

Vows Exchanged At Malin

MALIN—In a double ring ceremony, Saturday afternoon, June 26, Dorothy Ann Loosley, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Loosley, Malin, exchanged marriage vows with Edwin Darold Wissenbach in the Malin Presbyterian church.

The impressive service was read at two o'clock by Rev. Glen A. Morton in the presence of one hundred relatives and friends of the couple.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wissenbach, Shady Pine, Oregon. Arrangements of pink and white gladioli, massed syringa blossoms and many tall white tapers in candelabra formed a background for the wedding party. Pewes were marked with sprays of syringa tied with white satin ribbons.

Proceeding the service Ben Loftsgaard, Malin, sang "Oh, Promise Me" and during the exchange of vows, Lamott's "The Lord's Prayer."

Instrumental numbers were by Mrs. Edwin Stastney at the piano and Mrs. Berill Shogren at the organ, an antique in the Loosley family, being the first one in Jackson county. Mrs. Shogren and Mrs. Stastney also played the traditional wedding marches.

Dorothy, given in marriage by her father, wore traditional white satin made en train. Her deep lace edged bertha outlined a sheer yoke. A pearl encrusted tiara caught her finger-tip white veil and she carried a white Rainbow prayer book with a cluster of pink rose buds, tied with streamers of white satin ribbon.

Matron of honor was Mrs. James Vaughn, Philomath, Oregon. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Loosley, sister-in-law of the bride, of Astoria, and Marilyn Schunk, Sico, Oregon. They are sorority sisters of the bride. The three young women are affiliated with Kappa Delta.

Trocks worn by the attendants were identical sheers, made with deep flounces that extended up the back of the skirt. Berthas outlined the shoulders and sleeves were brief. Mrs. Vaughn was in peach. Mrs. Loosley and Marilyn in orchid. Each carried an arm arrangement of pink larkspur and white carnations.

Best man was Darwin Wissenbach, twin brother of the groom. Ushers were John Loosley, Astoria, brother of the bride, and Edward Rogers, Oakland, California. The new Mr. and Mrs. Wissenbach and their parents received immediately following the ceremony in the church parlor where the reception was held.

The young couple cut the first slice of their pretty three tiered pink and white wedding cake, arranged on a large mirror encircled by Esther Reed daisies.

Mrs. F. W. Loosley, aunt of the bride, Susanville, served the confection. Pouring were Mrs. J. Perry Haley and Mrs. Harry E. Wilson, both of Malin. Mrs. Darwin Wissenbach was at the punch bowl and Mrs. Jack Kellum was in charge of the sweet book.

Tall white tapers in crystal holders complemented the other refreshment table arrangements. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Loosley chose a deep blue afternoon frock and lacy gray hat. Her corsage was pink rose buds.

Mrs. Wissenbach, mother of the groom wore a forest green ensemble with white picture hat. Her flowers were geraniums. Mrs. Wissenbach chose a navy suit and hat with white accessories. Her rose buds were pinned at the shoulder.

By Louise Reinhart

Klamath Falls, July 2 — Two ladies are in my thoughts as I write these lines. Both contributed greatly to the enrichment of their audiences this week. One is Mrs. Annalee Uhrek, formerly of Vancouver, who inspired inspiringly at the joint meeting of the Lions and Lionesses for their installation banquet. Beautiful, talented, gracious, intelligent, and all the other nice adjectives describe this lovely lady. The other one is Mrs. Kathleen Ward, guest speaker at the Soroptimist club. She took a four months trip to South America last year, and shared her impressions and experiences with a very attentive and appreciative audience. The Spanish speaking people have an expression "my simpatica" which is their highest compliment, and which has no exact English interpretation. Kathleen truly deserves this expression.

Also, congratulations from Reinhardt, at 519 Main, to Queen Joyce Copeland and her court, all of whom are a credit to the fair sex. We wish you girls a happy time. We invite you to come in our shop anytime and feel free to look around leisurely. You may be thinking about the future, when you will need nice china, glassware, and silverware, and now is a good time to make a selection and let us register it, so your friends and family will know what to buy when your birthday and holidays roll around. And everyone saves 8 & H Green Stamps which we give gladly.
