

Cards Club Gems In Free-Hitting Scrap

Three Homers Clear Right Field Fence

The Willows Cards recently rattled the sabre last night and salvaged one game and a bus load of prestige from the three-game Klamath Falls series, shellingacking the Gems 17 to 8 in the heaviest-hitting tilt seen in Gems stadium so far this season.

It seemed like every other ball was bouncing off the fence. Lee Singleton, Willows first baseman, clouted two home runs over the right field wall—quite a feat for a right-handed swinger—and added a double and single in six appearances. Singleton batted in six runs. Bob Caviness, second baseman for the Gems, made the first hit of his career in Klamath Falls uniform a home run, also over the right field fence.

Caviness' blow came with two aboard in the sixth inning and cleared the 365-foot sign on the wall. It was the longest four-master hit at the new park this season. Singleton's blows came in the fifth with none on and in the sixth with two on base.

Nick Muti hit the right field boards with a triple and there were half a dozen two-baggers put in one corner of the park for another.

Willows was behind briefly in the first inning, 2-1, but not for long. The Cards rapidly found the range on Joe Nicholas and several fielding errors didn't help any. Hill Beeson bobbled a couple of ground balls in centerfield and Hal Taylor muffed third at third base.

Caviness, a left-hander, relieved Nicholas in the fifth. For Nicholas the loss was his third against two wins. Bob Zollieffer went all the way for the Cards, fanning eight and walking eight.

The Gems lost a little ground by the defeat and by losing missed an opportunity to move into first place in the Far West league. Oroville, the loop leader, played a 6-6 tie with Pittsburg and Redding topped Santa Rosa, 7-2. Oroville still remains in first place, the Gems and Redding are tied for second a full game behind.

Tonight the Medford Dodgers come over to start a three game stand. Game tonight will start at 7:30. Sunday's tilt will be an afternoon affair, beginning at 2:15 p. m. and the finale Monday will be a ladies' night attraction.

The box:
The box:
WILLIAMS—ARRRHOAE
Lane, 2b 4 0 2 5 1 1 0
Kinnard, cf 3 2 0 1 1 0 0
Mittel, 3b 2 0 0 1 1 0 0
Singleton, 1b 6 3 4 4 1 0 0
Tracy, lf 4 4 2 1 1 0 1
Apollin, ss 3 0 0 0 0 0 0
Smith, 3b 3 0 0 2 2 2 0
Morgan, c 5 2 4 10 0 0
Zollieffer, p 2 0 0 1 0 0 0
Totals 42 17 18 27 7 2

It's been just that close all the way. This set, the first to run four games, could be the break.

Cleveland suddenly exploded for five runs after 14 scoreless innings at Washington last night and whipped the Senators, 5 to 0 in a 15-inning thriller.

The Indians put together five hits off Tom Ferrick and Dick Weltoth in the big rally. Mickey Haeffner and Bobby Feller matched pitches for 11 innings before Feller retired in favor of Bob Muncrief. Haeffner went out for a pinchhitter in the 12th. Philadelphia rallied for three runs in the seventh inning to turn back the last place Chicago White Sox, 4 to 3. Mike Guerra's Philadelphia-Cleveland series was on the block again in Shibe park today.

The Indians moved into Philadelphia for four games with Connie Mack's amazing A's who have fought off every sign of collapse.

Currently Cleveland has an eight point margin over the Athletics. On the other hand, the A's have won more games than any other major league team.

The first time the two clubs met Cleveland was in first, the A's in second. Philadelphia won both games in the series and took over the lead. Philadelphia was on top at the start of the second series. The lead didn't last long. Cleveland, playing at home, won two in a row and jumped into first.

It's been just that close all the way. This set, the first to run four games, could be the break.

Cleveland suddenly exploded for five runs after 14 scoreless innings at Washington last night and whipped the Senators, 5 to 0 in a 15-inning thriller.

The Indians put together five hits off Tom Ferrick and Dick Weltoth in the big rally. Mickey Haeffner and Bobby Feller matched pitches for 11 innings before Feller retired in favor of Bob Muncrief. Haeffner went out for a pinchhitter in the 12th. Philadelphia rallied for three runs in the seventh inning to turn back the last place Chicago White Sox, 4 to 3. Mike Guerra's Philadelphia-Cleveland series was on the block again in Shibe park today.

