Horse Meat Sales Lead To Arrests

PORTLAND, June 23 (AP)—Operators of seven restaurants and one retail market were accused here today of selling horse meat as hamburger.

The charges resulted from yesterday's raid on the Salem meat company in which police seized a thousand pounds of horse meat in crates labeled "turkeys." They arrested three men who were unloading the crates from trucks.

Dr. Thomas L. Meador, city health officer, who led the raid along with City Commissioner Fred L. Peterson, said the raid was a climax to months of investigation of reports that horse meat was being sold as hamburger.

The three arrested were Ernest Marsh Crystal, 42, part owner of the meat company; Stanley Manuel Rickard, 35, Hillsboro butcher, and Matt M. Slaughter, 57, butcher employed by Crystal. Crystal and Rickard were charged with sale of unlabeled horse meat. Slaughter was booked as a material witness.

Later the restaurant operators, accused of buying the horse meat from the Salem Meat company, were picked up. All were small, little-known restaurants.

Charged with serving unlabeled horse meat were Leslie S. Gedrose, Freighters cafe; Lee and Lena Sharp, Keg cafe; V. D. Boule, Virg's cafe; Hazel Newhill, Haze's cafe; K. C. Conley, Bob's Coney Island; E. J. and R. E. Pappenhelm, Wiggle Inn, and A. L. and B. I. Piccard. All were released on $100 bond.

L. L. Lee and H. F. Fong, Baseline Super market, also were charged with selling unlabeled horse meat. They were released on $250 bond.

Air Force May Buy Boeing Stratocruisers

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—A government economist told a Senate banking subcommittee today the air force is willing to buy ten new-type 61-passenger planes (Stratocruisers) from the Boeing Manufacturing Co. if Northwest Airlines cannot do it.

This testimony was given by Richard Heilman, a federal power commission analyst from the reconstruction finance corporation "borrowed" to work on an airlines study which RFC gave President Truman earlier this year.

Senator Capehart (R-Ind.) asked what will happen to ten of the big new planes which Boeing made for Northwest and has ready for delivery, if Northwest is unable to pay for them.

Northwest's ability, Heilman said, depends upon its getting a $12,000,000 loan from the RFC to cover two-thirds of the $18,000,000 contract price of the planes. The civil aeronautics board has approved the loan project, but RFC has agreed to hold off any action while this committee hearing is going on.

Crime Comic Ban Draws Veto

SACRAMENTO, Calif., June 23 (AP)—A proposed statewide ban on crime comic books was defeated today by the state judiciary committee.

The committee voted 6 to 1 against sending an assembly-approved measure, by Assemblyman Willard M. Huey, Los Angeles, to the senate floor.

The bill would have outlawed the sale to minors of comic books which emphasize murder, arson, mayhem, rape and other sordid crimes.

ENTERPRISE, Ore., June 23 (AP)—Wallowa county's wheat crop was heavily damaged by frost last Friday, County Agent Garney Best said today after a survey.

In some areas damage ran 10 to 30 per cent of the expected yield and the over-all damage in the county may reach 5 per cent, he said. The county's total wheat crop is valued at about $1,200,000, Best said.

He said other crops were in good condition, aided by a rain Tuesday night.

Former H & N Official Visits

Charles H. Coffey, Gonzales, Calif., publisher who was once a Klamath Falls newspaper man, was a visitor here today.

Coffey was floor superintendent for the Klamath Herald when it was owned by W. O. Smith and occupied quarters on Fourth street between Klamath and Main. That was from 1913 to 1916. He left here to join his father in the publishing business at Gonzales.

The old-time Klamathite looked over the shop of The Herald and News today and remarked that it was a considerable change from the old Fourth street plant. When he was working in Klamath, the old Northwestern was published in the building now occupied by The Herald and News.

Wheat Control Answer Held

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Brannan disclosed today that he will make no decision before July 6 on whether rigid production controls will be proposed for the 1950 wheat crop.

The secretary issued a formal notice that he has the matter under consideration. He gave interested persons until the close of business July 5 to submit their views. Hence no decision could be announced before the following day. It probably will come later than that.

Acheson Lashes At Czech Campaign

WASHINGTON, June 23 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson declared today that communist-run Czechoslovakia is waging a campaign against religious freedom which violates "the democratic civilization."

The secretary made a sharply worded attack on recent Czech government measures against religious organizations in a statement he read at his news conference.

He charged that restrictions imposed by the communist regime are "an attempt to subject religious organizations to the rule of an intolerant police state." The campaign, he said, follows the pattern of those already carried out in Hungary, Bulgaria and other eastern European communist states.
