

Roundup Days

July 2-3-4

Rough and Tumble Western Show Comes Next Week

Yes, it'll be roundup days in Klamath Falls next weekend, and here are pictures giving some idea of what the thousands of fans can expect in the arena in the Klamath fairgrounds during the three-day show.

1. Roy Rogers "liberty team," a major entertainment item.
2. The big parade, two years ago.
3. A bucking bronc drops a rider, a view from a former Klamath show.
4. The Harvester, famed horse owned by Jim Fagan, prominent horse breeder from down Hollywood way. Harvester will perform at the Klamath show.
5. Bud Bentley will announce the arena events here.

6. Steer roping at last year's show, always an exciting event.

7. Trigger Jr., horse star of the Rogers entertainment feature.

8. The opening pageantry gives Klamath's roundups a colorful start.

9. Reno Browne, movie starlet, will perform in the Klamath arena with her magnificent horse.

10. Cowhorse race scene from last year's roundup.

11. Git along, little dogie. Roundup stock is ready for the three big days.
