Chiloquin

Elizabeth Balge, English and physical education instructor at Chiloquin high school, has been having envious looks from the high school students when they first saw her new baby station wagon. She plans a leisurely trip back east after school is out this week.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Wolff last week-end were Dr. J. B. Cressman, head of the department of anthropology at the University of Oregon, and Arnold Blotwell, preparator for the museum on the campus.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gienker and of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Everett last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Covington (Jewel Fagan) and their young son. The visitors are from the San Francisco region, where Mrs. Covington's mother, Mrs. Fagan, also makes her home. Covington has recovered from the airplane crash injuries he received last year and which hospitalized him for several weeks.

Mrs. Bert Albert spent last Wednesday in Ashland and in Medford. Mrs. Ed Dady and her son Norman were week-end visitors in Gilchrist and in Crescent. Norman attended the Gilchrist school last year.

Two election boards served the East Chiloquin precinct at last Friday's primary. The day group were chairman, Mrs. Walter Zimmerman; judge, Mrs. George Brautacht; clerks, Mrs. G. D. McKell, Mrs. Cyril Cook and Mrs. Wayne Niehaus. On the counting board were chairman, Mrs. Ruby Pfeiler; judge, Mrs. A. M. Zadina; clerks, Mrs. Doris Nichols, Mrs. Roy Deffenbacher and Mrs. O. E. Stone. The West Chiloquin group served for both day and night, finishing at 2 o'clock on Saturday morning. They were chairman, Mrs. Bert Albert; judge, Mrs. Gerry Wolff; clerks, Mrs. Bob Mathis, Mrs. Clyde Laeke and Mrs. Henry Johnston.

A total of 150 ballots were cast in East Chiloquin and 102 in West Chiloquin with the republican party casting a majority of the votes, as was expected in this primary.

The West Chiloquin election board were dinner guests on Friday evening, between the closing of the polls and counting, at the home of the William Galloways, Mrs. Galloway and Mrs. Ella Barnes were cooks, and excellent ones.

At the Chiloquin budget meeting last Monday night a few city workers' salaries were raised, a bid from Bahler Brothers of Portland was accepted for oiling the city streets, and other matters taken care of. The tennis court repair bid was turned down but Mayor Lorenz hopes to contract the job before the week is over.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Nelson were in Southern California last week and attended graduation exercises at Sherman Indian school in Riverside before they returned. Mrs. Nelson's sister, Patsy Crume, is a member of the graduating class.

The May meeting of the Republican club has been cancelled as the regular meeting night is graduation night at Chiloquin high school and there have been so many other political activities this month.

A Chiloquin visitor on Thursday was Clifford Whittlatch, former Chiloquin school student, who was home from Detroit, Mich., on furlough from the army.

Mrs. Frank Dillio was under observation at a Klamath Falls hospital last week, and returned Thursday evening.

Fortune In Old Stamps Stolen

NEW YORK, May 28 (AP)—A band of burglars—crude at cracking a safe, but with an eye for value in collectors' postage stamps—has engineered the largest theft known in the trade.

Stamps valued between $70,000 and $80,000 were stolen last week-end from the New York Stamp company, police disclosed yesterday.

Peter G. Keller, executive officer of the American Stamp Dealers association, a protective trade group, said it was the largest theft of collectors' stamps he could recall.

The loot, consisting of several million stamps, was pronounced difficult to identify, but dealers were warned to watch for them.
