

Lila Cox Is Bride In Saturday Rites

Lila Irene Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Obenchain of Bly, and Lester W. McDonald son of Mrs. L. McDonald of The Dalles, exchanged vows at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, May 18, in the First Methodist church.

The Rev. Victor Phillips read the ceremony. The bridal party stood before a bank of salmon pink gladioli, arrangements of ferns and palms and many candles which were lighted just before the ceremony by the usher, Jesse McDonald, brother of the groom, and Robert King.

Miss Marie Obenchain, aunt of the bride, was at the organ and played the wedding marches and also accompanied Carl Hagel who sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of white marquisette fashioned with a high neckline, long tight sleeves, and a deep bertha and overskirt outlined with white satin daisies. Her long full train fell from a torso length bodice and her fingertip veil was caught at the head by a Juliette cap of seed pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls, gift from her mother, and carried a white prayer book with a white orchid from which fell a cascade of white satin streamers caught with stars of Bethlehem.

The little ring bearer was Carolyn Obenchain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Obenchain Jr., of Bly, and a niece of the bride. She wore a white marquisette floor-length frock and carried a white satin pillow. The flower girl was Mary Jo Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Deely and she wore pink marquisette. Both little attendants wore carnation hearts in their hair.

Maid of honor, Hoberia Fruits of Merrill, and the bridesmaid, Lila Lee Osborne of Arlington, Oregon, sorority sister of the bride, wore identical frocks of delphinium blue taffeta and long blue mitts. Wreaths of marigolds crowned their heads and they carried white prayer books with clusters of marigolds.

The best man was Jesse McDonald of The Dalles. Immediately after the ceremony there was a reception in the Pella party room where the young couple received. Mrs. Obenchain, mother of the bride, wore a navy

MARRIED ON SUNDAY, May 23, were Marie Casjens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright of Klamath Falls, and Truman Nelson, also of this city. The two will be at home in Klamath Falls following their return from a plane trip to Portland

—Evergreen.

Graduates Feted At Pretty Tea

Klamath Falls branch of the American Association of University Women gave its annual tea Saturday, May 22 from 2 to 5 o'clock, honoring senior girl graduates, and this year extended its invitation not only to the girls of Klamath Union high school but to those graduating from the county schools and Sacred Heart academy.

The affair was held this year at the Del Moro street home of Mrs. Nelson Reed where the spacious rooms and grounds were enjoyed by over 200 guests and members during the afternoon.

In the receiving line were Mrs. O. K. Puckett, last year's president, Mrs. Willard Duncan, newly elected president Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. Warren Noggle, Mrs. Aaron

Hoffman, and the hostess, Mrs. Nelson Reed. The tea table, arranged by Mrs. Laurence Shaw, was charming in a Maypole theme, complete with miniature dolls and ribbons, and a general color scheme of yellow and white was observed throughout. Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. John P. Kerns, Mrs. A. V. McVey, Mrs. A. L. Brandt, Orpha Hudson and Erma Wauchope.

Assisting the tea committee were Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, Mrs. Lawrence Shaw, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson Jr., Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Robert L. Erlanson, Mrs. K. A. Moore and Mrs. Robert Thomson. Among others assisting the general chairmen were Mrs. C. E. Brissenden, Mrs. Claude S. Kerns, Mrs. Howard Tistoe, Mrs. Eric Majors, Mrs. Wilhem L. Wales Jr., Mrs. Arthur Treibwasser, Mrs. Howard Harbison, Mrs. L. J. Latrix, Mrs. Carl G. Williams, Mrs. James Kerns, Lucile Tased and Mrs. Arthur Reinhart.

Mrs. Don Zumwalt was in charge of music, and during the afternoon she presented the talented young baritone, Charles Selby, who sang "Sylvia" by Ole Soaks, Romberg's "Desert Song," "Non e' Ver" by Matel and the aria "Avan de Quitte" ces Lioux" from Gounod's "Faust."

Mrs. Sam Musher, AAUW's pianist, played two nocturnes of Chopin's as well as Turbi's "Spanish Dance" and other individually requested numbers. The Klamath Falls branch of the American Association of University Women has honored graduating high school girls with a tea during the month of May since shortly after its formal organization in 1926. Mrs. George Myers was general chairman for the affair.

Honor Guest

LaVerne Ambers was honored guest at a pre-nuptial shower Friday evening, May 21, at the Klamath Lutheran church parlors. Marie Casjens Is Late May Bride

The Congregational Community church was the scene of the wedding on Sunday, May 23, of Marie Casjens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright of this city, and Truman Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Nelson of Minnesota. The Rev. Godfrey Matthews read the double ring ceremony at 4:30 in the afternoon.

Bouquets of white gladioli and white snapdragons and tapers in tall candelabra were arranged at the altar, and Billie Wright, brother of the bride, and Walter Sweet were the candlelighters. Mrs. George McIntyre at the organ, played the incidental music, the accompaniment for Colleen Creswell who sang "Calm as the Night" by Bohm and "O Perfect Love" by Barnby, and later played the traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of pale blue embroidered marquisette, with a net yoke and draped bertha.

She wore long blue mitts and a small cap of blue net with lilies of the valley. The bride carried a white Bible marked with white ribbons, a spray of lilies of the valley and a white orchid.

Maid of honor was her sister, Jean Wright, and the bridesmaid was Betty St. John. The maid of honor and the bridesmaid wore identical gowns of yellow tissue taffeta with bouffant skirts, net yokes and berthas. Their bouquets were of white stephanotis and blue carnations tied with long blue ribbons.

Mrs. Wright, mother of the bride, wore an aqua crepe dress with gray hat and accessories, and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

James Wright, the bride's brother, and Jack Lust were ushers, and the best man was Hjalmar Rathe.

The newlyweds and the bride's parents received at a reception in the social hall of the church following the ceremony. The girls who assisted about the room were Olive Sprye, Jean Whelan, Agnes Davis, Hazel Bennett and Norma Hayes. The bride's cake, encircled with
