

Klamath Man Weds In Chapel Rites

A recent wedding which took place in Fort Myers, Va., is of interest to people in the Klamath region. Captain Raymond E. Bellant, air transport command, AAF, took for his bride, Mary Arlette Brigas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Brigas of Atlantic City, N. J. Captain Bellant is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Bellant of Portland, formerly of this city.

The bride chose a gown of white chiffon, embroidered with roses, with a fitted bodice, full ruffled skirt and a long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a heart-shaped crown embroidered with seed pearls. Her traditional arm bouquet was of white roses and sweet peas.

Mid-Week SOCIETY

Mothers' Club

New officers of the Mothers' club of Sacred Heart academy were elected recently and are Mrs. Don Drulliner, president; Mrs. E. M. Igl, vice president; Mrs. W. G. Ely, secretary, and Mrs. Virgil Smith, treasurer.

Serving on the tea committee for this club's annual silver tea were Mrs. Florence Pickett, Mrs. Nora Manning, Mrs. Violet Pieser, Mrs. Naomi Miller, Mrs. Nellie Murphy, Mrs. Homer Sackler, Mrs. Martha Lavenik, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Walter Harrington, Mrs. Dutcher, Mrs. Shuck, Mrs. J. L. Calhoun, Mrs. Chinn, Mrs. M. B. May, Mrs. R. O. Wilkinson, Mrs. V. D. Williams, Mrs. T. W. Schuh and Mrs. Virgil Smith.

Mrs. Florence Low and Mrs. Nora Manning donated the floral tea table centerpiece for the affair.

Luncheon

At a delightfully arranged luncheon Saturday afternoon, Mrs. J. A. Lidell Sr. announced the engagement of her daughter, Phyllis Louise Rowan, to Donald W. Combs of Lakeview.

A centerpiece of pastel snapdragons was arranged at the luncheon table, with announcements of the engagement and coming marriage at each place.

Plans are for a July 11 wedding. Miss Rowan's fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Combs of Lakeview. Miss Rowan's father was the late Ray C. Rowan of Tulelake.

Piano Recital

Mrs. L. E. Juniper will present her piano pupils in a recital Friday evening, June 4, at 8 o'clock, in the parlors of the First Methodist church, 10th and High.

Taking part in the program will be Alice Kay Whitesell, Bonnie Karnes, Bobbie Ziegler, Betty Karnes, Janice Whytal, Ronald Juniper, Jean Ziegler and Gloria Stolk.

All parents and friends are cordially invited.

A RECENT LOVELY wedding was an event at the Fort Myers, Va., post chapel, when Mary Arlette Brigas, of Atlantic City, N. J., became the bride of Captain Raymond E. Bellant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bellant of Portland, former Klamath Falls residents.

District Meeting Held On Sunday

A district meeting of the auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars was held at Oregon Vocational school on Sunday, May 23 and representatives were present from Merrill, Malin, Lakeview and Klamath Falls, about 60 attending the meeting. Melba Burris, of Malin, senior vice president of the district, presided over the meeting, and plans were made for the encampment to be held at Pendleton next month. Patricia Henry was appointed to serve on the entertainment committee for "Fun Night," from district 8. Each district will present a skit or similar feature on that night.

Mary Schultz, district president of district 7 and installing officer, gave an interesting talk and then installed the following: Melba Burris of Malin, district president; Anna McGilvray of Klamath Falls, senior district vice president; Mary Alice Stastny of Malin, junior district vice president; Blanche Beldraine of Klamath Falls, district chaplain; district conductress and assistant conductress, Pearl Clark and Pauline Ware, both of Malin; district color bearers, Gladys Brown and Patricia Henry of Klamath Falls, Ida Clark and Malin and Fannie Phillips of Merrill; district treasurer, Dagney Sobczak of Klamath Falls; district guard, Marie Brown of Malin; patriotic instructor, Millie Arner of Lakeview; district musician, Edna Carnahan of Klamath Falls.

Each auxiliary president was introduced. Besides the auxiliary presidents of district 8, the presidents of Medford and Ashland auxiliaries were also present.

Klamath Falls was the hostess at the social hour which followed the meeting, and at this time refreshments were served.

Leaving

Mrs. Willard Preston, who is soon to leave for Whitefish, Montana, with her family, was complimented with a handkerchief shower at the home of Mrs. Stewart Snell, 1850 Earle street Wednesday afternoon.

Hostesses were Mrs. Snell and Mrs. John Van Doren.

Invited were Mrs. Al Brandt, Mrs. E. S. Casey, Mrs. J. N. Lee, Mrs. Harry Schoenberg, Mrs. Victor Josephson, Mrs. Floyd A. Boyd, Mrs. Howard Listoe, Mrs. Ray Michels, Mrs. Homer Ellis, and Mrs. Ralph Dewson of Alturas.

Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Listoe, first, and Mrs. Schoenberg, second.

Birthday

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Eddie Gralian entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of the third birthday of her son, Michael.

Guests honoring Michael were Michael and Danny Gralian, Bobby Potucek, Judy and Gary Randall and Frances DeBel.

Tulelake Minister Honored On Sunday

TULELAKE—Expressions of appreciation of the work he has accomplished, particularly with young people of the community, were voiced at a farewell reception for Rev. Francis Chambers, associate pastor of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church for the past year, at a reception Sunday evening in the church annex.

Several new members were also greeted at the reception. Rev. Chambers left this week for Seattle to attend grand assembly. He will then travel briefly before going to Omaha, Nebraska, his home state. He is considering two offers, one in Ohio and one in Missouri.

He was presented with a gift of luggage bearing greetings from the Christian Endeavor, Junior high group, Sunday school, church, guild, Mariners and the Newell Sunday school. Mrs. Gerald Lewis of the guild made the presentation.

Rev. Hugh Bronson, pastor of the church, spoke briefly to the new members, and Rev. Chambers offered prayer.

Assisting with the program and representing the various church organizations were Mrs. Leonard Mesheke, Mrs. S. F. Terry, Janice Taylor, Helene Fischer, Mrs. Tom Newton, Mrs. Sheldon Lewis of Newell, Mrs. Gerald Wilson, Robert Anderson, Mrs. Ward Devlin and Patsy and Peggy Terry.

Mrs. A. E. Ryckman, chairman of the program committee, was assisted by Mrs. Jim Renton and Mrs. George Howard. Refreshments were served to 85 adults and a number of children.

Formal Dance

The annual spring formal dinner dance of Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was held at Cal-Ore, Saturday, May 22.

Spring blossoms decorated the banquet room with similar flowers used at tables.

Enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kessler, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kitzel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Ferebee, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Guyer, Mr. and Mrs. James Ivory, Betty Merrill, Flem Williams, Diane Landrum, Don Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dryden, Mr. and Mrs. James Stillwell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Triebwasser, Patricia Walker, Paul Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Attebury.
