

Rites Solemnized At Congregational

In a double ring ceremony read Sunday, May 16 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Jean Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas of Klamath Falls, became the bride of James P. Rumelhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rumelhart, also of this city.

Rev. Godfrey Matthews read the vows at the Community Congregational church before an altar banked with bouquets of pink snapdragons and white stock, and tall tapers.

Marie Casjens sang "I Love You Truly" before the rites, and "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Violet Moore, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her gown was of heavy white satin fashioned with a high neckline and a yoke edged in seed pearls. The full skirt ended in a brief train. Her fingertip veil was edged in rows of white satin and was held in place by a crown of white sequins and seed pearls. Her white prayer book was topped with a lavender orchid, and she carried a lace handkerchief belonging to her mother.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Leonard E. Scott, cousin of the bride. She was attired in a yellow gown, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and a bouffant skirt. In her hair she wore a matching braided coronet. Her bouquet was of white and blue carnations.

Darlene Thomas, sister of the bride, and Lola Rumelhart, sister of the bridegroom, lighted candles before the rites. Their gowns were identical to that of the matron of honor.

Warren Morin of Coos Bay was best man. Ushers were Don Rumelhart, brother of the bridegroom, and Leonard E. Scott.

Mrs. Thomas, mother of the bride, wore a suit of gray with black accessories, and Mrs. Rumelhart was attired in a pink and black afternoon dress with matching accessories. Each wore a gardenia and rosebud corsage.

A reception followed in the community hall, where Mrs. Fred Bobenmoyer, aunt of the bride, served. Mrs. Warren Morin, aunt of the groom, presided, and assisting were Caroline Rumelhart, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Ella Smith.

Mrs. Bob Callagan, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

For going away the new Mrs. Rumelhart wore a white and black pin-striped suit with white accessories, and her orchid pinned at the shoulder.

After a wedding trip on the Oregon coast, the newlyweds returned to move into their new home on Burns street.

THE COMMUNITY CONGREGATIONAL church was the setting for the wedding of Jean Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas, and James P. Rumelhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rumelhart, all of Klamath Falls. Vows were exchanged May 16. From left in the wedding party are Darlene Thomas, Mrs. Leonard E. Scott, the bride and groom, Warren Morin and Lola Rumelhart.

Mothers Club Has Annual May Tea

The silver tea given by the Mothers club of Sacred Heart academy Sunday, May 23, was the final meeting of the year, and the group's outstanding social function.

Preceding tea, the club president called a short business meeting which was opened with a prayer led by the school supervisor, Sister Marcella.

Mrs. Dick Collins stated that Evans orchestra has been selected for the senior banquet and Mrs. Don Drulliner, chairman of the kitchen utensil shower for the Teen-age center, reported on that project. Mrs. L. M. Durrill suggested that a Living Novena be undertaken by the club for the summer months, and volunteered herself as chairman for the month of June. Mrs. Virgil Smith and Mrs. John Watson will arrange for the two following months. Mrs. E. M. Igl asked that the club purchase two books monthly for the school library to replace the regular student magazine subscriptions.

Mrs. Don Drulliner and Mrs. Watson brought to the attention of the group that the city library is very willing and glad to fulfill requests for Catholic literature. Mrs. Vincent Herlitz, in concluding her last meeting as president, expressed appreciation to fellow officers, committee chairmen, room mothers and the group as a whole for the year just completed. She turned the meeting over to Mrs. Dan O'Leary, past president, who planned a corsage on Mrs. David Vandenberg, program chairman, for the most outstanding work of the year, on Mrs. Don Drulliner, incoming president. Mrs. E. M. Igl, vice president, Mrs. W. G. Ely, secretary, and Mrs. Virgil Short, treasurer.

Mrs. O'Leary took as her theme the word, "Services" and brought out the responsibilities and duties of the officers. Wishing them and all members of the club success and fulfillment in their work during the coming year. Mrs. Drulliner acknowledged the appointment, and the installation ceremonies were followed with musical selections. Harriet Lavenik sang "The Legend of Tschalkowski" accompanied by Patsy Clark; Peggy Plunkett, Kathleen Gallagher, Kathleen Currier and Cecil Vandenberg sang "Lady Dressed in Blue" accompanied by Sister Faustina. A piano solo, "I Love You," was played by Levita Maggart, and the high school girls chorus sang, "For My Mother" and "Dance of the Romeka" accompanied by Sister Faustina.

The silver tea, arranged by Mrs. Templeton Walker, was served in the dining room amidst a charming floral arrangement donated by Mrs. H. J. Laux and Mrs. Francis Manning. Mrs. Don Drulliner and Mrs. Roy Pickett poured at either end of the lovely tea table. Also on the committee were Mrs. Stanley Pieser, Mrs. Dick Miller Sr., Mrs. J. C. Murphy, Mrs. Homer Sackler, Mrs. M. P. Lavenik, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Walter Harrington, Mrs. Dutcher, Mrs. Claude Shuck, Mrs. J. L. Calhoun, Mrs. Chin, Mrs. M. B. May, Mrs. R. O. Wilkinson, Mrs. V. D. Williams, Mrs. T. W. Schuh and Mrs. Virgil Smith.

Novel Sale

Wanna buy a tie? The Soroptimist club of Klamath Falls, scouting around for a way to earn money for its project which is aid to minor girls in Klamath county, hit upon the idea of promoting a sale of ties on Saturday, June 12.

Members of the club are asking for ties of all sorts—four-in-hand, ascots, bow ties or Windsor—and these will be cleaned and pressed and put up for sale at a small price.

Marguerite Kessler has charge of collecting the ties and anyone having a tie—one or a dozen—may leave them at Kennell-Elis studio. Ota Smith will announce a location and publicity is handled by Lois Stewart.

Ties will be gratefully accepted up to June 8 and it is hoped that everyone in town will take advantage of the sale which falls just a week before Father's Day!

Meeting Plans
