Scientist Service Set

Morning worship service at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington, will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday in the main church auditorium, with Sunday school at the same hour downstairs.

Golden Text of this week's lesson-sermon is, "He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son." (Rev. 21:7).

Topic of the lesson-sermon is "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced."

Among citations will be, "And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunders, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth" (Rev. 19:6). From the "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will be, "Christian Science reveals the necessity for overcoming the world, the flesh, and evil, and thus destroying all error." A weekly meeting is held at 8 p.m. Wednesday. All are welcome to services. A reading room is maintained at 1023 Main.

Uhlig To Lead Songfest

"Where the Sun Shall Never Go Down" is the organ number at First Christian church, for this Sunday. The pastor's message, "Man In The Moral Court Of History" is a sermon for Memorial Day. The Lord's table will be observed at the 11 o'clock hour.

Evening session will begin at 7:30 with Charles Uhlig leading the songfest. Special duet numbers with piano and organ, will be by Mrs. Lily Kendall and Ernest Armstrong. Stanley Kendall, teacher at Henley high will bring the message.

Bible school starts at 9:45 a. m. with classes for all ages. Weekly average is more than 300, and all are invited. Christian Endeavor at 6:30 and groups are held for juniors, intermediates and seniors.

Lord's Supper Observance

The worship service this Sunday at the First Covenant church, 823 Walnut, will be followed by observance of the Lord's Supper. The pastor, Selmer T. Jacobson, will bring a message entitled, "Christ, Judged for the Sins of the World." A welcome is extended to all who confess Christ as Saviour to join in this service which begins at 11 o'clock.

Sunday school convenes at 10 a. m. and includes classes for all ages, including an adult Bible class. Capable teachers lead each age group in the study of Bible lessons. Plans are in making for a daily vacation Bible school to be held at the First Covenant church beginning June 7 and continuing over June 18. Classes will be held for all children from 4 to 15 years. All are welcome.

Fraley To Give Sermon

Morning worship services will be held at the Tulelake Church of Christ (Christian) on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Communion will be observed for all Christians at that time. Norman Fraley will bring the morning sermon. Mrs. Geanne Fraley will sing, "It Was Alone." All former members and friends of the Christian church or the Church of Christ are most cordially invited to worship with those who will meet in the new building, across from the Tulelake high school athletic field.

Finishing of the building is now under way, but services will be held in the meantime. Evangelistic services will be held in the near future, with announcements regarding the meeting to be made shortly.

Hargrove To Conduct Services

J. F. Hargrove will conduct the regular morning worship service at 11 o'clock Sunday at the Church of Christ, 2205 Wantland. Other services include Bible classes at 10 a. m., evening services at 7:30, and a regular weekly meeting at 7:30 p. m., Wednesday. Everyone is welcome.

Recruiter

New recruiter at the navy recruiting station in the federal building is John U. Marsh, USN. Marsh and his family have just returned from two years in Panama.

Marsh Joins Navy Staff

John U. Marsh, ENC, USN, has reported to the navy recruiting station in Klamath Falls for duty as recruiter. With him is his wife and their two children.

He and his family have recently returned to the States from a two-year tour of duty at the submarine base in Panama.

During the war he served on board submarines and has several submarine war patrols to his credit, for which he has received the Navy Unit Citation and the Submarine Combat Pin.

In his 15 years of service Marsh has served aboard destroyers, cruisers and submarines in many parts of the world.

1st Presbyterian Slates Baptism

The rite of infant baptism will be administered at the morning service of the First Presbyterian church Sunday. "Christian Confidence" is the topic chosen by Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., for his sermon. The choir will sing the anthem, "The Promises," by Panchenko-Wilhowsky, directed by Andrew Loney Jr. Mrs. Marvin Nereth will sing the soprano solo, "Prayer," by Guion.

Lutheran Rite Broadcast Set

The divine worship service at Klamath Lutheran church this Sunday will be broadcast over radio station KPLW, at 11 a. m. Rev. Irvin Twest will bring the message, "Rich Toward God."

Directed by Erling Melby, the senior choir will sing, "The Lord Is Exalted" by Kent.

Sunday school and Bible classes are held at 9:45 a. m. The Fireside hour, sponsored by the brotherhood meets in the church parlors at 8:30 p. m. Both comic and educational sound films will be shown. Everyone is invited. The fireside luncheon will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyds, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Solie and Mrs. Frank Subject.

This Monday, Pastor and Mrs. Twest and their daughter, Sarah Ann, will leave for Minneapolis, Minn., to attend the biennial convention of the Lutheran church June 8 to 13. Pastor Twest will return to the Klamath Lutheran pulpit June 20.

Other events scheduled for the week include: Monday, 7:45 p. m., Boy Scouts meet.

Tuesday, 7:45 p. m., Ladies Aid meeting in church parlors.

Wednesday, 7:45 p. m., senior choir rehearsal.

Saturday, 7 p. m., Cub Scouts, and 8 p. m., Lutheran Children of the Reformation.

Honored guests at the services will be young people of the church who are graduating from junior and senior high schools this term. The annual summer church school is scheduled for June 14 through June 27 for children from three years up.

Charles Ogle To Take New Post

Charles Ogle, former Klamath Falls man, has been named manager of a new group to be known as Associated Forest Industries of Oregon.

Ogle is at present manager of the Keep Oregon Green organization, and will continue in that capacity until a successor is named.

His headquarters are at Salem, and the new association will also maintain head offices in Salem. This group marks the joining of the pine and fir groups into a single unit. Ogle's work will deal principally with legislative matters concerning the lumber industry.

Ogle was long manager and assistant manager of the Klamath Forest Protective association. His brother, Hal, is now manager of KFPA.

Immanuel Baptist Service Cancelled

All Sunday evening services except the young people's meeting at the Immanuel Baptist church have been cancelled for this week only. Regular meetings will not be held because of the baccalaureate service for graduating seniors of Klamath Union high school.

Other services will be held as usual, with Bible school at 9:45 a. m., and the worship service at 11 a. m. The young people will meet at 6:30 p. m.

Memorial Day Services Slated

Memorial Day will be commemorated at the Zion Lutheran church, 11th and High, at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, when Rev. Victor Schulse will speak on the sermon, "Lest We Forget."

Sunday school and Bible classes are at 9:45 a. m. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

Matthews To Preach Third In Series

Morning service of prayer and sermon at the Congregational church on Sunday begins at 11 a. m. Organist of the day and director of the choir is Mrs. Henry W. Moore.

Rev. Godfrey Matthews will preach the third sermon in a series on "The Holy Spirit."

A nursery is provided in the Community hall adjoining the church for little children, competently conducted for the convenience of parents desirous of attending the church service.

Visitors and strangers are invited to attend. The church is situated on Garden near Martin.

Holy Communion At St. Paul's

Services at St. Paul's Episcopal church this Sunday, the first Sunday after Trinity, will begin with 8 o'clock celebration of the Holy Communion, with special prayers for those to be commemorated on Memorial Day.

All grades are offered at church school, 9:45 a. m., and the regular morning prayer and sermon will be at 11 a. m. Rev. F. C. Wissbach will give the sermon, "To Those To Whom Much Is Owed."