The Indians moved into Philadelphia for four games with Connie Mack's amazing A's who have fought off every sign of collapse.

Currently Cleveland has an eight point margin over the Athletics. On the other hand, the A's have won more games than any other major league team.

The first time the two clubs met Cleveland was in first, the A's in second. Philadelphia won both games in the series and took over the lead. Philadelphia was on top at the start of the second series. The lead didn't last long. Cleveland, playing at home, won two in a row and jumped into first.

It's been just that close all the way. This set, the first to run four games, could be the break.

Cleveland suddenly exploded for five runs after 14 scoreless innings at Washington last night and whipped the Senators, 5 to 0 in a 15-inning thriller.

The Indians put together five hits off Tom Ferrick and Dick Weltoth in the big rally. Mickey Haeffner and Bobby Feller matched pitches for 11 innings before Feller retired in favor of Bob Muncrief. Haeffner went out for a pinchhitter in the 12th. Philadelphia rallied for three runs in the seventh inning to turn back the last place Chicago White Sox, 4 to 3. Mike Guerra's Philadelphia-Cleveland series was on the block again in Shibe park today.

The Indians moved into Philadelphia for four games with Connie Mack's amazing A's who have fought off every sign of collapse.

Currently Cleveland has an eight point margin over the Athletics. On the other hand, the A's have won more games than any other major league team.

The first time the two clubs met Cleveland was in first, the A's in second. Philadelphia won both games in the series and took over the lead. Philadelphia was on top at the start of the second series. The lead didn't last long. Cleveland, playing at home, won two in a row and jumped into first.

It's been just that close all the way. This set, the first to run four games, could be the break.

Cleveland suddenly exploded for five runs after 14 scoreless innings at Washington last night and whipped the Senators, 5 to 0 in a 15-inning thriller.

The Indians put together five hits off Tom Ferrick and Dick Weltoth in the big rally. Mickey Haeffner and Bobby Feller matched pitches for 11 innings before Feller retired in favor of Bob Muncrief. Haeffner went out for a pinchhitter in the 12th. Philadelphia rallied for three runs in the seventh inning to turn back the last place Chicago White Sox, 4 to 3. Mike Guerra's Philadelphia-Cleveland series was on the block again in Shibe park today.

SPORTS

By Hale Scarborough, Sports Editor

Indians, A's Tangle For Junior Loop Lead

The American league lead, which has changed hands in two previous Philadelphia-Cleveland series was on the block again in Shibe park today.

The Indians moved into Philadelphia for four games with Connie Mack's amazing A's who have fought off every sign of collapse.

Currently Cleveland has an eight point margin over the Athletics. On the other hand, the A's have won more games than any other major league team.

The first time the two clubs met Cleveland was in first, the A's in second. Philadelphia won both games in the series and took over the lead. Philadelphia was on top at the start of the second series. The lead didn't last long. Cleveland, playing at home, won two in a row and jumped into first.

It's been just that close all the way. This set, the first to run four games, could be the break.

Cleveland suddenly exploded for five runs after 14 scoreless innings at Washington last night and whipped the Senators, 5 to 0 in a 15-inning thriller.

The Indians put together five hits off Tom Ferrick and Dick Weltoth in the big rally. Mickey Haeffner and Bobby Feller matched pitches for 11 innings before Feller retired in favor of Bob Muncrief. Haeffner went out for a pinchhitter in the 12th. Philadelphia rallied for three runs in the seventh inning to turn back the last place Chicago White Sox, 4 to 3. Mike Guerra's Philadelphia-Cleveland series was on the block again in Shibe park today.

The Indians moved into Philadelphia for four games with Connie Mack's amazing A's who have fought off every sign of collapse.

Currently Cleveland has an eight point margin over the Athletics. On the other hand, the A's have won more games than any other major league team.

The first time the two clubs met Cleveland was in first, the A's in second. Philadelphia won both games in the series and took over the lead. Philadelphia was on top at the start of the second series. The lead didn't last long. Cleveland, playing at home, won two in a row and jumped into first.

