

SOCIETY

By Edna Killmeyer

Lake Season Opens Despite May Snow

Weather permitting and if the prowlers left the Kitchen sink—a lot of folks plan to go to Lake of the Woods this week-end to spend Memorial Day and in some cases to open their summer homes for the season.

There was still a lot of late May snowdrifts blocking private roads entering the cabin lots, but two hardy young Amazons we know had a swim in the lake last Sunday with a warm sun beating down on the water and the snowdrifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill left today for their cabin, joined by their daughters, Joan and Marilyn, who are home for the holiday from the University of Oregon. The O'Neills were among the first to open for the season.

Last Sunday Dr. Ralph W. Stearns and Frances were at the lake to open their summer home, and also opening on that day were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reeder and their children, David, Stephen and Andrea; Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart, Angus and Sara; Dr. and Mrs. F. Cecil Adams and their three; Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Shaw and Tommy and their guests, the Arthur Reinhart family; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dugham and their grandson, Dick Ankeny; Mr. and Mrs. Matt Finnigan and their three, opening their cabin on the east side which they recently purchased; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Telford, who have come up from Texas where they spent the winter—and some others.

Opening this week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. John Houston and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Iel and their families; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock, Jack and Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Geary and Alice, Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Davis, the Wayne Scotts and the Alex Brearcliffes.

Mrs. Clarence Humble, with Nancy and Sally, were going up this week-end, and the Robert Thompsons and their youngsters went up Friday for the week-end.

Diamond lake cabin openings are later this year due to the heavy snows. Recently George McIntyre and his son Donald snow-shoed in.

(Continued On Page Six)

WHITE SATIN was worn by Rosie Jean Suty (above), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Suty of Malin, for her wedding May 20 in St. Augustine's church, to Robert K. Thompson. Four attractive attendants (right) to the bride were, left to right, Marge Kennard of Portland, Marie Suty, Martha Krizo and Helen Suty. —Kennell-Ellis.

WHITE DAISIES OUTLINED the lovely gown worn at her wedding by Lila Irene Cox (above right), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Obenchain of Bly, when she exchanged vows in the First Methodist church here last May 15. With the bride are her two attendants, Roberta Fruits of Merrill and Lila Lee Osborne of Arlington, Ore., and the little ring-bearer, Carolyn Obenchain, and Mary Jo Harper, the flower girl. —Jones-Miller.

A CHARMING AFFAIR held at the home of Mrs. Nelson Reed last Saturday afternoon was the traditional tea given by the Klamath Falls branch of the American Association of University Women in honor of graduating senior girls of Klamath county high schools. A pretty Maypole theme was used in decorations at the tea table, and bouquets of spring flowers added an attractive note about the rooms.

In the receiving line (left) were, from left to right, Mrs. Warren C. Nogle, Mrs. Aaron Hoffman, Mrs.

Willard Duncan, Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. O. K. Puckett and Mrs. Nelson Reed.

Irma Wauchape presided at the tea service for part of the afternoon (above). With her are two young guests, Marian McIntyre and June Marie Murphy, both from Klamath Union high school.

Seated at the piano, (above right) are Geraldine Larson, a graduating senior from Bly high school, Mrs. Frank W. Obenchain of Bly and Mrs. John P. Kerns. —Pictures by Jones-Miller Studio.