High School

News and Comment
By MARY LOU CASE

Tonight 232 seniors will march into the boys' gym for their formal goodbye to Klamath Union. Commencement exercises will begin at 8 p. m. with the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance." The main addresses will be delivered as customary by the valedictorian and salutatorian, Bill Southwell and Cameron Stewart. Handing out the diplomas will be the chairman of the school board, Nelson Reed.

Congratulations to the El Rodeo staff. Yes, the book actually arrived in time for students to have their signed and autographed by fellow classmates. This is the first time in the last three years that the annual has arrived from Portland before school was out, so it's quite an occasion. The book is red with white printing on the cover, and approximately 150 pages in length.

GAA, Girls' Athletic association, held their last initiation of the school year last Thursday night at the YMCA. At that time President Dolores Moon handed the gavel over to present-elect Carolyn Orr.

Four seniors have won prizes for taking top grades in the Time magazine semester quiz. The prizes, four books, were awarded by the magazine itself. Winning students are Tom Orr, Ronnie Woods, Sally Humble and Ralph Stearns. The reading of Time is part of the regular social sciences course in KU.

This is the last high school column of the school year, and the last time this senior will be writing it. Next fall Helen Jackson will take over the duties where I leave off. So without further ado I'll say—it's been fun.

KILLED
PHIL CAMPBELL, Ala., June 2 (AP)—A 13-year-old boy died yesterday after being dragged by a runaway mule.
The victim was Jimmy Glasgow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Glasgow. He became entangled in the trace chain after falling from the mule and was dragged about a quarter of a mile.
