Selling Carries Grains Down

CHICAGO, June 28 (AP)—A wave of selling hit the grain pits toward the close today, and carried prices below yesterday's finish.

Wheat, which had advanced around a cent on reports of rain and wind in the Southwest showed the sharpest decline, and carried other grains lower.

While traders were watching action in Washington, the weather was the controlling factor the greater part of the session. Weakness in stocks contributed to the late selling.

At the finish wheat was ⅝ to 1¼ lower than yesterday's close, July $1.95¼-1.95; corn was ⅛ higher to 1⅛ lower, July $1.33⅞-⅝. Oats were unchanged to ⅝ lower, July 58⅝. Rye was ¼ to ⅝ lower, July $1.39⅛. Soybeans were ⅝ to 1¼ lower, July $2.32⅝-2.22. Lard was 15 to 30 cents a hundredweight lower, July $10.75.

Stocks Suffer Sharp Drops

NEW YORK, June 28 (AP)—The stock market dropped fractions to around two points today before finding a bottom.

Steel, rail, and television and radio stocks were among the weakest but other groups were also well represented in the minus column.

The price slide was accompanied by only a modest pick-up in business. Turnover amounted to around 800,000 shares for the full session, which would compare with 670,000 yesterday.

The market pointed downward at the start and followed in that direction until past mid-day before leveling off. A timid effort at a comeback met with only scant success.

Failure of an early rise yesterday to follow through was mentioned as a discouraging factor.

Losers included U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, Philco, Santa Fe, Great Northern preferred, Standard Oil (N.J.), United Air Lines, American Telephone, American Can, Westinghouse Electric, Radio Corp., Boeing, Montgomery Ward, U. S. Rubber, General Motors, and Studebaker.