It's been just that close all the way. This set, the first to run four games, could be the break.

Cleveland suddenly exploded for five runs after 14 scoreless innings at Washington last night and whipped the Senators, 5 to 0 in a 15-inning thriller.

The Indians put together five hits off Tom Ferrick and Dick Weltoth in the big rally. Mickey Haeffner and Bobby Feller matched pitches for 11 innings before Feller retired in favor of Bob Muncrief. Haeffner went out for a pinchhitter in the 12th. Philadelphia rallied for three runs in the seventh inning to turn back the last place Chicago White Sox, 4 to 3. Mike Guerra's Philadelphia-Cleveland series was on the block again in Shibe park today.

The Indians moved into Philadelphia for four games with Connie Mack's amazing A's who have fought off every sign of collapse.

Currently Cleveland has an eight point margin over the Athletics. On the other hand, the A's have won more games than any other major league team.

The first time the two clubs met Cleveland was in first, the A's in second. Philadelphia won both games in the series and took over the lead. Philadelphia was on top at the start of the second series. The lead didn't last long. Cleveland, playing at home, won two in a row and jumped into first.

It's been just that close all the way. This set, the first to run four games, could be the break.

Cleveland suddenly exploded for five runs after 14 scoreless innings at Washington last night and whipped the Senators, 5 to 0 in a 15-inning thriller.

The Indians put together five hits off Tom Ferrick and Dick Weltoth in the big rally. Mickey Haeffner and Bobby Feller matched pitches for 11 innings before Feller retired in favor of Bob Muncrief. Haeffner went out for a pinchhitter in the 12th. Philadelphia rallied for three runs in the seventh inning to turn back the last place Chicago White Sox, 4 to 3. Mike Guerra's Philadelphia-Cleveland series was on the block again in Shibe park today.

The Indians moved into Philadelphia for four games with Connie Mack's amazing A's who have fought off every sign of collapse.

Currently Cleveland has an eight point margin over the Athletics. On the other hand, the A's have won more games than any other major league team.

The first time the two clubs met Cleveland was in first, the A's in second. Philadelphia won both games in the series and took over the lead. Philadelphia was on top at the start of the second series. The lead didn't last long. Cleveland, playing at home, won two in a row and jumped into first.

It's been just that close all the way. This set, the first to run four games, could be the break.

Cleveland suddenly exploded for five runs after 14 scoreless innings at Washington last night and whipped the Senators, 5 to 0 in a 15-inning thriller.

The Indians put together five hits off Tom Ferrick and Dick Weltoth in the big rally. Mickey Haeffner and Bobby Feller matched pitches for 11 innings before Feller retired in favor of Bob Muncrief. Haeffner went out for a pinchhitter in the 12th. Philadelphia rallied for three runs in the seventh inning to turn back the last place Chicago White Sox, 4 to 3. Mike Guerra's Philadelphia-Cleveland series was on the block again in Shibe park today.

Rainiers Push Frisco Seals For Showdown

Aroused Suds Clip O'Doulmen Before Big Seattle Crowd

By The Associated Press

This is showdown day in the Pacific Coast league.

It's the day when the Seattle Rainiers have a chance to overhaul the leading San Francisco Seals, to pass them, in fact, by a few percentage points.

Seattle, in last place less than seven weeks ago, climbed to within one game and nine percentage points last night by beating the Seals, 7-3, for the third straight night before 16,819 fans, probably the largest crowd in Seattle history.

The entire first division ganged up last night on San Francisco, which started the season with a rush and was picked by a whole corps of baseball experts to win the PCL pennant in a walk. Seattle, Los Angeles and San Diego all went moving up on the leaders with only 4 1/2 games separating first and fourth place clubs.

RESCUE REQUIRED
Seattle got all their runs on singles, with the aid of two Seal errors. The Rainiers bunched the whacks for three tallies in the first inning and four in the third. Pitcher Guy Fletcher won his sixth straight game, allowing 10 hits and requiring Mario Russo's rescue work in the eighth.

The Seals Third Baseman Ray Orteig drove in all their runs, with a three-run homer in the seventh and a two-run double in the eighth.

