Home Cooking School Slated

All interested women are invited to attend a home freezing and cooking school sponsored by the Suburban Lumoer company next week with Dortha Flavelle, home service advisor, as instructor and demonstrator.

The school will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, June 8 and 9, from 7:30 to 10 p. m. at the Suburban Lumoer company showrooms, 4784 S. 6th. The same school of instruction will be given both nights.

A cordial invitation to all women in the Klamath basin has been issued by the company.

First printing press set up on the American continent was established by the Spaniards in Mexico in 1539.

The entrance to a Navajo Indian Hogan in Arizona is always built facing east.

Some people add rings of onion and uncooked prunes to pork chops during cooking. Add water for liquid.

All hospitals of importance employ air conditioning in their operating rooms.

If you are undecided as to your future course in life, let the United States navy help you decide it.

All LW programs will be in their regular position on the listening schedule Monday as the station goes on Daylight time which the ABC net has already been on.

A little jockeying of some programs will bring Betty Crocker Magazine of the Air to us for the first time, starting Monday at 10:55 a. m. with 20 minutes of recipes and homemaking hints.

The Stop and Shop program is moving over to 10:15 daily and Miniature Concert may be heard at 2:25 p. m.

The Lost and Found department of KFLW has a pair of good glasses in a case bearing the name of L. D. Gass, M.D., Medical Dental building; a case containing three keys and a name Buckman on a tag; a little gold cross with a Catholic symbol. These may be picked up any time by the owners on identification.

A new Sunday afternoon program called "Superstition" will be broadcast at 5:30 PST with the first story, "The Four Leaf Clover" about a test pilot.

The superstition that four-leaf clovers bring good luck brings a profit of $25,000 yearly to a man in the Canal Zone who raises and sells them.

President Truman's address at the annual reunion of the third division, World War I, will be aired over ABC tonight at 9 o'clock. He served in this division as an artillery officer.

The Adventures of Johnny Fletcher, Sunday center around horse racing and the slaying of a horse owner.

The I Love Adventure program Sunday dramatizes a dangerous assignment for Jack Packard and Reggie York when they are sent on a perilous mission to guard an emissary to Turkey who is in fear of assassination.

Called "Disputed Boundary," a title smacking of western cow country feuds, The Greatest Story Ever Told, brings just as exciting episode and a true one to listeners at 2:30 p. m. Sunday. The story includes the plot used over and over in fiction of a romance between the son of one disputer and a daughter of the other.

Niece Of Klamathites To Graduate From Munich Hi

SALZBURG, Austria, June 5—Sixteen-year-old Joan Kelly, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Offield, 423 North 7th street, Klamath Falls, and of Mr. and Mrs. John Giacomini, Merrill, Ore., will graduate June 2 from the army-sponsored Community high school, Munich, Germany, in the American zone of occupation. Her father, Capt. Walter N. Kelly, I & E officer, now stationed with the 16th infantry regiment at Camp Truscott, near Salzburg, and her mother, Mary Giacomini Kelly, will be on hand for the ceremonies to be held in the Haus der Kunst, once Hitler's favorite art gallery.

Chosen "most popular coed" by the student body, Miss Kelly has been very active in extra-curricular activities during the two years she's attended the Munich school. Besides serving as editor of the school annual, she was cheer leader of the rally team during football and basketball season.
