

Manhunt On For Slayers Of Union Man

NEW YORK, June 22 (AP)—A nation-wide manhunt was on today for the accused killers of Garment Union Organizer William Lurye.

Authorities describe the fugitives as "strong-arm men" with no known occupation.

A 48-state alarm for their arrest was broadcast yesterday shortly after they were indicted on first-degree murder charges.

The two named are John Giusto, 31-year-old paroled convict, and Benedicte Macri, 36, both of New York City.

Their indictment climaxed one of the most intensive homicide investigations in recent city police annals.

More than 100 crack detectives sifted clues, questioned hundreds of persons and combed the city's teeming garment district day and night for six weeks.

Lurye, special organizer for the AFL International Ladies Garment Workers union, was stabbed to death May 9 in a telephone booth in the lobby of a garment district building.

The union, thousands of whose members turned out to demonstrate at Lurye's funeral, offered a $25,000 reward for capture of the slayers.

It linked them to "non-union sweat shop employers."

SP Leaves Cost Up To Salem

SALEM, June 22 (AP)—Southern Pacific railroad officials won't pay any part of the cost of moving their railroad tracks in Salem.

They told members of the Salem planning commission last night that if any changes are made, the city or state would have to pay.

The commission wants the company's main line either put in a tunnel or in a ditch. The tracks now cut the city in two.

Youth Injured In Accident

A Klamath Falls teen-ager, Stanley Stevenson, is in Hillside hospital with a fractured left leg, sustained when he collided with an automobile as he rode his bicycle down the Old Fort road Tuesday afternoon.

Driver of the automobile was Gerald Leslie Hyde, 37, of 3420 Pershing way, who was traveling up the Old Fort road.

Investigating state police said that 17-year-old Stevenson, on the left side of the road, veered to the right, and at the same time, Hyde cut to the left, causing the collision. Stevenson was knocked to the pavement, and was brought to Hillside by Kaler's ambulance.

Hyde, an instructor at Oregon Tech, was cited by state police for having no operator's license.

DIES

SALEM, June 22 (AP)—Winfield C. Clarke, 43, manager of the Salem office of the state liquor commission, dropped dead last night.

He collapsed while going home from work, and died in a hospital four hours later.

He leaves his mother, Mrs. Winifred Rigdon Herrick.

Grass Fire Does Little Damage

City firemen responded to a call to 621 Lowell today and extinguished a small grass fire before damage was done to surrounding property.

The department got the call at 9:15 a.m.
