

Traditional Satin Chosen By Bride

Bouquets of white stock and gladioli with palms and many lighted tapers decorated Sacred Heart Catholic church at 7 o'clock the evening of Saturday, May 29, when Mary Ellen Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Long of this city, became the bride of Joseph L. Bair. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Irma Bair of Spring Lake.

Rev. Father Timothy P. Casey officiated. Mrs. Sherman Carter played the traditional wedding marches, and accompanied Mr. Carter, who sang "Ave Maria."

Mary Ellen was escorted to the altar by her father who gave her in marriage. Her lovely gown was of heavy white satin, made with a rounded neckline of lace, long fitted sleeves with a pointed cuff of the same lace leaf design and a softly draped skirt ending in a full train. A fingertip veil fell from her princess tiara of seed pearls.

A single white orchid and white satin streamers marked the prayer book she carried.

Maid of honor and the bride's only attendant was Ruth Boettcher, who was gowned in a frock of blue taffeta with a ruffled Victorian shoulder line, and matching lace ruffled hemline. Long mitts matched her gown. An open crown picture hat completed her costume, and her colonial bouquet was of sweet peas and roses.

Marion Regmatto was best man, and ushers were William Long Jr., brother of the bride, and Richard Boettcher.

The Pelican party room was the setting for the reception which followed the ceremony. Pouring was Mrs. Carl Grubb, and Mrs. Herbert Boettcher served. Mrs. Virgil Veitch was in charge of the guestbook, and Mrs. Amel Paul and Rose Mary Bair, sister of the bridegroom, assisted.

The bride and groom cut the traditional first slice of a pretty wedding cake at a table decorated with sweetheart roses. Bouquets of spring blossoms were used about the rooms.

After a wedding trip on the Southern California coast, the young couple will return to reside in Klamath Falls.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Bair chose a suit of white gabardine, with matching accessories, and the orchid from her prayer book pinned at the shoulder.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. C. M. Graham, grandmother of the bride, of LaGrande, Jackie Boettcher of San Francisco, Calif., and James Misfeldt, Dick Hoyt, and Bob Burke of Oregon State college at Corvallis.

Dancing Party

This was a busy week for graduates and one of the largest parties given during the past week was that of Friday evening in St. Paul's parish house when John Mason and Angus Stewart entertained a group of classmates with a dancing party. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., and Angus, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart.

The room was decked with masses of apple blossoms and lilacs and lighted by candles. Assisting at the punch bowl and during the evening were Sara Stewart, Sally Barnhisel and Clarissa Mason.

Guests included Barbara Solie, Janice Larson, Frances Stevenson, Marilyn Gerber, Margaret Gerber, Frances Stearns, Patty Teale, Ann Newman of Payette, Ida, Margaret Powell, Annabelle Dial, Jean Owens, Beverly Keels, Helen Bertram, Shirley Rogers, Sylvia Hillis, Jeanie Dunlavey, Mary Ann Preston, Virginia Van Doren, Marilyn Miller, Lyn Perkins, Shirley Gayford, Marilyn Wheeler, Lorna Hausensak, Nancy Hagglund, Nancy Berg, Aurelia Patterson, Carol Hamilton, Cydene Bousman, Corrine Gheller, Bonnie O'Harra, Beverly Fuller, Patsy Young.

Robin Bithell, Douglas Leichty, Phil Schroeder, Randall Binkley, John Oliver, Charles Rice, Jack Berg, Ronnie Hershberger, Lester Flocchini, Leslie Flocchini, Bruce Morosin, Ramon Bell, Lee Kinmark, Bob Borgman, James Newman, Dale Hicks, Jack Ayres, Alan Heston, Tom Wells, Marvin Nerseth, David Shaffer, Robert Olson, Paul Jones, Merle Rush, Bob Van Vactor, Sam Montgomery, Dick Tracy, Ted Cobo and Arden Nichols.

Voice Recital

This afternoon, Saturday, June 5, at her home on Lincoln street, Mrs. George McIntyre presented a group of voice students in recital. Guests were parents and friends, and refreshments were served following the performance.

