

Reception

One of the most delightful affairs held recently at the First Methodist church in Klamath Falls was the reception for the Rev. Martindale Woods and his family, who has been reappointed for his second year of ministry here.

The second objective of the occasion was a farewell for Murden Woods, their daughter, who left last Sunday for Hartford, Conn., for a six weeks' course before sailing to India as a missionary.

Miss Woods was presented with luggage, dishes, Sunday school supplies, clothing and money by various departments and organizations of the church.

The centerpiece on the party table was a ship made up of blue and white cornflowers, with the smoke from the stack reading "Good-bye and goodluck." This elaborate design was made by Lois Thompson.

Mrs. Sheridan sang two numbers, and Mrs. Redman and Mrs. Smith played a two-piano duet. Wayne Angel played two numbers on his violin with Mrs. W. B. Smith at the piano. Connie Hunt sang two numbers. One of them was the theme song of the affair, "Far Away Places."

The party was sponsored by the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service. General chairman was Mrs. Earl Redman. She was assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Phelps, Mrs. Martindale Woods and Mrs. Mark Taylor.

MURDEN WOODS was feted at a farewell party given by the Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service recently. Miss Woods left Sunday for India as a missionary. She will remain there for three years.

Church Meeting

The general meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church opened with the study class at 10:20 a. m. Miriam Smyth led the final lesson.

The noon lunch was followed by a meeting of the executive board with Mrs. Mark Taylor, the new president, presiding. It was decided to hold no general meeting in July and August, although the circles will meet as usual.

Mrs. John Yaden led the prayer circle and Miriam Smyth led the devotion, based upon echoes of the conference. The program for the afternoon also consisted of conference reports given by Mrs. Walter Herndon, Mrs. L. K. Phelps, Mrs. Mark Taylor and Mrs. Eldred Putnam.

Tea was served following the program by Deborah circle. Bette Lewis and Gertrude Baber poured.

Dancing

MERRILL — A group of young people from Merrill and Tulelake gathered at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Shuck on June 17, for a party honoring a house guest of the Shuck's, Charlotte Cutshall of Corvallis.

An evening of dancing was enjoyed, followed by refreshments. Miss Cutshall was here for two weeks, and has now returned to her home.

Tap Dancers

On Thursday evening, June 9, the auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen met in the KC hall. Patricia Henry presided. Preceding the business session the two Klous sisters, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Klous, gave two tap dances.

It was announced that the rummage sale would be postponed, however, beginning with the next meeting there will be a circulating white elephant sale. The proceeds will go to the treasury. Refreshments were served by Edrie Caldwell. A picnic is planned for July. More plans will be announced later.

Birthday Meet

The Royal Neighbors of America served a potluck dinner to 49 members and friends Friday night in the KC hall, honoring members whose birthdays occurred in April, May and June. Karen Lancaster received the birthday gift.

A regular meeting followed the dinner. Mrs. North, who has been ill, was reported much improved. Deborah Leonard was balloted favorably for transfer membership. It was decided that a joint meeting will be held with the Three R club of July 31 at Cutler park.

Kate Hogue was appointed special auditor. Serving on the committee are Alice Hoover, Chloe Pride, and Anna Shafer. The next regular meeting will be held July 8.

Initiation

At the last regular meeting of the Women of the Moose, the membership chairman, Daisy Douglas, presented her chapter night program. Bill Morley entertained with guitar and vocal numbers.

There were 23 candidates initiated at one time this year. Final arrangements were made for the installation of the new officers to be held Friday evening, June 24. After the closing of the chapter, refreshments were served in the basement by the membership chairman and her committee.

Farewell

Mrs. Zeno Dent of the Herald and News is to be feted at a farewell party given in her honor Wednesday evening by members of the staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Dent are planning to make their home in Eugene. Mr. Dent has been with the veterans administration in this city and will continue in this work in the Eugene office.

THE PRETTY SMILE of Elaine White shows her happiness over her birthday cake. Several young friends helped her celebrate her third birthday at a party last month.
