

Tabernacle Scene Of Ceremony

The Sprague River tabernacle was the scene of a wedding ceremony Sunday, June 5, when Betty Lucille Weigant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weigant of Dinuba, California, became the bride of Robert J. Claus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mario Carrini of Sprague River.

Rev. Pearl Clement officiated at the double ring rites which were held before a lattice work bower, decorated with shrubs, pink gladiolus and white stock. Traditional wedding music was played, and Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Grimes of Chiloquin sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white satin with long sleeves and a sweet heart neckline. Her fingertip illusion net veil was held by a tiara of orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls. She carried a single white orchid.

Mrs. Oswald Pisani, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She was attired in a gown of aqua blue taffeta and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations. The best man was Robert Carrini, brother of the groom, Vincent Bonner.

MR. AND MRS. CARL PUM-ELHART announced the engagement of their daughter, Charlene La Voy, to Coyle Schnortz of Hibbing, Minnesota, recently. The wedding will be held in the Presbyterian church July 2, at Hibbing. Charlene will be attended by her sister, Charlotte McDowell.

Jr. and Maurice Chandler were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Weigant chose a two-piece dress of rose crepe with navy blue accessories. She had a pink carnation corsage at her shoulder. The groom's mother wore an afternoon dress of black and white with white accessories. She also wore a pink corsage.

Immediately after the wedding, a dinner was served at the Sprague River school cafeteria by the groom's mother and his aunts, Mrs. Anna Boltano and Mrs. Nora Bottler. The three-tiered wedding cake was placed on the bride's table, which was covered with a white silk hand embroidered cloth.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Olive Black, grandmother of the bride from Santa Cruz, California; Darrol Weigant, brother of the bride from Corpus Christi, Texas; Mrs. Marie Ferini from Portland, the groom's grandmother; and Mrs. Oswald Pisani and Claudia, Mrs. A. Pisani, and Mr. and Mrs. Italo Ferroni of Portland.

Mrs. A. Bocchi, Mr. and Mrs. James Grimes and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. John Refetto, Sr. of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Short, Mrs. James Short and daughter of Madocwi, Calif., and Mrs. Foszy Parrish of Napa, Calif.
