

232 Fremont Junior High Students To Graduate At Ceremony At KU Tonight

Fremont Junior high students—232 in all—will march into Klamath Union high school's Pellam Court at 8 o'clock tonight, Thursday to receive eighth grade diplomas.

The class is not the largest in the history of the school, but ranks close to the top.

Malcolm Epley, managing editor of The Herald and News, will give the commencement address and Howard Barnhisel, member of school board 1, will present diplomas.

Following is the program:

Processional, Fremont school orchestra.

Invocation, Rev. Victor A. Schulze.

Girls' Glee club:

"Children of the Moon"—Warren.

"Bless This House"—Brabe.

Presentation of DAR award, Mrs. Roberta Blomquist.

Presentation of honor plus, Mrs. Walter Nitzel.

STOP!

Are you spending the family's paycheck wisely?

What we're talking about is the cost of food, and why you should compare food prices and know where you get the most for your money. For, when your food dollars can buy more meals, you have more dollars left to spend for other "needs."

Safeway wants you to compare prices... all items are prominently displayed and plainly priced so that you can do so easily, quickly. The advertised items listed here are typical of all Safeway values and prices are the lowest in this neighborhood.

Yes, we want you to compare prices... for then you'll be convinced that shopping at Safeway really pays off.
