

BASIN RODEO HIGHLIGHTS

A LONG LINE OF riders parade on Main street Monday as hundreds line the streets to watch the huge Fourth of July parade.

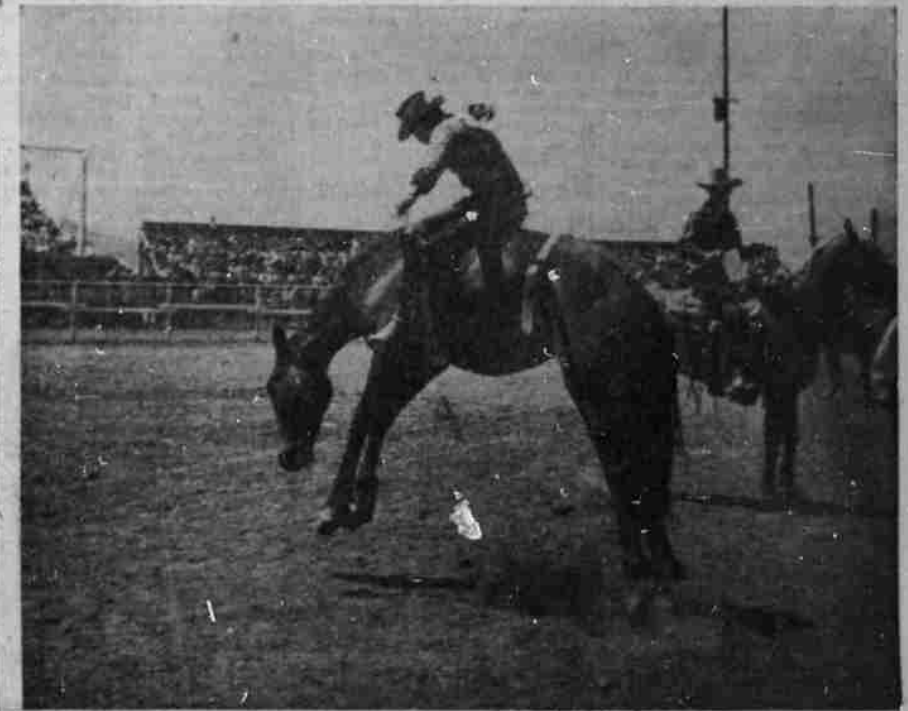

GRAND SWEEPSTAKES WINNER of the kiddies' parade is this cute trio. Two-year-old Jean Dae Bispham sits in her carriage like a queen while brothers Joe, 5, and Dick, 9, draw the vehicle.

ON THE HEAD is Basil Brown, and Stan Johnson comes up to snag the hind legs of the critter in the team tying roping competition.

STRAWBERRY SHAKE throws Kid Riddle as the two pick-up riders come up to protect the local Indian lad in the saddle bronc event during the Fourth of July rodeo show.

LEE CAPTAIN gets a rough ride in the bareback contest from bronc Easy Money.

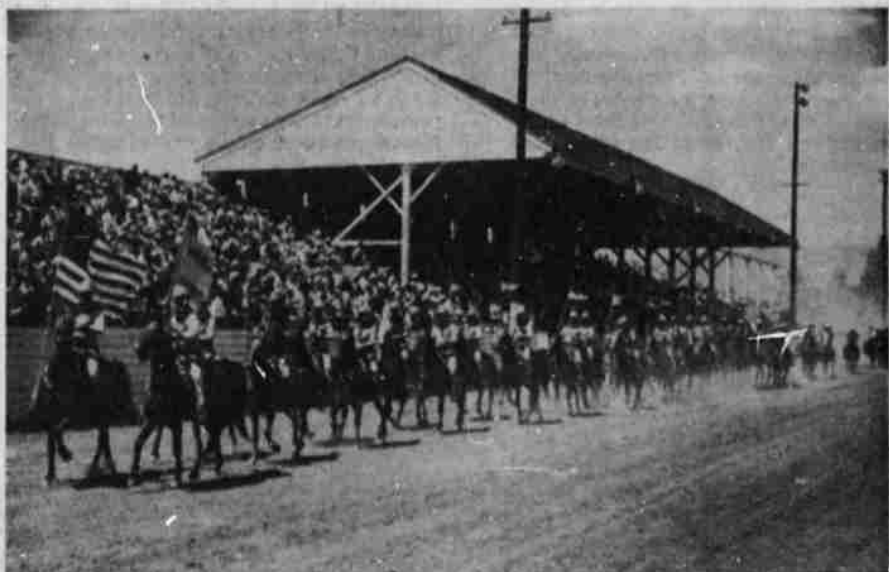

CROWD-PLEASER of the rodeo was the calf scramble. Here a lad latches on to an elusive critter, while in the background another boy puts the final clincher on an unhappy calf.

FAST-RIDING ANN CURRY boots her horse in ahead of Tiburcio Alvarez during the quarter-mile stock horse race Monday.

JUST BEFORE THE FALL—Skippy Jackson looks mighty uncomfortable just before Poker Chip threw him for a three-point landing in the bareback bronc riding.

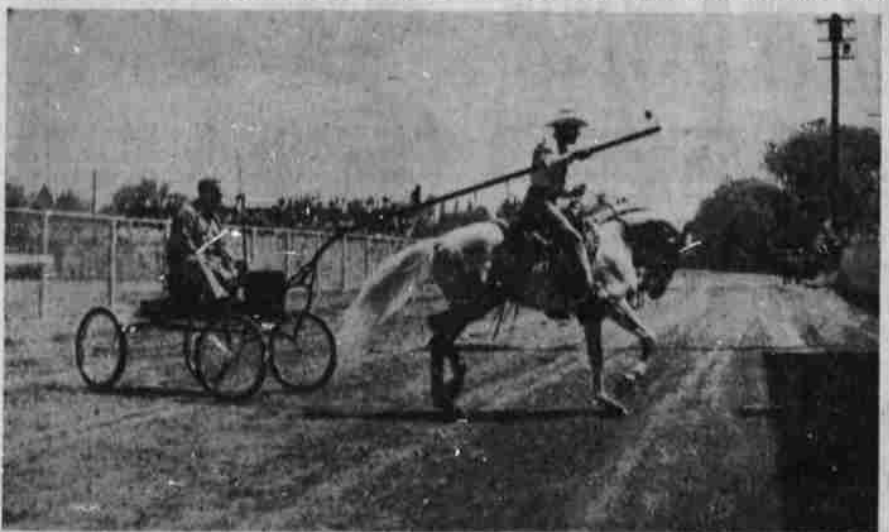

YAMHILL COUNTY Sheriff's Posse parades by the stand during the grand entry Monday. The Yamhill hard-riding posse made a big hit with rodeo fans during the three-day show.

THE JOKER gives Johnny Becker a wild ride in the Brahma bull riding contest at the fairgrounds.

VARIOUS RIDING GROUPS line up in front of the stands during a grand entry.

MAYOR ROBERT THOMPSON gets a ride in the surry drawn by the world-famous The Harvester. Owner Jim Fagan of Reseda, Calif., is up.
