

MAKING THEIR HOME in this city are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder. The bride before her marriage was Ruth Sears, daughter of Mrs. S. E. Sears of Norwood, Mo. The double ring ceremony was held in the First Methodist church.

First Methodist Scene Of Rites

Ruth Sears walked down the aisle of the First Methodist church Sunday afternoon, May 29, to become the bride of Charles Snyder of Klamath Falls. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Martindale Woods before a flower-decked altar.

The bride, given in marriage by J. H. Eckert, wore a Dacha suit with blue accessories. Pinned at the shoulder was a single orchid. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. J. H. Eckert, who wore an aqua suit with brown and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Ted Snyder of Seattle, Wash., and brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Don Eckert and Joe Zarostinski, nephews of the bride.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Hugh Hawthorne sang "Because" and "Through the Years," accompanied by Robert Stevens at the organ. The traditional wedding march was played as the bride came down the aisle.

Mrs. F. W. Snyder, mother of the groom, wore a gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bride's mother, Mrs. S. E. Sears, of Norwood, Mo., was unable to be present.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. The table was covered with a white linen cloth, and centering it was a three-tiered, decorated wedding cake. Mrs. Ralph Benoit, Mrs. Robert People and Mrs. F. O. Reynolds served, assisted by Grace Bourquin and Virginia Bailey.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Snyder and family of Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. James Ottoman and family of Malin; Marjorie Eagle of Merrill and Mrs. Darrell King and family of Merrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder left on a wedding trip to the coast soon after the reception. They are at home in this city.
