Scientist Services Planned

"God the Preserver of Man" will be the topic of the lesson-sermon at the regular morning divine worship at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10th and Washington, this Sunday.

The Golden text will be "The Lord bless thee and keep thee: the Lord make his face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace." (Num. 6:24-26).

Classes for all ages are offered in Sunday school which is held at the same hour as the church service, 11 a. m. Sunday school classes meet downstairs in the church.

A regular Wednesday evening meeting is held each week at 8 p. m., and a reading room maintained at 1023 Main.

Final Sermon Due Sunday

"Living Above Your Circumstances" will be the seventh and concluding message in a series of sermons based on the theme, "Victorious Living," presented by Rev. Victor A. Schulze, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church, 11th and High.

The morning worship service begins at 11 o'clock. At the close of the morning service a door collection will be taken for the relief of the people, particularly the members of the Lutheran congregation, the Lutheran pastor and family and parish worker who lost all of their belongings in the Vanport flood disaster.

Sunday school and Bible class meet at the regular time, 9:45 a. m.

Hutchins To Speak Sunday

"What God Hath Put Asunder, Let Not Man Join Together," will be the sermon message for Sunday morning at First Christian church by Pastor Howard F. Hutchins. Dean Stephens will sing the solo, "Just For Today" at the morning hour.

Bible school begins at 9:45 promptly, with classes for all ages. The church enters into a contest with churches of Southern Oregon for the summer months. Daily vacation Bible school will begin Monday, June 14, at 9 a. m. Parents are urged to see that the children come the first day. Arrangements for transportation for some children will be made.

Evening sessions for the summer will be at 7:45, Sundays. All are welcome to attend services.

Hargrove To Hold Services Sunday

Bible class at 10 a. m. Sunday will begin regular services for the day at the Church of Christ, 2205 Wantland. J. F. Hargrove will conduct the worship service at 11 a. m., and the evening service at 7:30.

A mid-week service is held Wednesday at 7:30. All are welcome.

Calvary Baptist Slates Bible School

Vacation Bible school will open Monday morning, June 14, at the Calvary Baptist church, East Main at Garden, at 9:30. Every boy and girl between the ages of 4 through 16 is welcome, regardless of faith or affiliation.

Classes will be provided for all age groups under capable leadership. Children will be discharged promptly at 12 noon. Free transportation will be provided upon request. For information call 8677.

The school is under the supervision of Mrs. Elaine Johnson. Assisting her are Mrs. Asa Forristall, Mrs. Cloy Knock, Mrs. Betty Rice, Mrs. A. R. Wiley, Mrs. Ona Basley, Mrs. Patsy Mastler, Mrs. Florence Holbrook, Mrs. Mary Kinney, Mrs. Ruby Reams, Mrs. Elsie Homer, Mrs. Letha Mae Smith, and the pastor, Perry M. Johnson.

Teachers To Give Service

The teaching staff of the daily vacation Bible school now in session at the Bible Baptist church, will present the evening program and service at the church on Sunday evening, 8 o'clock. The Bible school girls' choir, a group of 30 girls, will present special music for the evening. Lester Perry, a native of Bend and a recent resident of this city, will bring the evening message. Perry has just finished his second year at Powellhurst Bible Institute and will attend the Bible Institute of Los Angeles this fall. Perry's parents and family reside in Klamath Falls.

The Bible school has enjoyed an increased attendance each day, with 207 present on Wednesday and 217 registered. The school convenes at 8:55 each morning and is dismissed at 11:50 a. m. Children of the south suburban area are particularly invited to attend this school.

Pastor Keith P. Fields will continue the study of the Book of I John at the morning worship service. The choir will sing special music. The public is invited.

Bible School Class To End

The Daily Vacation Bible school conducted by the First Covenant church, goes into the second and last week beginning Monday. Attendance during the first week was very gratifying.

Classes are held daily from 9 to 11:30 a. m., with all children from 4 to 14 years invited to attend. The closing day for classes is on Friday, June 18, with the public program to be held on Sunday, June 20, at 7:45 p. m.

The worship service will be held at 11 a. m. Sunday, with Pastor Selmer Jacobson bringing a message on the subject "The Christian in Public." Sunday school convenes at 10 a. m., with classes for all ages. Sunday, at 8 p. m., the religious scientific film, "God of Creation" will be shown. There will be no admission charge. All are cordially invited to worship at the First Covenant church.

Mitchelmore Returns From Seattle Meet

Peace Memorial Presbyterian church, 4431 S. 6th, will have regular services this Sunday, with Pastor and Mrs. Hugh T. Mitchelmore having returned from the general assembly of the church held in Seattle, Wash.

The sermon will be given at 11 a. m. with the chorus choir leading the music under direction of Mrs. Mitchelmore, director and organist.