The Los Angeles Angels came from behind twice to bag their first win of the week by downing Portland 13-7.

Portland led 3-0 in the third and 7-6 in the fifth but the Angels squared matters in the sixth and exploded for five runs in the seventh. The ultimate winning run came when Cece Garriot walked with the bases full and two away. Immediately thereafter, Bill Schuster slammed a grand slam homer. Schuster had a perfect night at bat, also cracking a double and three singles.

The fourth place San Diego Padres strengthened their margin over Oakland and also advanced a game on San Francisco by beating the Oaks, 3-2.

SAME COMBINATION
The Padres scored in the first inning and in both the second and sixth they counted on the same combination, a double by Hank Campbell and a single by Leo Wells.

Sacramento trimmed the Hollywood Stars, 8-7, although outbit, 13-9. The Solons won it in the ninth after two were out. Then Dee Moore singled in the winning run.

The box score:
PORTLAND—ARRRHOAE
Zak, ss 4 0 1 0 2 0 0
Smith, lf 3 2 1 2 0 0 1
Campbell, 1b 4 1 2 0 3 1
Mole, 1b 3 1 2 0 0 0
Reich, rf 3 1 1 2 1 0 0
Fletcher, p 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Basinski, 2b 4 1 1 1 3 0
Heiser, p 2 0 1 0 0 1 0
Schuster, p 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Loyar, p 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Waltz, p 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals 35 17 24 10 2
a—Walked for Fillette in 5th.

LOS ANGELES—ARRRHOAE
Schmitt, cf 4 0 1 0 2 0 0
Carmel, 1b 3 2 1 2 0 0 1
Glossop, 2b 5 1 1 3 2 0 0
Dallensand, lf 4 1 2 0 3 1
Abernethy, 3b 3 1 1 3 0 0
Ostrowski, 3b 5 2 3 0 1 0 0
Molton, 1b 4 1 6 2 1 0
Malone, c 4 1 2 4 0 0
Carlsen, p 1 0 0 1 0 0 0
Molton, p 0 0 0 0 0 0 0
Burnett, p 0 1 0 0 0 0 0
Schmidt, p 1 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals 37 13 14 27 9 0
a—Walked for Lade in 7th.

SUMMARY—Winning pitcher, Lade; losing pitcher, Wyatt; left on bases, Portland 9, Los Angeles 6; two-base hit, Schuster; home runs, Abernethy, Ostrowski, Molton; RBI, Schuster, sacrifice; Smith; stolen bases, Mole, Rucker; runs batted in, Heiser, 2, Rucker, 2, Storey, Mole, Ostrowski, Abernethy, 3, Glossop, 2, Schuster, 5, Garriot; double plays, Storey to Basinski to Mole, Mole to Glossop to Sanford; Time, 2:36. Umpires—Engeln, Doran and Gordon. Attendance 3263.

ROYAL DRAKE was held at 25 to 1 and Noor at 22 to 1 in the betting. By Babu, owned by the Maharaja of Baroda and the favorite at odds of 7 to 2, was fourth. Straight play was fifth and Marcel Boussac's Djeddah, on which the odds dropped to 8 to 1 shortly before the race, was fifth.

Jess Flores Gets Split Decision
NEW YORK, June 5 (AP)—Jess Flores, clever Stockton, Calif., lightweight, is established as a Madison Square Garden main performer as the result of his split decision win over Johnny Williams of Montgomery, Ala.

Actually the clever Californian had to go hard last night to edge busy Johnny who dumped him for a count of eight in the seventh round. Referee George Walsh thought Williams won it by a 5-4 margin with one round even. The two judges gave it to Flores.

Bremerton 5, Spokane 4.
Victoria 8, Yakima 2.
Salem 5, Vancouver 4.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Don W. Clarke, Seattle, was named to head the organization during the next year.

Quick Catch At Keno Dam

Bob Currin, 1605 Esplanade, was out only a few hours catching this string of 10 rainbow trout in the Klamath river at Keno dam. He used single eggs. Largest of the string was 18 inches long and the average was 13 inches.

