mrs. Ira B. Morris of Langell Valley and Mrs. Harry L. Smith of Hayfork, Calif.; one brother, Henry Beck of Boring, Ore.; also 17 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Final rites will be announced here by Ward's.
