Fort Klamath

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Backer were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nichols of Ontario, Ore. During the day the visitors made a trip to Crater lake which Mrs. Nichols had never seen, this being her first visit to this known local resident, the son of the late Arthur Nichols and Mrs. Kate Nichols, the latter having moved to Susanville, Calif., to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. P. L. Abbott, since the death of her husband last fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Dyche and son Jimmie have moved back to their home in Fort Klamath after spending the week at Algona. Dyche is employed in his logging operation.

After spending three weeks here as the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McQuiston, Mrs. Harold Nickle left Friday noon for her home in Long Beach, Calif. While here the visitor was taken by the McQuistons to various surrounding spots of interest and the three spent a week fishing on the Klamath river at Brewick, Calif., resorting a most enjoyable outing and a fine catch of trout. On her departure for her home in Long Beach on Friday, Mrs. Nickle was accompanied to Klamath Falls by Mr. and Mrs. McQuiston, who later went on to Ashland where they visited their daughter Betty Jo McQuiston and Mrs. Lucille Nicholson. The former is a student at the normal school at Ashland and Mrs. Nicholson plans to return here for the summer to her home at the Nicholson ranch when her daughters, Louellen and Paty Nicholson, finish the school term at Medford this month.

Going to Medford Saturday and returning here Sunday evening after attending the Shrine ceremonial on Saturday evening at which 150 candidates were initiated into the order were the following group: Mr. and Mrs. William C. Backer, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Packer and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McQuiston.

William Lambert has been assisting Marvin Roeder in the work of building a large store room in the rear of the Crater Lake grocery here, and the work is nearly completed.

Joan Pierce is spending a week's vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McQuiston from Klamath Falls, where she is employed by the Roland Rodolph Auditing company, whose office is located in the First National Bank building.
