

Camp Fire Dinner Honors Fathers

The Camp Fire Girls' Dads were honored guests at the annual lighter dinner held at the armory on Thursday night, May 20. Over 500 dads and Camp Fire Girls were in attendance.

Each Camp Fire, Blue Bird and Horizon club planned its pluck dinner and decorated table. Table decorations carried out the theme, "Hello World, Let's Get Together," and were gay with color and original ideas.

Like David R. Vandenberg acted as master of ceremonies and introduced a program which included on camp by Larry Martz, committee chairman, a humorous reading by Gail Reinhart, a solo, the Blue Bird fly-up song led by Mrs. Larry French, community singing led by Mrs. Kerr. Each Blue Bird who sang from the Blue Bird into Camp Fire was presented with a certificate and a letter.

Mrs. Orville Herman, Bar-janowson and Arlene Bratler, Mrs. French with the fly-er.

Call of the groups present given by Mrs. Larry Martz, president of the Leaders' association, which leader introduced the honorees at her table. Over 20 responded to the roll call, many of the girls had honorary as their guests.

Camp Fire Girls and their leaders extended thanks to George for the installation and use of public address system. Set in of the national guard, and for national guardmen for service, and to Percy Murray for ice cream given to the girls.

Misses which worked on the were the arrangements com- consisting of Mrs. E. C. Reed, Mrs. John Markert and L. Truax, and the program was headed by Mrs. Thomas re, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Charles Kerr and Mrs. n Kunz.