The program follows: "Barcarolle" (from the "Tales of Hoffman") Offenbach "In the Luxembourg Gardens" Manning

Marian McIntyre and Colleen Creswell "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride" O'Hara

"Norwegian Child's Prayer" Kountze Ty Keller (spiritual)

"Deep River" Tarzy Smith (spiritual) "Thou Art Our Father" Briggs "For You Alone" Geehl

Thelma Creswell "En Dorr Paglant" Swedish folk song "Steal Away" (spiritual)

Brent Hedberg "The Lamplit Hour" Penn "With You" Nutting

Alice Stone "Life" Curran "The Song Is You" Kern

Sally Searcy "The Lass With the Delicate Air" Molloy

"My Lover is a Fisherman" Strickland Ingrid Olson "Calm as the Night" Bohm

"Love's on the Highroad" Woodman Colleen Creswell

"Mornings" Speaks "I'll Walk Beside You" Murray

Marian McIntyre

FRIENDS ARE BIDDING FAREWELL to Rev. and Mrs. Cecil C. Brown who are soon to leave Klamath Falls. Rev. Brown has resigned his pastorate at the First Baptist church to enter the missionary and teaching field. They will leave July 1, and for a time will have their headquarters in Klamath Falls.

Meeting Held By Faculty Women

The June meeting of the Oregon Vocational School Faculty Wives' and Women's club was held Tuesday evening in the OVS guest house. This social and service club is new this year and will meet regularly throughout the summer in order to complete its organization and set up an interesting program for the fall and winter months.

A committee, headed by Mrs. Winston Purvine, presented a draft of a constitution and by-laws for the club which was read and discussed at some length.

The two standing committees were created with Mrs. Henry Swisegood appointed as chairman of the program committee, and Mrs. Lawrence A. French as publicity chairman.

The club will sponsor a picnic for members and their families to be held some time this month. Mrs. Wallace Uerlings is in charge of picnic arrangements.

Mrs. Leslie Summerfield was introduced and welcomed as a new member. Mrs. Summerfield is manager of the OVS cafeteria.

After the meeting, club members visited the school's new recreation hall where refreshments were served by Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Del Jones and Mrs. William Lieske.

Senior Party

Nadine Yockey entertained for a group of members of the 1948 graduation class of Klamath Union high school after commencement Wednesday evening. The party was held at the Yockey home on Sheldon street.

Nadine's guests were June Hensley, Peggy Dahlman, Beverly Young, Dwight Weathersby, Jim Owens, Bob Hooker and Ronnie Brown.

Tea Invitations Issued This Week

Invitations were in the mail late this week for a tea at which Mrs. Jacob Heid and her daughter, Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook will be hostesses at the Hornbrook home on Pacific Terrace.

Heralds Of Spring Include "Jacks"

(Continued from Page Five)

her degree. They are returning Monday. Nancy will rest up a day or two before going to work at her summer job at The Herald and News.

Friends may call on Tommy Moore at the family home on LeRoy street now as Tommy was able to leave Hillside hospital Friday morning after one week's stay for treatment of an eye injury. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore.

A summer visitor is Mrs. Edgar H. Mason of North Platte, Nebraska, who arrived here Wednesday with her daughter, Miss Margaret Mason, for a stay at the home of Mrs. Mason's daughter, Mrs. Thomas B. Walters of Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Mason plans to remain for the summer months but Miss Mason will return to North Platte within several weeks.

Dinner Party

Members and friends of the First Baptist church entertained at a farewell dinner in the church parlors, Thursday evening, May 20, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Brown and their son, Ronnie.

Rev. Brown has resigned his pastorate, and although he and Mrs. Brown will have their headquarters temporarily in Klamath Falls, they plan to leave for other points July 1. Rev. Brown will enter the missionary and teaching fields.

Their son, Ronnie, a graduate of this spring at Klamath Union high school, will remain in Klamath Falls where he is a member of The Herald and News editorial staff, through the summer before going to college next fall.