Belcastro, Knox Go To Fall-Each Draw

This time it was the smooth-tongued Buddy Knox who was left disabled in the armory arena after his main-event slugfest with Pete Belcastro, furnishing a long-awaited spectacle for local grunt-and-groan clientele last night.

Since Pete had dropped a fall in the third round and didn't get his down until the final canto, the match went into the draw basket, but the Weed Assassin and the fans, apparently gassed enough, pleased

The Assassin spent most of the fourth go applying a figure-four, meanwhile getting in some timely blows to the luckless Knox's back. Knox was unable to get up between rounds and his cause was further hampered by between-bell action on Belcastro's part. When the round got under way, Pete promptly rolled the Pennsylvania over and exerted his infamous surfbroad, getting the fall and leaving Knox in the ring to be helped out.

In semi-windup action, the red-and-white masked Phantom, a newcomer to the local arena, took the match from Milt Olsen, but not before taking two and a half rounds of punishment from the vindictive Swede.

The Phantom gained the one and only fall in the third after butting the Swede around with a seemingly painful tussle. The action wound Olsen up in the ropes, and attempts to free him netted an injured ankle. Milt was unable to return for the fourth, and the nod went to the masked boy.

The opener saw Al Szasz and Gordon Hesse, another new face in the circuit, brawl to a four round draw, in a fast and furious tussle.

Szasz took the first down with a series of flying knees and an arm stretch, but Gordon came bouncing right back and pinned Szasz in the fourth after several body slams.

Mills school won the 1947-48 honor of being the outstanding school in athletics yesterday, being presented the Shoop and Schulze trophy for aggregating the most points in basketball, volleyball, softball and track during the school year.

Mills had 561 points, followed by Roosevelt with 544 and Fremont 532.

The Joe Peak sportsmanship award went to Pelican school. Various sport awards won during the season were handed out in school assemblies yesterday.

Defending Champion Chuck Congdon posted a 70.

Baseball Trophy
The Southern Oregon conference baseball trophy was presented to the Klamath Union high school Pelicans yesterday during an assembly at the high school. The lost in the state tourney. Track, baseball and tennis letters were awarded during the assembly.

Hotels
OSBORN • HOLLAND
EUGENE ORE. MEDFORD

Thoroughly Modern
Mr and Mrs J. E. Earley
Proprietors
and Joe Earley

Northern Calif. League
BASEBALL
Klamath vs. Yreka
Pioneers vs. Miners
SUNDAY - 2:30 P. M.
Recreation Field
Come Out and Support Your Pioneers
KIDDIES UNDER 15 FREE

BRING YOUR FORD
BACK HOME FOR A SPECIALIZED
Get Ready for Summer
Tune-Up
SEE US TODAY. WE KNOW
YOUR FORD BEST—

BALSIGER, Inc.
Your Tulelake Ford Dealer
Day or Night Service
Tulelake, Calif., Main and C Streets Phone 2431

Western Mail Bag

Bantam Ben Hogan Favored For U.S. Open Title

By BOB MYERS
LOS ANGELES, June 5 (AP)—The nation's best golfers are beginning to arrive in Los Angeles for the U. S. Open championship, and no one will be surprised to hear that the favorite is bantam Ben Hogan.

Hogan has never won the Open, which is hard to realize, but there are many reasons why he is the No. 1 choice of most of the experts to finally add the title to his collection.

One is his affection for the Riviera Country club course, site of the big show June 10-12.

It was here that Hogan won the 1947 and 1948 Los Angeles Open tournaments — four strokes under par 284 for 72 holes the first time, and nine strokes under par last January.

In the 1946 L.A. the current defending U. S. open champion, Lew Worsham, had rounds of 72-75-77-74—298, which would indicate he didn't find the course on the friendly side. Hogan had rounds of 68-70-70-77—275 for the par 71 course.

The story was different in the national open. It will be recalled that the youthful Worsham tied at the end of 72 holes with Sam Snead with rounds of 70-70-71-71—282 and won the playoff, 69 to 70, while Hogan finished under the line with rounds of 70-70-74—289. This was at the sun-baked St. Louis Country club.