Vacation Bible school of Peace Memorial is in session and will continue through the coming week. New pupils will be welcome. Classes are provided for age groups from 4 to 14 years.

Department leaders are Mrs. Thelma Janssen, Mrs. Lloyd Seeley, Mrs. Dorothy Walker, Mrs. L. L. Parker and Mrs. C. P. Peyton with A. C. Olson, superintendent.

Mary Lou Bates is music leader and the pastor, advisor. The school will close with a picnic at Moore park Friday, June 18. Children's Day demonstrations will be held June 20, and fathers will be honored that same day. Father's Day.

Peebler To Give Service

In observing the regular morning worship for the third Sunday after Trinity, Klamath Lutheran church services will be conducted by J. R. Peebler and L. E. Taylor. Peebler will read the sermon, written by F. Hammarsten, entitled, "To My Father."

The senior choir, under the direction of Erling Melby, will sing the anthem, "Thanks Be to God," by Stanley Dickinson. Mrs. Arthur Denison will be at the organ.

The Klamath Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet Tuesday evening at 8 in the church parlors. Hostesses will be Mrs. Arthur Oberg and Mrs. Philip Gustafson.

The church Boy Scout troop, No. 43, is anticipating a camping trip to Crescent lake in late July. To finance the trip, the boys are eager to get odd jobs. Erling Melby, troop committee chairman, is acting as a clearing agent, and anyone having odd jobs may call Melby at telephone 2-0334, and the boys will be assigned to do the work.

First Presbyterian To Open Bible School Monday

Daily Vacation Bible school begins at the First Presbyterian church at 9 a. m. Monday and children of all ages are welcome. The beginners department, made up of pre-school children, will study "How Bible Children Lived." The primary department will have "Bible Boats" as their course of study. The junior department will compare "Bible Homes and Homes Today." The intermediate department will choose its subject and will also be given the experience of being helpers throughout the school.

There will be a prize to the child who brings the most new pupils who attend regularly throughout the session. There is no charge for the school, but a daily offering will be taken to defray expenses. Sunday evening, June 27, at 8 o'clock, school will officially end with closing exercises and children's day program. The afternoon of Saturday, June 26, a picnic will be held for the whole school.

The Sunday service at the First Presbyterian church will be conducted by Rev. George M. Shuman, from Ashland. His sermon topic will be "The Church in Action." Mrs. Earl Sheridan will sing a contralto solo. There will be no Westminster fellowship or Junior Church club this week.

The Women's association will hold a picnic Thursday at 1 p. m. at Pine Grove at the home of Mrs. A. M. Collier. The picnic lunch will be potluck and is for all circle members, association members, and all women members of the church. Mrs. James Pinniger will be in charge of devotions and Mrs. J. C. Millers will direct the program about "Our Own Presbyterian Missionaries." Thursday evening at 8 o'clock the Mariners club will meet.

Evangelistic Meetings To Be Continued

Evangelistic meetings at the Tulelake Christian church will enter the second week this Sunday. Evangelist Clyde Freeman will be speaker for the week. Sessions are held each night except Saturday, starting promptly at 8 o'clock. Pastor Howard F. Hutchins of the Klamath Falls church, has been assisting, and a number of folks from the Klamath church have been visiting nightly.

The present building at Tulelake is all paid for and no solicitation of funds from the people of Tulelake has been made or will be made. Any gifts made will be through the good will and generosity of persons themselves, not through solicitation.

Everyone is cordially invited to inspect the new church. The regular pastor, Ted Hurlburt of San Jose, Calif., with his bride of a few weeks, is expected to be in Tulelake the first week in July. A reception will be given for them at that time.

VISITING

Visiting here while on a tour of the West Coast are Mr. and Mrs. B. A. McCreary, Norfolk, Neb., who are looking for a business location. Mr. and Mrs. McCreary made their first trip West two years ago. Pleased with business conditions and climate they plan to make their home west of the Rockies. They are aunt and uncle of Mrs. Helen Rowell, Mrs. Hope Larson and Mrs. A. J. King. They have been guests also of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Jester, Ashland, former Klamath Falls residents.

James Pinniger will be in charge of devotions and Mrs. J. C. Millers will direct the program about "Our Own Presbyterian Missionaries." Thursday evening at 8 o'clock the Mariners club will meet.

STARCH + DRAX

For faultless finish for blouses, dresses, shirts and aprons... just add Johnson's Drax to starch solution. It's a perfect combination—starch and DRAX. The starch makes garments crisp... Johnson's DRAX keeps them from creasing and cracking—prevents that scrappy, board-like feel.

You see, DRAX coats each fabric thread with tiny particles of wax. The result? DRAX-treated clothes resist dirt and soil, stay clean longer, are easier to wash. By actual test, they're 20% easier to iron. To use DRAX: pour a little in your starch solution. Try Johnson's DRAX today!
