Stocks Gain, But Slowly

NEW YORK, June 29 (AP)—A slow but persistent advance lifted stock prices fractions to around a point today.

The advance followed a short period of early shakiness when a number of key issues were pushed down a bit.

Only a limited amount of business was done, with turnover at the rate of about 550,000 shares for the full session.

Brokers found at least two encouraging items in the news—in addition to a good many that were not so favorable.

First, the senate's approval of a plan to give the president the power of plant seizure as well as injunction to deal with emergency labor disputes attracted approving comment.

Second, a rally in the London stock exchange after a recent severe decline helped market sentiment.

Among the gainers were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Studebaker, Sears Roebuck, United Aircraft, Westinghouse Electric, Johns-Manville, Standard Oil (N.J.), Standard Oil of California, and Loew's.

Trending losers were Consolidated Edison, Northern Pacific, and Warner Bros.

WHEAT STAGES SMALL GAIN

CHICAGO, June 29 (AP)—Wheat advanced around a cent at times on the board of trade today, spurred on by gains in cash prices in the Northwest and reports of need for moisture in the spring wheat belt.

The December contract got back above $2.99.

Wheat was practically alone in its display of firmness. Most other commodities did not show much change, although lard provided an exception by dropping sharply. October, November and December lard registered new seasonal lows.

Wheat closed unchanged to 1/4 higher, July $1.96 1/4, corn was 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, July $1.34 1/4, oats were unchanged to 1/4 lower, July 58c, rye was 1/4 higher, July $1.40 1/4, soybeans were 1/4 higher, July $2.34 1/4, and lard was 1/2 to 3/8 cents a hundred pounds lower, July $10.32.

Five Teachers Given Tenure

Five teachers were elected to tenure at the school board meeting Monday night. Only teachers employed at Klamath Union high school are eligible for tenure, which means that they may not be removed from the staff without due cause being shown for their dismissal as seated in the school law.

Tenure exists only in school districts with a population of 20,000. Since the elementary district does not contain this number, teachers there do not receive tenure benefits.

The following teachers were elected, having completed three years of probation. They are Robert Henderson, driving training, Orpha Hudson, English, Paul McCall, driving training, Francis Scapella, wood working, and Lorne Simons, biology.

Part time teachers, who were given tenure at KUMHS, are Robert Hamister, art; Joe LaClair, audio aids and Gary Robertson, supervisor.

At present, including the five new full time teachers, there are 31 teachers on tenure. Six, who are on a part-time basis, have also received it.

BOYLE'S COLUMN

Here's Advice For The June Bridegroom-To-Be

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK, June 29 (AP)—To the Poor Man's Philosopher:
"Dear Sir,
"I am 25 years old. I will become a June bridegroom the last day of the month. As this is my first marriage, I am anxious to make a good impression. Is there anything I ought to know? Should I look for a job now—or later?"

"BASHFUL."
(Signed)

Your anxiety is quite natural, bashful. But you must calm yourself, my boy. After all you soon will be marrying for two, and that takes strength.

You show a lot of character in your desire to make a good impression at your first wedding. So many boys these days go into marriage thoughtlessly—they just take it as another light-hearted adventure. Sometimes I wonder what the world is coming to, or I—

Yes, there are many things you ought to know. A wedding is indeed a serious matter, but if it is prepared for properly there is no reason why it can't be fun for everybody.

Naturally, my boy, there are a few business details to be straightened out. And it is better that they be arranged in advance so that there will be no hard feelings afterward.

The first thing, of course, is the dowry. You simply mustn't let any affection for your bride influence you in this important matter. More and more parents are finding themselves with daughters on their hands these days, and a good man is getting harder to find. So drive a fair but sharp bargain.

Take It Gently

Many fathers-in-law still dislike making cash settlements, and it is perhaps wise to respect this old-fashioned prejudice. However, if your bride's dad is any man at all he probably will be only too glad to present you and his daughter with a newly-furnished apartment, rent-paid for three years. If he isn't able to buy you a new car, too, be big about it—take his old car.

Now there is the matter of the wedding itself. Too much stress has been laid on the importance of the ring. After all it is only a symbol. Buy a simple ring. Just be sure the gold won't wear off it until at least three days after the ceremony.

What to wear? My boy, they probably wouldn't notice what you were wearing if you showed up in bathing trunks. Don't do it, however—even as a gag. Better arrive in a neat blue serge, freshly pressed if possible. And it is still good taste—no matter how hot the day—to wear a necktie, preferably one with no blue girls painted on it.

Authorities differ as to whether you should invite your old girl friends to the ceremony. For my part I believe you should. The sight of, say, half a dozen of your ex-flames weeping in despair will give your bride a feeling of quiet victory. And, after all, she is the one you want to make happy.

Cheap Living

But once she has said "I do" you must begin at once teaching her how two can live as cheaply as two. Give her a little lesson in thrift. When the guests shower you with old shoes, pick up a pair and murmur, "Hummm, my size." And scrape up a few handfuls of rice from the pavement and stuff them in your pockets. If she's really your little canary, she'll keep the rice—and keep right on chirping.

There is one last thing, my boy—that matter of a job. Just before you drive off in your father-in-law's car, it might be wise to suggest that he start looking at once for employment for you.

It is a sad time for fathers when they lose their daughters, and this task will reassure the old man there is still something for him to do in the world—while you're enjoying your honeymoon, as a June bridegroom should.

And take your bride along, too, my boy. She'll be grateful forever for this little touch of thoughtfulness.

Britain Calls Money Experts For Confab

LONDON, June 29 (AP)—Britain has called the commonwealth's highest financial and economic planners to emergency talks on its deepening economic crisis.

Official sources reported today the conference of finance ministers will be held in early July at a date to be settled later.

Invitations were sent last week to Australia, Canada, India, New Zealand, Pakistan and South Africa. Only South Africa has so far accepted.

An official statement formally announcing the talks is expected later today.

Purpose of the meeting would be to talk over ways and means of cutting down the drain on Britain's gold and dollar reserves.

There has dropped from $2,208,000,000 to $1,824,000,000 in the past year despite Marshall plan aid and an all-out export drive.

The treasury, in the past, has been reported as considering $2,000,000,000 the "danger point" below which these reserves could not be allowed to go without threatening the stability of the pound and the country's position as banker to the sterling area.

Church Of Christ Slates Meetings

A series of evangelistic meetings will be held, beginning Thursday and continuing through July 10, at the Church of Christ, 2205 Wentland.

Evangelist Albert Smith of Corvallis is conducting the services. Meetings will be held daily at 7:30 p. m.

Evangelist Smith will also conduct a 15-minute daily broadcast at 3 p. m. on station KPLW while he is here.