The nation's low qualifier last year, Otto Greiner of Baltimore, with 71-64—135, qualified Tuesday at Tulsa with 71-70—141. And Jack Harden of El Paso, who fired a nine-under low score of 67-77—134 at Lubbock, Tex., is the same young man who led the field with a 67 in the L.A. open at Riviera last January 2.

Sam Snead remains the hard luck gent of the current tribe. His 8 blows on the final hole at Spring Hill, Philadelphia, blew him out of the running, and he missed a 30-inch putt last year which would have thrown his playoff with Worsham into another 16 holes.

Joe Gantenben still has the top average but does not play as a regular. Gantenben has hit 366 in 41 turns at the plate.

Mankey is pacing the regulars with 342, and has 11 doubles, three triples and one home run among his 40 hits. All figures are complete through the game of Thursday night.

In four games this past week Mankey dropped off five points from his May 30 average, getting six hits in 19 trips. Bob Wallace fell off 13 and Joe Anselmo lost 12 on the other hand. Nick Muti hit six for 13 and gained 24 points in the four tilts.

Rick Small and Mankey have each crossed the plate 34 times and Mankey's 40 hits are tops for the games through Thursday night.

Hitting averages:
Player AB R H Ave.
Gantenben 41 8 15 366
Mankey 117 34 40 342
Muti 91 31 31 340
Wallace 91 22 30 329
Anselmo 97 30 30 309
Beeson 37 9 11 296
Small 125 34 35 280
Taylor 85 18 22 259
Mohler 37 7 9 243
Descalso 25 8 6 240
Caviness 3 0 0 000

Pitching records show that Bob Blengino, left hander, is the team's leading hurler with three wins and no defeats, while Art Meyer has a record of four and one. Pitching records:
Player G W L Pct.
Blengino 6 3 0 1000
Meyer 7 4 1 800
Guelfo 8 2 2 500
Nicholas 5 2 2 500
Vitous 7 1 1 500
Lopeman 9 3 4 429
Schottgen 6 1 2 333

Shooting continued today in the semi-finals.

Two high scores Friday:
Class A—M. Henry, Los Angeles, 197; Hildebrandt, 196; Arnold Reiger, Seattle, 195; Clyde Fox, Portland, Ore., 195; M. G. Hinkle, Portland, 195; Roy Glass, Eugene, 194; Cal D. Ray, Eugene, 194.

Class B—Stanley Brock, Walla Walla, Wash., 196; L. W. Warner, Vancouver, Wash., 194; Pinkerton, 194.

Special Racing Meet Rejected
PORTLAND, June 5 (AP)—A special horse race meeting at Gresham fair grounds is not in prospect.

It had been proposed as a benefit for horse owners flooded out of Portland Meadows, but the state racing commission rejected the idea.

Dr. Frank Menne, commission chairman, said that aid promised by several truck organizations would be more effective.

Oregon Youths Get Navy Commissions
ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 5 (AP)—Four Oregon youths were commissioned as navy ensigns yesterday at Annapolis naval academy graduation ceremonies.

They are Charles Rease Braley Jr., Medford; Henry Biddle Johnson, 384 S. 24th street, Salem; Detroit Boyer Pruett, Riddle; Andrew Louis Frahier, 2750 N. W. Savier, Portland.

Law Changed To Speed Shipments
PORTLAND, June 5 (AP)—Washington and Idaho meat animals were reaching Portland packing plants today because Oregon relaxed its trucking laws to meet the flood emergency.

State police held up the first few truckloads because the vehicles lacked licenses. The animals normally come to Portland by rail.

Gov. John Hall of Oregon ordered the police to let the vehicles proceed and said no arrests would be made for lack of licenses in the next two weeks.

Martin OUTBOARD MOTORS
Authorized
SALES AND SERVICE
MOTSIE'S
Phone 1507

BRING YOUR FORD
BACK HOME FOR A SPECIALIZED
Get Ready for Summer
Tune-Up
SEE US TODAY. WE KNOW
YOUR FORD BEST—

BALSIGER, Inc.
Your Tulelake Ford Dealer
Day or Night Service
Tulelake, Calif., Main and C Streets Phone 2431

BRING YOUR FORD
BACK HOME FOR A