

Winifred Lamm Is Mid-June Bride

Walt who was ring bearer, along with Michael Rugg. The two little girls, each of whom wore a flower headband in her hair, are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Watt of Redding, and Michael is the son of Mrs. Earle Rugg of Pasadena. The two ring bearers carried wedding rings on ruffled, heart-shaped, white satin pillows.

Mrs. Lamm chose a gown of pearl gray crepe de chine, trimmed with lace and complimented with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Eugene G. Favell of Lakeview, was attired in blue georgette, trimmed in lace, and with a flower-trimmed hat. Each wore an orchid corsage.

Best man was William Combs, cousin of the bridegroom, of Lakeview, and ushers were George Oviedo of San Francisco, Rodney Harlan, Bruce Harlan, James Howard, Robert Wiley and Marshall Ayers, all of Lakeview.

The newlyweds cut the traditional first slice of a beautiful wedding cake at the reception which followed the nuptial service. Serving the confection and presiding at the punch bowls and coffee urns were Mrs. Fred Schallack, Mrs. Twyla Ferguson, Mrs. Rose M. Poole, Mrs. Ralph R. Macartney and Mrs. Stephen Sabo.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Favell wore a pearl gray suit with royal blue accessories, and an orchid pinned at the lapel.

After a stay in the Yosemite valley in California, the newlyweds will return to Oregon to make their home for the summer in Lakeview.

In addition to those in the wedding party, the following were present from out of town for the wedding and reception: Mrs. George Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Grant, Admiral and Mrs. Rolland Redman, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brennan and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cain, all of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Jorgen C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bristow Hood and Robert Hood of Redding.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Watt of Carmel; Mr. and Mrs. William Haley and son, Bill, of Hess; Miss Edith Lamm, Winifred's aunt, of Santa Monica; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fisher and Elliott Fisher of Santa Barbara; Mrs. Ess Ehlers, Mr. and Mrs. James Kerr of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Love of Berkeley, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Dillman of Portland; Mrs. Marie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene O'Connell of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connell of Long Beach; Robert Ehlers of Corvallis; Mrs. Jay Clemmons; Mrs. Dean Duck and Mr. and Mrs. William Shipbaugh, all of Reno, Nevada; Mrs. Conrad Kaiser and niece of Tucson, Arizona; Mrs. Alex Thomas of Ukiah, and Charles Jones of Lovelock, Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. Glen C. Bagley, Nevada City, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hewitt, John Hewitt of Tacoma, Washington; Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Kelly of Reno; Mabel McCall of Oxnard, California; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Peyton of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Patterson of Berkeley, California, and Mrs. William Bernard of Lakeview, grandmother of the bridegroom.

MARRIED AT HOME were Vera Loree Brown and William (Tim) Hess. The young couple left for a trip to the coast immediately following the ceremony. On their return they will live in Sprague River.

Lutheran Chorus Concert Soon

The Concordia Seminary Lutheran chorus of St. Louis, Mo., will appear in a concert of sacred music at the Fremont school auditorium Saturday, June 25. The concert will begin at 8 p. m.

This internationally known chorus, which is heard every Sunday morning over the Lutheran hour, is visiting this city on its six weeks' tour of the west coast. The concert in Klamath Falls is one of 50 concerts scheduled for the chorus this summer. There will be no admission charge, and the public is cordially invited to attend. The Zion Lutheran church is sponsoring the concert.

Surprise Party

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Palmerston were the guests of honor at a surprise party given on their 25th wedding anniversary. The party was given for them by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gilbert at their home on Pacific Terrace.

At the dinner party the Palmerstons were presented with a silver well and tree plate by the guests. Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. L. Ernest Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schulze, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schoenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Steinsaefer, Mr. and Mrs. James Gilfehan, guests of the hostess from Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Snell and Mr. and Mrs. Palmerston, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson were unable to attend.

Vacation Fever Hits Residents

Only one more week until the Fourth of July festivities will begin, and it looks as if the summer calendar will be a full one.

Understand that Mrs. Stephen Sabo had a very pretty luncheon for her sister at the Pelican party room this week. The luncheon was held for 20 friends of Mrs. J. M. Bedford. Mrs. Bedford was at one time a resident of Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Bedford have been touring the west and stopped to spend a few days with the Sabos. Mrs. John Portola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bedford, is also visiting.

Summer vacations have been taking several Klamath couples north-bound to Canada. Virginia and Mel Miller recently returned from Lake Louise, and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lorenz took a quick trip to Vancouver.

Mrs. Helen Mueller returned recently from a trip to Los Angeles which she took with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Walters and Mrs. Robert Kent. The three were visiting with Mrs. Mueller's cousins.

Several of the college boys will be gone for the summer on the air force training program at Lowry field in Denver. Among the would-be flyers are Chuck Thurman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurman of 2347 Hilyard, and Bob Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Thompson of Pacific Terrace.

Both boys will return to Oregon State college next fall to complete their senior year.

Scott Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed, who has been attending Princeton university, is also among those indulging in army life for six weeks. Scott is stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Congratulations to Margie Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Clark, on the completion of her dietetic internship at Saint Mary's hospital in Rochester, Minnesota. Margie is a graduate of Stephens college and Oregon State college.

The Herald staff has bid our city editor, Lois Stewart, a summer farewell. Lois and the two young ones have taken to the lake to the woods for the vacation, but we're hoping to have bits of news from her even from the woods.

Mrs. Edmund Fey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carter, has just returned to San Mateo, California, after a 10-day visit with her parents. Charlotte made the trip in order to attend Jim Carter's high school graduation.

Perhaps some of the many visitors to Europe this year will send some picture postcards to tell us of their journeys. Can't help feeling wistful! Another European-bound traveler is Twyla Ferguson. She left Monday for New York and Washington, D. C. From there she plans to fly to mur. Her name is Alana Maria. The Roseans have another child, a boy, 14-month-old Alan Bruce.

Margaret Bullard is another Klamath youngster who has been extremely active in college. Marg has been attending Reed college where she has become interested in the young republican group there.

During the past year she has been heading the young republicans there and this summer she is acting as secretary for the young republican state committee. At the present time she is attending the national convention at Salt Lake City.

Dancing Party

One of the recent parties of the younger set was that given by Caroline Riley and David Cummings. The two entertained with a dancing party at Caroline's home immediately following the Junior high graduating ceremonies.

The rooms were decorated with the school colors, blue and gold. Refreshments were served during the evening. Assisting the parents of the two, Mr. and Mrs. James Riley and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummings, were Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Riley, Caroline's grandparents.

Guests at the affair were Loraine Rolph, Shirley Keese, Marlene Coe, Denise Kenyon, Juan Juarez, Carol Michels, Diane Olden, Jean Adams, Gertrude Bramlett, Marlene Howard, Ruby Gehring, Paule Lehto, Phyllis Elliot, Alice Cleary, Julie Harnden, Jans Langlet, Janice Larson, Darlene Woods and Andrea Hatley.
