Deschutes Area Best In Angling Prospect

PORTLAND, June 24 (AP)—Fishermen looking for the best luck will try the Deschutes area this weekend, but some pretty fair angling may be expected in a few other areas, too.

That is the report of the state game commission. In detail: Deschutes Area: Prospects for week-end excellent. East, Paulina, South Twin, North Twin, and Elk lakes and Crane Prairie and Wickiup reservoirs producing limit catches. Deschutes, Crooked and Little Deschutes rivers in good condition for fly fishing. Good catches reported from Fall river. Metolius river in excellent condition. Fly fishing should be fair.

Easter Called

SAN DIEGO, Calif., June 24 (AP)—Big Luke Easter, San Diego Padre Negro first baseman who has been sidelined by an old knee injury, left today for Cleveland, where he will undergo further examination.

The decision to send Easter, leading Padre hitter with a .363 average, was reached last night in a conference among Padre Manager Ducky Harris, Padre President Bill Starr and Cleveland Vice President Hank Greenberg.

Dr. Edward Castle, Cleveland physician, will examine Easter's knee and if he believes an operation necessary, Easter will undergo surgery immediately. If he decides playing won't set back Easter, the big first baseman no doubt will join the Padres next week.

"Cleveland has every intention of buying Easter from us at the end of this season and the Indians are anxious to know what is what on his knee," Starr said.

Greenberg, who watched San Diego beat Hollywood, 8, to 2, last night, came here to confer with Padre officials. The San Diego club is affiliated with the Indians.

BEARS HAVE BOAT TO BEAT

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 24 (AP)—California's Golden Bears, proud Olympic champions, are raised the "crew to beat" tomorrow for varsity honors in the annual regatta on the Hudson.

Three other crews are figured capable of giving the Bears a fight to the finish in this 47th renewal of the Intercollegiate Rowing association championship. They are Washington, the defending champion; Princeton and Wisconsin.

Grouped in a middle category—possible but not probable winners—are Stanford, University of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Navy and Cornell.

The other entries—Columbia, Rutgers and Syracuse—are considered in the race just for the ride.

But a clear standout are the Bears from California, winners of nine straight varsity titles over a two-year span.

Ky Ehrlich, California coach, has been mildly optimistic since arrival here. The Bears hold wins over both Washington and Wisconsin, boatloads considered among the top entries.

The eight was second to Washington in last year's Poughkeepsie race but went on to cap the Olympic triumph in England.

According to available times for three-mile trials here, California has been 20 seconds faster than Washington.

Wisconsin, beaten by only eight feet in a dual race with Washington last Friday, should be a power in the race. Norman Sonja's Badgers are racy and smooth and have shown steady improvement through the season. They are considered to be at a peak now.

Carrying the hope of the east are the Princeton rowers of DeLois Schoch. The Princeton varsity has beaten every eight in the east, with the exception of mighty Harvard, during the season. The Tigers hold victories in the Childs cup and Carnegie cup regattas this spring.

The Washington junior varsity crew is one of the standouts in the regatta event while the UW frosh are a solid favorite. So a sweep of the river by Ulbricks-coached eights is not at all impossible.

Washington did it last year for the third time in the history of the race.

There will be 30 crews in the three races, 12 in the varsity, nine in the junior varsity and nine in the freshman race. The frosh event will start at 3 p. m. eastern standard time; and the other races will follow at 45-minute intervals.

The 30 crews represent a record for the regatta, breaking the mark of 29 set last year.

Possession Draws Fine

Possession of two quarts of whisky and a case of beer cost four Chiloquin Indians a total of $120 in fines Thursday.

Orville Elliott Wright, 35, Calvin Lionel Chippis, 29, Enos Ivan Herkshan, 26, and Ruth May McKenzie, 26, all doled out $30 on the charge.

Chippis and Herkshan forfeited $30 bail Thursday morning. Wright and the Indian woman were fined by Justice of the Peace Joe Mahoney.

Chippis was also fined $5.50 for having no operator's license. The quartet was nabbed on highway 97 at the foot of the Algoma hill at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday.

CONVICTED

SEATTLE, June 24 (AP)—The bitterly argued retrial of Mrs. Florence Jean James ended last night in her conviction on a charge of refusing to tell a state legislative committee or un-American activities whether she was or ever had been a communist party member. She is co-director of the Seattle Repertory Playhouse with her husband, Burton James.
