The Stanley Mastens returned the early part of the month from Portland where they visited with the Forrest Lowes (Mona Mastens) and got acquainted with their new granddaughter, Janet Louise. The little girl was born on Mother's Day and is the Lowes' second child and first girl. Virginia Mastens is home for the summer months, and Shirley will spend her summer in Portland with her sister, Mrs. John Ward. Shirley and Virginia are both Oregon State students.

Chiloquin

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Jones were transferred last week by the state park service to Cascadia. Jones was sent here over a year ago as a supervisor of Collier park and has overseen its first year of operation. The Jones made their home in Chiloquin as no living quarters were available at the park site until the first part of this month.

Former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Rosa Handbury and family, have returned to make their home in Chiloquin. They have been here since school was out.

Mrs. Robert Lee Greer went to Medford on Saturday with her houseguest, Joan Fall, who had visited here from the Rogue river valley town for the two previous weeks. Margaret will be in the valley for a week.

Bonnie Gienger returned on Friday night from her second year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Gienger and daughter, Norma Lee, arrived in Chiloquin on Saturday night after driving west from Chicago and Evanston, Ill., where Norma Lee was graduated from Northwestern university last Monday. They followed U. S. No. 2, a northern route to Glacier National park and then cut south, driving some 700 miles during the last day of travel. They brought with them a house guest, Mimi Breesman, a college friend of Norma Lee's from Illinois.

Rev. L. J. Buck, who had been attending the Methodist ministers' conference in Ashland during the past week, arrived in Chiloquin on Saturday to spend a day with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Fred. Mrs. Buck has been here during the past week but returned to Clatskanie with her husband.

The sympathy of the entire community has been extended during the past week to the Leonard Norris family, whose eldest daughter, Carmelita Garcia, 18, has been stricken with polio. "Carmie" became ill last Wednesday, was taken to a Klamath Falls hospital on Thursday for tests and moved to the county isolation hospital on Saturday when the nature of her illness was proven.

Twyla Hansen of Klamath Falls was a house guest of Caroline Grimes, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Grimes, during the early part of this week.

Mrs. Robert Lily (Betty Robertson) of Riddle was a Chiloquin visitor on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week and was a house guest of the Leroy Gienger family. Mrs. Lily attended the local grade and high schools and moved shortly afterwards to Ashland. She had her 10-month-old son, Michael, with her. Mrs. Lily drove to Chiloquin in company with Mrs. O. E. Stone and her daughter, Mrs. Mel Long, and granddaughter, Marjane, from Prospect, where the Stones and Longs live. Mrs. Lily had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. "Johnny" Robertson in Prospect.

The swimming program for children in the local community will begin next week, with sufficient registration to warrant sending two bus loads each week. The first children who registered will go on Mondays, meeting at 11:30 a. m. at Copeland yards. They should have had their lunch already and will reach OTI in time to begin classes at 1:20 p. m. The OTI schedule is a three-hour one, so the bus will be ready to return to Chiloquin by 4:30 p. m. Those who have registered later will follow the same schedule but will make the trip on Thursdays rather than on Mondays. Mrs. Earl Hall is the local chairman of the swim program if there are questions parents care to ask.

Shirley Ann was the name chosen by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Martin for their baby girl, born June 15 at Klamath Valley hospital. Shirley Ann has a 16-month-old brother, Johnny.

Junior Aids In Breaking Up "Shakedown" At School

DONALD AND DETECTIVES: At first the toughs looked bigger.

By NEA SERVICE
CLEVELAND, O., June 26 (NEA)—When you're just an eight-year-old boy and a couple of toughs in your class at school demand protection money, it scares you a little.

From the movies, you know this is a "shakedown." Only this isn't like the movies at all. This is the sort of thing that supposedly happens only to grown-ups, and you don't know how to handle it.

You don't like to tell your dad that these kids are bigger, stronger than you. You don't want to give away that nickel a day. You don't want to get beat up for not paying it.

So you stay away from school. That's how it was with Donald Philbrick, a student in the third grade at St. Clair school, Cleveland.

But things look a lot brighter now. That's because Donald is helping police break up a juvenile "shakedown" racket at his school, a situa-

Divorce Law Change Asked By City Club

PORTLAND, June 27 (AP)—Study of a change in divorce laws—and more family counseling for marital-entangled people—was recommended by the City club here.

The club adopted a recommendation of its research committee, over bitter protests from several members who contended that divorce laws were being violated.

The club voted down a motion by the Rev. Walter J. Knutson, Lutheran minister, who had proposed that the committee reconsider its report and "go back to the laws of God."

The long recommendation included such suggestions as:

1. Waiting period of 30 days between the filing of a declaration of divorce and actual filing of a complaint.
2. Establishment of a family counseling service in Multnomah county as an arm of the divorce court.
3. A proposal that the club study a "family court" which would handle marital problems. It was this proposal, which indirectly mentioned such things as birth control, that gave rise to the religious argument.
