

Budget Total Unchanged In Hearing

A couple of items in the Klamath county budget for 1948-49 were juggled yesterday by the budget committee to allow the Linkville justice court a little money for a salary increase to the regular clerk and a fund for extra help, but no change was made in the $717,501.81 total to be raised by taxation.

The budget has now been approved by the budget committee and county court after yesterday's hearing and goes into effect July 1.

The budget item for the justice court clerk was raised from $2100 to $2220, a $120-a-month boost, and the provision for extra and vacation-time help from $150 to $500. Altogether, total of justice court estimated expenditures was raised $470. To offset those boosts, the budget item listing estimated justice court receipts was raised from $30,000 to $30,470, which Judge J. A. Mahoney said he was sure would be forthcoming.

The $470 increase was carried through to increase the current expense fund grand total of estimated expenditures and receipts.

There were no other changes in the budget document as published.

Honeymoon Trip Starts—At Last

LONG BEACH, Calif., June 10 (AP)—On a belated honeymoon of which they have dreamed for more than 13 years, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lewis, Salem, Ore., sailed for Hawaii Wednesday aboard their 52-foot ketch, Frieda.

The Lewises plan to be away about four months, making a leisurely tour of the various islands in the Hawaiian group. They are accompanied

Traffic To Be Restored

SALEM, June 10 (AP)—Pacific highway traffic across the Columbia river will be restored early Friday morning, State Highway Engineer R. H. Baldock said today.

Both routes were broken May 31 when the dikes under them were severed by flood waters.

Baldock said traffic on the Old Oregon Trail highway between Pendleton and Biggs will be restored tomorrow, but that detours on the route between Biggs and The Dalles still will be necessary because of water over the road.

Cold storage is an aid to insect control. Insects that damage dried fruits are dormant at 32 to 40 degrees F., according to USDA entomologists.

Flood Disaster Loans Planned

SPOKANE, June 10 (AP)—The Reconstruction Finance Corporation will make disaster loans to flood sufferers "in accordance with the ability of the borrower to repay," Orrin M. Green, manager of the Spokane branch, said today. Those unable to give security for loans will be considered "providing they have a good reputation for paying debts," Green said.

The loans will bear three per cent interest after the first four months. Green said temporary branches will be established at Bonners Ferry, Idaho, and Okanogan, Wash., to meet needs of flood sufferers in those areas.

Better coffee every time

with S&W

because—S&W's expert buyers select only the choicest, high-altitude beans—the world's finest and most expensive coffees.

and then—like vintage wines, S&W coffee beans are carefully aged before roasting—for fine, fragrant mellowness.

most important—S&W coffee is now roasted by an electronically-controlled process, which roasts each bean evenly from inside out—uniformly, perfectly. Every can you buy, every cup you make of S&W has the identical aroma, the same wonderful flavor.

S&W coffee is packed under extreme high vacuum, only in cans, to preserve full-bodied, roaster-freshness. Available in either drip or regular grind, as you prefer.

Yes!... Through special care in buying, aging, roasting, and packing, S&W brings you this superb coffee. Try it, we think you will agree it's better coffee, every time!

Grocers who know, agree: "S&W quality is so much better"

Try any one of the great S&W family of fine foods, and you too will agree with grocers all over the country who have seen us open and compare S&W products with any other brand on their shelves. They have judged S&W Quality best, every time.
