KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (To the Editor)—First I want to congratulate Albert C. Allen for his very apt argument submitted to the editor in the May 20 edition of The Herald and News entitled, "Against the Draft." I should like for the world to know that I concur in his every word and only wish I had the ability to state my beliefs as well as he has.

I also wish to congratulate The Herald and News printing articles of this type. Although as Mr. Allen says, it is very much against its beliefs.

I had two brothers, as well as myself, in World War I, and I had three sons and six nephews in World War II, and as Mr. Allen says, because we are classed as cowards. In what class am I to be placed.

If the powers that be would only forget this so-called Americanism which is fast becoming a fascism and get back to our republican form of democracy, the better off we will be.

I should like to refer to column 7, page 5, of the May 20 edition, and then also column 1, page 5, "sep" same page, too, the article Draft Cost and 17 Billion.

I say it would be better to spend 117 billion for public works projects and that it is high time for Uncle Sam to initiate the "Statue of Liberty" and try and balance the scales of justice with his constituents and aged dependents and forget some of his military hunger he has so recently acquired.

SHIRLEY, Mass., May 25 (AP)—Many "new faces" were seen at a "sinners only" service in United Church Sunday.

The Rev. A. Ray Meserve had announced that the service would be for sinners only and requested "sinners and righteous to stay away." The pastor reported the service was well-attended, but he declined to say whether the many strangers were considered "sinners."

Pelican Youngsters Ballot For Favorite Candidates

WOCUS, May 25—Mrs. Lois Lind, teacher of the seventh grade pupils at Pelican school, emerged quite proud last election day, when her class of 20 young boys and girls went to the polls to vote for their favorite candidate. Choosing a time when there was a bill in regular voting, she accompanied the serious group of young voters to the polls where they secured sample ballot sheets, after giving their full, correct names to the first clerk, they proceeded to the booths where they carefully studied the list of names, and the candidate's slogan after each name.

According to the teacher, the youngsters had become eager on election day, to express their opinions as to whom should be elected to the offices in question.

The election results were as follows: republicans 11, democrats 9. For president, Harry Truman 9, Harold Stassen 8, Thomas Dewey 3. Representatives in congress, C. J. Shorb 9, Lowell Stockman 7. Governor: John Hall 7, Douglas McKay 4.

Secretary of state: George Flagg 6, A. M. Silverman 5. State treasurer: Howard Belton 5, Walter Pearson 7.

County commissioner: Guy Bellant 8, John Reber 6. Sheriff: Mike Williams 4, Dale Mattoon 3, Jack Franey 3, Dean Hall 2, Guy Barton 2, Wally Moss 2. County clerk: Charles DeLap 9.

Newsmen Narrowly Missed By Shell

JERUSALEM, May 24 (Delayed)—Seven newsmen had a narrow escape today when a shell exploded in a street as they drove by.