A lovely gift was presented to the Browns. Frank Ward was toastmaster for the evening, and introduced the program.

A reading was given by Mrs. Ward, and an original skit written and directed by Mrs. Fred Nichol, "Happenings in a Pastor's Office—Past, Present and Future," was presented.

One hundred fifty friends were present to honor the Browns.

Engagement

Betrothed is Joan Lee McVey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. McVey of Lakeshore drive. Her engagement to James Palmer was announced recently to a group of close friends at Lewis and Clark college in Portland where Joan is completing her sophomore year.

Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor M. Palmer of this city and a graduate of Klamath Union high school. He is at present attending Oregon State college where he is affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity. Joan attended high school in Atlanta, Georgia, and Albany, Oregon, before enrolling at Lewis and Clark.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Sixth Grades

A supper party followed by games was enjoyed by the two sixth grades of Roosevelt school as classes closed for the year. The affair was potluck and given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart on LeRoy street. Assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Prock.

Arranging the affair were committee from both rooms and attending were Gail Rainhart, Ann Terson, Carol Anne Roman, Ann Henderson, Carol Jean Elliott, Beverly Lassett, Carolyn Boyd, Nancy Seales, Harriet Moody, Barbara Mahan, Alice Thorne, Shirley Davis, Annette Jacobs, Marilyn Brandt, Pat, Garvin, Eleanor Prock and Sara Stewart.

Roger Long, Roger Hagglund, Willard Robinson, Ross Tomlin, Don Hall, Don Wells, Jimmy Heavens, Jimmy Merrill, Lyle Shaffer, Greg Schulze, Norman Paup, O. W. Jones, Glenn Winkle, David I. Molator, David Maxwell, Brice Winkle, Jack Prock and Angus Stewart.

The Reserve Officers association auxiliary is entertaining for members of the association at a dinner dance tonight, Saturday, at the Willard hotel.

La Pointe's Fur Storage

Includes:

- Scientific moth control.
- Glazing of fur.
- Insurance against all risks.
- Storage on the premises.
- Standard rates.

Repairing Cleaning Restyling

Guest Speaker

Malcolm Epley, managing editor of The Herald and News, will be the guest speaker at the annual dinner and installation of officers of Eulalia chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to be held Monday evening, June 7, at 6:30 o'clock, at the Pelican party room. Mr. Epley will talk about matters of historical interest in the Klamath country.

Mrs. Syd Evans, Mrs. Roland E. Wright and Eva Burkhalter are in charge of arrangements for the dinner. Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore, chapter regent, will preside at the dinner, and Mrs. Charles J. Martin, past regent, will be the installing officer.

Officers-elect who will be installed at this meeting include Miss Burkhalter, regent; Mrs. Harry C. Dickerson, vice regent; Mrs. Lewis Hornby, secretary; Mrs. Warren C. Noggle, treasurer; Mrs. William Dawson Foster, registrar; Mrs. Roland E. Wright, historian; Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore, chaplain.

HANDSOME little lad is Paul Clayton Sharpe, nine-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sharpe of Bonanza. His proud grandmothers are Mrs. Daisy Phelps of Eugene and Mrs. Ida Sharpe of Portland, N. D.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Take The Family Out to Dinner!

Dine Well In Quiet Comfort at MOLATORE'S 1112 MAIN

La Pointe's

"blue moonday" is a happy day at

La Pointe's

BLUE MOON nylons . . .

America's Most Beautiful Stockings

Clear, sheer loveliness . . . nationally-advertised Blue Moon Nylons in subtle, fashion-perfect tones . . . to make each of your "Blue Moondays"

• joyous occasion • 54 Gauge 2.25

La Pointe's

Miss Swanik FIT to be seen in

Soft, smooth shimmering—Bur-Mil's satin, of nylon and rayon. Sluid fit—no bunching, no twisting, no riding up—assured by Miss Swanik's exclusive straight-plus-bias construction. Come, see these slips in this exciting new luxury fabric—they feel better, look better, wear better, wash better. In black, white and pearl at 7.95

La Pointe's