Wheat Stages Minor Gains

CHICAGO, June 9 (AP)—Mill buying gave wheat support on the board of trade today while corn was aided by small supplies of the cash grain in terminal markets. Oats tended to lag, selling fractionally lower most of the session.

Government flour buying overnight was estimated by the trade at between 500,000 and 1,000,000 hundredweights. In addition, domestic flour business was said to be showing some improvement. Mill support of wheat represented lifting of hedges against flour sales.

Wheat closed ¾-1⅛ higher, July $2.29¾-$2.30, corn was 1 to 2⅞ higher, July $2.19⅝-⅝, oats were ⅛-⅝ higher, July 94⅝-⅛, and July soybeans were 4 cents higher at $4.26.

Wheat—	Open	High	Low	Close
July	2.29½-⅝	2.30¼	2.28⅛	2.29⅞-2.30
Sept.	2.28½-⅝	2.28⅝	2.28⅝	2.29¼
Dec.	2.28⅝	2.29½	2.28¼	2.29⅝-¼

Selling Holds Market Down

NEW YORK, June 9 (AP) — The stock market advanced in high gear early today but ran into enough selling to keep most gains below a point.

Many issues ran up to new highs for the year or longer before backing down a trifle. The market generally, though, topped the 21-month peak reached yesterday for the second time this year.

Heavy buying poured into the exchange during the first hour but turnover soon slackened. Volume for the full session ran at the rate of around 2,000,000 shares.

Issues at highs for the year or longer at one time included U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, General Motors, Westinghouse Electric, Union Carbide, American Telephone and Columbia Gas.

Merritt-Chapman & Scott was a strong spot with a gain of around a point.

Early buying was mainly a hangover from late yesterday when prices moved ahead at top speed. The inevitable profit-taking sales soon slowed the advance.
