

Merrill Mail Extension May Be Extended

Progress in the proposal for extending mail delivery beyond present service in Merrill district was reported at the Merrill exchange meeting Monday by J. R. Reeder.

Reeder said that a survey is being made of the district before a definite program will get under way to establish service where it is now lacking.

Murray Howard reported attending the opening of the grange wholesale plant in Klamath Falls on Saturday. Members are urged to visit the enterprise.

Master Media Giacomin announced the summer schedule for meetings becoming effective for June, July and August with only one meeting a month which falls on the fourth Monday.

Lecturer Kenneth Brown conducted a story telling contest and community singing as the program for the evening. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Elma Ochs and Mrs. Louisa Icenbice, home economics committee.
